Magic in Europe Valerie Irene Jane Flint, 1999 Magic in the Middle Ages Richard Kieckhefer, 2014-11-06 How was magic practised in medieval times How did it relate to the diverse beliefs and practices that characterised this fascinating period In Magic in the Middle Ages Richard Kieckhefer surveys the growth and development of magic in medieval times He examines its relation to religion science philosophy art literature and politics before introducing us to the different types of magic that were used the kinds of people who practised magic and the reasoning behind their beliefs In addition he shows how magic served as a point of contact between the popular and elite classes how the reality of magical beliefs is reflected in the fiction of medieval literature and how the persecution of magic and witchcraft led to changes in the law This book places magic at the crossroads of medieval culture shedding light on many other aspects of life in the Middle Ages The Rise of Magic in Early Medieval Europe Valerie Irene Jane Flint, 2020-03-31 There are forces better recognized as belonging to human society than repressed or left to waste away or growl about upon its fringes So writes Valerie Flint in this powerful work on magic in early medieval Europe Flint shows how many of the more discerning leaders of the early medieval Church decided to promote non Christian practices originally condemned as magical rather than repressing them or leaving them to waste away or growl These wise leaders actively and enthusiastically incorporated specific kinds of magic into the dominant culture not only to appease the contemporary non Christian opposition but also to enhance Christianity itself Esoteric Transfers and Constructions Mark Sedgwick, Francesco Piraino, 2021-02-27 Similarities between esoteric and mystical currents in different religious traditions have long interested scholars This book takes a new look at the relationship between such currents It advances a discussion that started with the search for religious essences archetypes and universals from William James to Eranos The universal categories that resulted from that search were later criticized as essentialist constructions and questioned by deconstructionists An alternative explanation was advanced by diffusionists that there were transfers between different traditions This book presents empirical case studies of such constructions and of transfers between Judaism Christianity and Islam in the premodern period and Judaism Christianity and Western esotericism in the modern period It shows that there were indeed transfers that can be clearly documented and that there were also indeed constructions often very imaginative It also shows that there were many cases that were neither transfers nor constructions but a mixture of the two
