Main Trends of Research in the Social and Human Sciences, 1970 International Social Science Peter Lengyel, 2017-07-05 This book examines the international social science program of UNESCO as it evolved over nearly four decades between 1946 and 1984 It provides some remarks about the organizational setting particularly the double hybridization of UNESCO and its consequences for the organization s functionalism National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1971 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 Unesco and Social Sciences S. P. Agrawal, J. C. Aggarwal, 1988 The Social Sciences Since the Second World War Daniel Bell, Organizing his work thematically to explore important ideas and trends that have influenced the social sciences since World War II Bell charts the rise and fall of major developments in the field and presents a comprehensive survey of the progress of the social sciences over this thirty five year period Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), 1979 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 The Social Engagement of Social Science, a Tavistock Anthology, Volume 1 Eric Trist, Hugh Murray, Beulah Trist, 2016-01-11 World War II brought together a group of psychiatrists and clinical and social psychologists in the British Army where they developed radical action oriented innovations in social psychiatry They became known as the Tavistock Group since the core members had been at the pre war Tavistock Clinic They created the post war Tavistock Institute of Human Relations and expanded on their wartime achievements by pioneering a new mode of relating theory and practice called in these volumes The Social Engagement of Social Science There are three perspectives the socio psychological the socio technical and the socio ecological These perspectives are interdependent yet each has its own focus and is represented in a separate volume Volume I The Socio Psychological Perspective extends the object relations approach in psychoanalysis to group organizational and wider social life This extension is related to field theory the personality culture approach and open systems theory Action oriented papers deal with key ideas in social psychiatry varieties of group process new paths in family studies the dynamics of organizational change and the unconscious in culture and society The Institute s dynamic social science approach to industrial problems which will be presented in Volume II began with Eric Trist s coal mining program for the development of more productive and personally satisfying self regulating forms of work organization The whole Quality of Working Life movement owes its theoretical and empirical basis to this pathfinding endeavor Volume III will focus on non hierarchical forms of organization facilitating inter organizational relations in complex and rapidly changing environments the socio ecological perspective This perspective is offered as a guide to institution building for the future Creative Marginality Mattei Dogan, 2019-06-03 Tracing the nine formal social science disciplines political science sociology economics history anthropology philosophy geography psychology and linguistics through their cycles of growth specialization fragmentation and hybridization Dogan and Pahre reject the notion of catch all interdisciplinary research They set out to demon Research Policies for the Social and Behavioral Sciences, 1986 Political Violence, Crises and

Revolutions (Routledge Revivals) Ekkart Zimmermann, 2013-04-15 First published in 1983 this extraordinary study provides a comprehensive systematic evaluation of cross national theorizing and quantitative empirical evidence on four interrelated phenomena Political violence Crises Military Coups D tat Revolutions Findings from social psychological research on aggression are integrated in this outstanding study as well as results reported in social historical studies of revolution The focus of the book is always on analytical perspectives and corresponding empirical evidence The author continually highlights the sociostructural and political conditions of political violence crises and revolutions This exceptionally detailed and systematic inventory of theories and research on a classic triad of political science political violence crises and revolutions also includes a remarkable bibliography encompassing over 3000 items FAR Horizons United States. National Security Council. Subcommittee on Foreign Affairs Research, 1968 Legal science, philosophy Jacques Havet, 2019-06-04 No detailed description available for Legal science philosophy Applications in Computing for Social Anthropologists Michael Fischer, 2003-12-16 As increasing numbers of social anthropologists use a computer for wordprocessing interest in other applications inevitably follows Computer Applications in Social Anthropology covers research activities shared by all social anthropologists and introduces new methods for organizing and interpreting data Lucidly written and sympathetic to the particular needs of social anthropologists it will be of immense value to researchers and professionals in anthropology development studies and sociology Research in Education, 1972 Newsletter, 1964 Newsletter U.S. National Commission for UNESCO., 1962 Sociological Dilemmas Piotr Sztompka, 2013-09-11 Sociological Dilemmas Toward a Dialectic Paradigm aims to build a new paradigm in sociological theory by using the method of dialectical critique patterned on the approach utilized by Karl Marx The book explores the sociological heritage with the theoretical works of Karl Marx as the primary basis of exposition and analysis Chapters are devoted to the discussion of the theoretical crisis of sociology the division of sociology between two opposing methodologies dissociation of sociology from the prescientific traditions of social thought and the conclusion reached by the author after an extensive analysis of sociological theories presented in the book The book will be of value to sociologists teachers and students of the social sciences Methodology for the Human Sciences Donald E. Polkinghorne, 1984-06-30 Methodology for the Human Sciences addresses the growing need for a comprehensive textbook that surveys the emerging body of literature on human science research and clearly describes procedures and methods for carrying out new research strategies It provides an overview of developing methods describes their commonalities and variations and contains practical information on how to implement strategies in the field In it Donald Polkinghorne calls for a renewal of debate over which methods are appropriate for the study of human beings proposing that the results of the extensive changes in the philosophy of science since 1960 call for a reexamination of the original issues of this debate The book traces the history of the deliberations from Mill and Dilthey to Hempel and logical positivism examines recently developed systems of inquiry and their importance for the human sciences and relates these systems to the practical problems of doing research on topics related to human experience It discusses historical realism systems and structures phenomenology and hermeneutics action theory and the implications recent systems have for a revised human science methodology Resources in Education ,1997 Lazarsfeld's Methodology and Its Influence on Postwar Sociology in Europe Hynek Jeřábek,2024-11-28 This book explains how the Columbia model of sociology which was based on the methodology of P F Lazarsfeld became a dominant sociological school of thought in American and European postwar sociology Providing an overview of Lazarsfeld s inventions and his methodological organisational and institutional innovations it describes the means by which a particular model of sociology was gradually adopted in departments headed by Lazarsfeld and in the work of his successors With attention to the use by Lazarsfeld of methodological texts published by prestigious publishing houses in his research and teaching his activity in international organisations including the UN his collaboration with figures such as Robert K Merton and Raymond Boudon and his attempts to show how the roots of his empirical research methodology lay in the work of early European scholars this volume shows how a particular sociological paradigm came to prevail over others for more than a decade It will therefore appeal to scholars of sociology with interests in the history of the discipline and questions of research methodology
