Main Currents In Early Christian Thought:

Main Currents in Early Christian Thought Robert R. Barr,1966-01-01 Main Currents in Early Christian Thought Robert R. Barr,2004-10-07 This book by an American Jesuit priest who completed doctoral studies under Jean Danielou at Paris serves to present some of the highlights of the era of the fathers of the church a period which begins with post New Testament Christian writing and extends to about the end of the seventh century A D It is a survey of the era and an introduction to the context of the times in which the fathers thought and wrote and fought not always without bloodshed for the faith and way of life which was coming to be called Christian In Father Barr s summary we feel the pulsing ebb and flow of the early history of Christianity the history of the first impacts of the extraordinary gospel message the good news as it becomes embodied in and expressed by bishops and theologians through the critical early centuries These far away figures men like Clement of Rome Irenaeus Tertullian and Athanasius take on familiar human form as the author sketches them in their milieu showing them acting and reacting amid the various complex forces of their era Cyprian of Carthage puzzling over what to do with the apostate certificate bearers Justin and Origen in their fiery youth Nestorius and his nemesis Cyril of Alexandria in their fiery prime Augustine in the West and the golden age fathers in the East These and other figures emerge as vigorous and sometimes colorful personalities in this lively mosaic of early Christian times Main Currents in Early Christian Thoughts Robert Barr,1966 Annual Catalogue of the Officers and Students Colgate Rochester Divinity School,1925 Catalogue of the University of Michigan University of Michigan,1958 Announcements for the following year included in some vols Short History of the Catholic Church J. Derek Holmes,Bernard Bickers,2002-08-05 This revised edition of a one volume history of the Roman Catholic church includes a final chapter giving an impressionistic account of some of the issues facing the Church as it nears the third millennium of its existence It also covers the Christian history of the first two millennia from the origins of the Church in New Testament times through to the year 2000 The Quarterly Journal of the University of North Dakota ,1924 The Oxford Handbook of Nineteenth-century Christian Thought Joel D. S. Rasmussen,Judith E. Wolfe,Johannes Zachhuber,2017 This Handbook considers Christian thought in the long nineteenth century from the French Revolution to the First World War encompassing not only doctrine and theology but also Christianity s mutual influence on literature and the arts political and economic thought and the natural and social sciences Beginning to Read the Fathers Boniface Ramsey,2012 Now revised Beginning to Read the Fathers is an introduction to the church s earliest writers preachers and theologians It presupposes no more knowledge on the part of the reader than that the fathers existed and that their ideas might be important and perhaps even interesting The book does not restrict itself to such topics as Christology and ecclesiology but includes other areas like martyrdom and prayer which were highly important in shaping the mind and heart of the early church The material in this book is arranged thematically and follows a natural progression Each chapter attempts to give a real taste of the subject in question by providing numerous selections from the writings of the fathers some of them classic statements and some relatively obscure Fathers from nearly all periods and traditions are cited The author s opinions although not nonexistent are subordinate to the presentation of the fathers themselves The work was written in a nontechnical style to be read both by beginners and by people with some expertise in the field It concludes with suggestions for a patristics reading program for those who wish to pursue a study of the fathers in more depth

Orientalia F. Young, Mark J. Edwards, Paul M. Parvis, 2006 Papers presented at the Fourteenth International Conference on Patristic Studies held in Oxford 2003 see also Studia Patristica 39 40 42 and 43 The successive sets of Studia Patristica contain papers delivered at the International Conferences on Patristic Studies which meet for a week once every four years in Oxford they are held under the aegis of the Theology Faculty of the University Members of these conferences come from all over the world and most offer papers These range over the whole field both East and West from the second century to a section on the Nachleben of the Fathers The majority are short papers dealing with some small and manageable point they raise and sometimes resolve questions about the authenticity of documents dates of events and such like and some unveil new texts The smaller number of longer papers put such matters into context and indicate wider trends The whole reflects the state of Patristic scholarship and demonstrates the vigour and popularity of the subject

The New Conscientious Objection Charles C. Moskos, John Whiteclay Chambers, 1993 This study examines the changing motives and patterns of conscientious objection as well as state policies toward objectors in the Western world

Another Look A. J. Abraham, 2013-12-06 Another Look One God and Three Faiths is a unique study of sacred history and monotheism This book lends a refreshing sense of clarity to the misunderstandings between the three western religions Judaism Christianity and Islam Another Look compares the three faiths emphasizing their similarities and differences A J Abraham s research is prodigious reconstructing religious roots with insight and originality This comprehensive introduction will prove useful for both monotheists and followers of other religions
