

The All Seeing Eye

The all seeing eye
With ears two
Recording everything
That you say or do
You can run
But they
Can see through
The curtain of your soul
And read through

To the corners
Of your mind
So be true

Poetry and the Question of Modernity Ian Cooper, 2020-01-15 Interest in Martin Heidegger was recently reawakened by the revelations in his newly published Black Notebooks of the full terrible extent of his political commitments in the 1930s and 1940s The revelations reminded us of the dark allegiances co existing with one of the profoundest and most important philosophical projects of the twentieth century one that is of incomparable importance for literature and especially for poetry which Heidegger saw as embodying a receptiveness to Being and a resistance to the instrumental tendencies of modernity Poetry and the Question of Modernity From Heidegger to the Present is the first extended account of the relationship between Heidegger's philosophy and the modern lyric It argues that some of the best known modern poets in German and English from Paul Celan to Seamus Heaney and Les Murray are in deep imaginative affinity with Heidegger's enquiry into finitude language and Being But the work of each of these poets challenges Heidegger because each appeals to a transcendence taking place in language that is inseparable from the motion of encounter with embodied others It is thus poetry which reveals the full measure of Heidegger's relevance in redefining modern selfhood and poetry which reveals the depth of his blindness

"The Soul Exceeds Its Circumstances" Eugene O'Brien, 2016-11-15 The Soul Exceeds its Circumstances brings together sixteen of the most prominent scholars who have written on Seamus Heaney to examine the Nobel Prize winner's later poetry from a variety of critical and theoretical perspectives While a great deal of attention has been devoted to Heaney's early and middle poems the Bog Poems in particular this book focuses on the poetry collected in Heaney's Seeing Things 1991 The Spirit Level 1996 Electric Light 2001 District and Circle 2006 and Human Chain 2010 as a thematically connected set of writings The starting point of the essays in this collection is that these later poems can be grouped in terms of style theme approach and intertextuality They develop themes that were apparent in Heaney's earlier work but they also break with these themes and address issues that are radically different from those of the earlier collections The essays are divided into five sections focusing on ideas of death the later style translation and transnational poetics luminous things and gifts and usual and unusual spaces A number of the contributors see Heaney as stressing the literary over the actual and as always looking at the interstices and positions of liminality and complexity His use of literary references in his later poetry exemplifies his search for literary avatars against whom he can test his own ideas and with whom he can enter into an aesthetic and ethical dialogue The essayists cover a great deal of Heaney's debts to classical and modern literature in the original languages and in translations and demonstrate the degree to which the streets on which Heaney walked and wrote were two way he was influenced by Virgil Petrarch Milosz Wordsworth Keats Rilke and others and in turn had an impact on contemporary poets This remarkable collection will appeal to scholars and literary critics undergraduates as well as graduate students and to the many general readers of Heaney's poetry

Politics and the Rhetoric of Poetry ,2022-06-13 The rich and varied nature of twentieth century Anglo Irish and Irish poetry is reflected in the essays presented in Politics and the Rhetoric of Poetry Perspectives on Modern Anglo Irish Poetry

The linguistic and theoretical observations formulated in close readings of apparently non political texts disclose implied political positions and suggest to what extent rhetoric and the nature of language are at the root of such questions as how should we read contemporary poetry How can poems play a part in the resolution of the political and historic conflict Nuala Ní Dhomhnaill's versions of The T in Brendan Kennelly's Cromwell Paul Muldoon's Madoc and Ciaran Carson's Belfast Confetti are analysed in detail as is the relationship between rhetoric and politics in Seamus Heaney and Derek Mahon Earlier twentieth century poets such as Thomas Kinsella John Hewitt Patrick Kavanagh John Montague Louis MacNeice and Padraic Colum are also examined The contingent nature of language is recognized by many of these poets and the seventeen essays bring out the political charge hidden in the poetry This includes the deliberate choice of the poetic form the internal dialogue or the complexity of voices in the poem and a particular preoccupation with endings These essays demonstrate Yeats's contention that Deliberation can be so intensified that it becomes synonymous with inspiration
