Chinese Contemporary Art in the Global Auction Market Anita Archer, 2022-04-04 Chinese Contemporary Art in the Global Auction Market examines the rapid rise of the global market for Chinese Contemporary art across the turn of the millennium Focusing on key auction events it traces the systematic and strategic role played by auction houses in promoting the work of avant garde Chinese artists transforming them into multi million dollar global art superstars Anita Archer's research into this emerging art market reveals a powerful global network of collectors curators dealers and auction house specialists whose understanding of the mechanics of value formation in the global art world consolidated a framework for the promotion of Chinese Contemporary art to a Western audience

Contemporary Chinese Art Jeanne Boden, 2022-05-06 In the early 1990s artist Xu Bing stamped two pigs with respectively nonsensical Latin words and fake Chinese characters and allowed them to mate in an art gallery The performance of two creatures devoid of human consciousness yet carrying on their bodies the marks of human civilization engaging in the most primal form of social intercourse confronted the public with the tension between nature and civilization The work also addresses the tension between China and the West and therefore perfectly fits the core message of this book Contemporary art in China takes place in a post socialist post Mao context and at the same time a post traditional one searching for balance between aesthetic legacy and modernization It also tries to find its position in the post colonial globalized arena This book explores the tension between individual artistic freedom and a dominant discourse of central Chinese government between China's cultural legacy and modernization and between China and a global art world still dominated by a Western canon As a case study it focuses on the artists who participated in the Venice Biennale in 1993 which was the first time contemporary art from mainland China was structurally invited to participate in a global art context Jeanne Boden has a PhD in Oriental Languages and Cultures Her research focuses on Eurocentrism Sinocentrism and contemporary Chinese art jeanneboden.com Cover picture Xu Bing A Case Study of Transference 1993 94

Tracing Contemporary Chinese Art Isaac Leung, 2023-11-13 This book explores the author's ten year ethnographic journey in different locations in Shanghai His immersion in China's art world is grounded in a topology of places and new ways of writing and deploying history today The ethnographic approaches to experiencing analysing and representing space offer a critical tool to explore a different version of realism invisible in the nominal art and art history paradigms As the market and institutional norms are still being defined this book also documents and analyses how individuals have strived to negotiate boundaries in the art world and thus create unique selfhood Instead of conventional methods of periodisation and stylistic analysis this book presents a historiographic strategy emphasising the philosophical significance of spatial realism to offer insights into history subjectivities and political institutions Modern Chinese Religion II: 1850 - 2015 (2 vols.), 2015-10-20 The last of four two volume sets on the key periods of paradigm shift in Chinese religious and cultural history this book examines the transformation of values in China since 1850 in the secular realms of economics science medicine aesthetics media and gender and in each of the major religions Confucianism Buddhism Daoism Christianity as well as in Marxist discourse The nation and science are the values invoked most frequently with the market and democracy a distant second As in previous periods of fundamental change in Chinese history rationalization and secularization have played central roles but interiorization nearly disappears as a driving force Also in continuity with the past the state insists on an exclusive right to define and adjudicate orthodoxy Contributors include Daniel H Bays S bastien Billioud Adam Yuet Chau Na Chen Philip Clart Walter B Davis Arif Dirlik Thomas David DuBois Lizhu Fan David Faure Melissa Wei Tsing Inouye Ji Zhe Xiaofei Kang Eric I Karchmer Andr Lalibert Angela Ki Che Leung Xun Liu Richard Madsen David Ownby Ellen Oxfeld Volker Scheid Grace Yen Shen Michael Szonyi Wang Chien ch uan Xue Yu Mahjong Julia Frances Andrews,Kuiyi Shen,2008 This book serves as the catalog for the exhibition Mahjong Contemporary Chinese Art from the Sigg Collection and accompanying film program at the University of California Berkeley Art Museum and Pacific Film Archive BOOK JACKET Xu Bing and Contemporary Chinese Art Hsingyuan Tsao,Roger T. Ames,2011-09-01 How Chinese is contemporary Chinese art Treasured by collectors critics and art world cognoscenti this art developed within an avant garde that looked West to find a language to strike out against government control Traditionally Chinese artistic expression has been related to the structure and function of the Chinese language and the assumptions of Chinese natural cosmology Is contemporary Chinese art rooted in these traditions or is it an example of cultural self colonization Contributors to this volume address this question going beyond the more obvious political and social commentaries on contemporary Chinese art to find resonances between contemporary artistic ideas and the indigenous sources of Chinese cultural self understanding Focusing in particular on the acclaimed artist Xu Bing this book looks at how he and his peers have navigated between two different cultural sites to establish a third place a place from which to appropriate Western ideas and use them to address centuries old Chinese cultural issues within a Chinese cultural discourse The Art of Modern China Julia F. Andrews,Kuiyi Shen,2012-09-24 In the early twenty first century China occupies a place on center stage in the international art world But what does it mean to be a Chinese artist in the modern age This first comprehensive study of modern Chinese art history traces its evolution chronologically and thematically from the Age of Imperialism to the present day Julia Andrews and Kuiyi Shen pay particular attention to the dynamic tension between modernity and tradition as well as the interplay of global cosmopolitanism and cultural nationalism This lively accessible and beautifully illustrated text will serve and enlighten scholars students collectors and anyone with an interest in Asian art and artists The Zoomorphic Imagination in Chinese Art and Culture Jerome

Silbergeld, Eugene Y. Wang, 2016-10-31 China has an age old zoomorphic tradition The First Emperor was famously said to have had the heart of a tiger and a wolf The names of foreign tribes were traditionally written with characters that included animal radicals In modern times the communist government frequently referred to Nationalists as running dogs and President Xi Jinping vowing to quell corruption at all levels pledged to capture both the tigers and the flies Splendidly illustrated with works ranging from Bronze Age vessels to twentieth century conceptual pieces this volume is a wide ranging look at zoomorphic and anthropomorphic imagery in Chinese art The contributors leading scholars in Chinese art history and related fields consider depictions of animals not as simple one for one symbolic equivalents they pursue in depth in complexity and in multiple dimensions the ways that Chinese have used animals from earliest times to the present day to represent and rhetorically stage complex ideas about the world around them examining what this means about China past and present In each chapter a specific example or theme based on real or mythic creatures is derived from religious political or other sources providing the detailed and learned examination needed to understand the means by which such imagery was embedded in Chinese cultural life Bronze Age taotie motifs calendrical animals zoomorphic modes in Tantric Buddhist art Song dragons and their painters animal rebuses Heaven sent auspicious horses and foreign sent tribute giraffes the fantastic specimens depicted in the Qing Manual of Sea Oddities the weirdly indeterminate creatures found in the contemporary art of Huang Yong Ping these and other notable examples reveal Chinese attitudes over time toward the animal realm explore Chinese psychology and patterns of imagination and explain some of the critical means and motives of Chinese visual culture The Zoomorphic Imagination in Chinese Art and Culture will find a ready audience among East Asian art and visual culture specialists and those with an interest in literary or visual rhetoric Contributors Sarah Allan Qianshen Bai Susan Bush Daniel Greenberg Carmelita Carma Hinton Judy Chungwa Ho Kristina Kleutghen Kathlyn Liscomb Jennifer Purtle Jerome Silbergeld Henrik S rensen and Eugene Y Wang The Art of Women in Contemporary China Patricia Eichenbaum

Karetzky, 2020-01-08 This book presents in eight chapters the work of over 75 Chinese female artists both pictorial and poetic Their art is viewed within a framework of eight themes The broad topics explored include the body life the representation of the experience of being a woman home and the world a view of children and other women clothes social conscience fantasy and abstraction nonfigurative work and its viability as a medium to express the spiritual These themes provide several lenses through which to enjoy and compare these artists approaches and outputs The volume is unique in its inclusion of poetry by contemporary women whose voices articulate so many of the same concerns as the visual artists In China poetry has always been the prime form of artistic expression and it remains so today Looking at this poetry affords us a different means of appreciating the art of women in contemporary society Brand New Art From China Barbara Pollack, 2018-06-25 A unique and visionary generation of young Chinese artists are coming to prominence in the art world just as China cements its place as the second largest art market on the planet Building on the new frontiers opened up by the Chinese artists of the late 1980s and 1990s artists such as Ai Wei Wei who came to the West and became household names this new generation are provocative exciting and bold But what does it mean to be a Chinese artist today And how can we better understand their work Here renowned critic Barbara Pollack presents the first book to tell the story of how these Chinese millennials fast becoming global art superstars negotiate their cultural heritage and what this means for China s impact on the future of global culture Many young Chinese artists have declared they are not Chinese but global this book investigates just what that means for China the art market and the world Brand new Art from China is the first collection to showcase the dynamic new art coming from Chinese artists and features full colour photos and video stills throughout with many works being published in book form for the first time Featuring an in depth interview with Zhang Xiaogang probably the most well known artist in China itself whose sombre portraits of Chinese families during the Cultural Revolution sell for as much as 12 million at auction alongside unparalleled access to the tastemakers of today s art scene Brand New Art from China is the essential guide to Chinese contemporary art today its vision values and aesthetics The Global Rules of Art Larissa

Buchholz,2022-11-22 A trailblazing look at the historical emergence of a global field in contemporary art and the diverse ways artists become valued worldwide Prior to the 1980s the postwar canon of international contemporary art was made up almost exclusively of artists from North America and Western Europe while cultural agents from other parts of the world often found themselves on the margins The Global Rules of Art examines how this discriminatory situation has changed in recent decades Drawing from abundant sources including objective indicators from more than one hundred countries multiple institutional histories and discourses extensive fieldwork and interviews with artists critics curators gallerists and auction house agents Larissa Buchholz examines the emergence of a world spanning art field whose logics have increasingly become defined in global terms Deftly blending comprehensive historical analyses with illuminating case studies The Global Rules of Art breaks new ground in its exploration of valuation and how cultural hierarchies take shape in a global context The book s innovative global field approach will appeal to scholars in the sociology of art cultural and economic sociology interdisciplinary global studies and anyone interested in the dynamics of global art and culture The Minjian

Avant-Garde Chang Tan,2024-02-15 The Minjian Avant Garde studies how experimental artists in China mixed with brought changes to and let themselves be transformed by minjian the volatile and diverse public of the post Mao era Departing from the usual emphasis on art institutions global markets or artists communities Chang Tan proposes a new analytical framework in the theories of socially engaged art that stresses the critical agency of participants the affective functions of objects and the versatility of the artists in diverse sociopolitical spheres Drawing from hitherto untapped archival materials and interviews with the artists Tan challenges the views of Chinese artists as either dissidents or conformists to the regime and sees them as navigators and negotiators among diverse political discourses and interests She questions the fetishization of marginalized communities among practitioners of progressive art and politics arguing that the members of minjian are often more complex defiant and savvy than the elites would assume The Minjian Avant Garde critically assesses the rise of populism in both art and politics and show that minjian could constitute either a democratizing or a coercive force This book was published with generous support from the George Dewey and Mary J Krumrine Endowment practices partake and which they in turn reconfigure The book features 20 essays written by a select group of international junior and senior scholars engaged in ambitious and methodologically innovative research on contemporary Chinese art Their multi faceted in part interdisciplinary approaches are complemented by four contributions by distinguished practitioners in the field who as art curators and critics are located in China and explore key developments within Chinese art and the changing art scene of the last three decades Ink Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2013 Featuring 70 works in various media paintings calligraphy photographs woodblock prints video and sculpture that were created during the past three decades Ink Art Past as Present in Contemporary China will demonstrate how China s ancient pattern of seeking cultural renewal through the reinterpretation of past models remains a viable creative path Although all of the artists have transformed their sources through new modes of expression visitors will recognize thematic aesthetic or technical attributes in their creations that have meaningful links to China s artistic past The exhibition will be organized thematically into four parts and will include such highlights as Xu Bing s dramatic Book from the Sky ca 1988 an installation that will fill an entire gallery Family Tree 2000 a set of vivid photographs documenting a performance by Zhang Huan in which his facial features and his identity are obscured gradually by physiognomic texts that are inscribed directly onto his face and Map of China 2006 by Ai Weiwei which is constructed entirely of wood salvaged from demolished Qing dynasty temples
