Consecration of Images and Stûpas in Indo-Tibetan Tantric Buddhism Yael Bentor, 2023-08-14 The present work is an investigation of the Indo Tibetan ritual for consecrating images stupas books and temples It is based on a thorough examination of the relevant Tibetan textual material contained in Tantras commentaries ritual manuals and explanatory works on consecration As rituals are meant to be performed this textual study is combined with observations of performances and interviews with performers The book opens with a general discussion of certain principles of tantric rituals and the foundations of Indo Tibetan consecration The main part focuses on a specific performance of the ritual in a Tibetan monastery located in the Kathmandu Valley This volume contributes to the often neglected field of Indo Tibetan Buddhist rituals It is concerned with the sacred nature of objects for worship as well as with the main Buddhist tantric transformation into a chosen tantric Buddha The Heart of the World Ian Baker, 2006-05-02 The myth of Shangri la originates in Tibetan Buddhist beliefs in beyul or hidden lands sacred sanctuaries that reveal themselves to devout pilgrims and in times of crisis The more remote and inaccessible the beyul the vaster its reputed qualities Ancient Tibetan prophecies declare that the greatest of all hidden lands lies at the heart of the forbidding Tsangpo Gorge deep in the Himalayas and veiled by a colossal waterfall Nineteenth century accounts of this fabled waterfall inspired a series of ill fated European expeditions that ended prematurely in 1925 when the intrepid British plant collector Frank Kingdon Ward penetrated all but a five mile section of the Tsangpo s innermost gorge and declared that the falls were no more than a religious myth and a romance of geography The heart of the Tsangpo Gorge remained a blank spot on the map of world exploration until world class climber and Buddhist scholar Ian Baker delved into the legends Whatever cryptic Tibetan scrolls or past explorers had said about the Tsangpo s innermost gorge Baker determined could be verified only by exploring the uncharted five mile gap After several years of encountering sheer cliffs maelstroms of impassable white water and dense leech infested jungles on the last of a series of extraordinary expeditions Baker and his National Geographic sponsored team reached the depths of the Tsangpo Gorge They made news worldwide by finding there a 108 foot high waterfall the legendary grail of Western explorers and Tibetan seekers alike The Heart of the World is one of the most captivating stories of exploration and discovery in recent memory an extraordinary journey to one of the wildest and most inaccessible places on earth and a pilgrimage to the heart of the Tibetan Buddhist faith The Roots of Transcendence Edward Bruce Bynum, 2006-09-01 Critical Acclaim for The Roots of Transcendence From the Scholars This is a powerful book A true picture of the cross fertilization of human history and culture A major book one of the signposts of the time Molefi Kete Asante PhD Chairman Department of African American Studies Temple University Author Afrocentricity and Rhythms Unity From the Psychiatrists A PIONEERING TEXT in Transego Psychology The author envisions the next step in the development of human psychology He raises the new question that the self is not localized in the mind but is non local a field of interconnected relations A valuable model is presented to define psychopathological diagnostic issues and therapeutic treatment issues Truly wonderful Richard D King MD From the Preface Author African Origin of Biological Psychiatry From the Consciousness Researchers A daring leap involving new conceptual models Discusses the anxieties and stresses of our time while IT PROVIDES READERS THE TOOLS BY WHICH ANXIETIES AND STRESSES CAN BE ADDRESSED Stanley

Varela, Pierre Vermersch, 2003-03-20 This book searches for the sources and means for a disciplined practical approach to exploring human experience The spirit of this book is pragmatic and relies on a Husserlian phenomenology primarily understood as a method of exploring our experience The authors do not aim at a neo Kantian a priori new theory of experience but instead they describe a concrete activity how we examine what we live through how we become aware of our own mental life The range of experiences of which we can become aware is vast all the normal dimensions of human life perception motion memory imagination speech everyday social interactions cognitive events that can be precisely defined as tasks in laboratory experiments e g a protocol for visual attention but also manifestations of mental life more fraught with meaning dreaming intense emotions social tensions altered states of consciousness The central assertion in this work is that this immanent ability is habitually ignored or at best practiced unsystematically that is to say blindly Exploring human experience amounts to developing and cultivating this basic ability through specific training Only a hands on non dogmatic approach can lead to progress and that is what animates this book Series B
