A Root Cause To Why Our "Children" Cannot Read Don Jasmin, 2008-07 This is my story but 90% of Viet Nam Veterans will be able to identify with the same troubles humiliation regrets that I had to live with No body told me that the life I was about to live would only be the being of what the war did to our minds body and soul Viet Nam took it s toll on those who fought and came home The realization that something was very wrong came years later Men turned to drugs and alcohol to numb the pain of reliving the memories that like a movie ran endlessly day in and day out Night time brought out the demons lodged in our subconscious Wives and children would suffer marriages would break up men lost all respect from the communities where they made and called home Everybody became a threat an enemy to the Veteran Trying to sleep knowing that any noise would demand constance vigilance Post Traumatic Stress Disorder or PTSD was not even heard about after 30 plus years of suffering and humiliation disgraced disfunctional families were created and nobody would pin point the cause of why Veterans were rapidly becoming victims We were never accepted by our country for doing a job that was called by our own government We have paid a heavy price trying to bring freedom to a country that cared less In my book I tried to bring some answers to the families of Veterans who were shut out and suffered at the hands of those who wanted to reach out but who would not yet begin to trust the people around them Maybe from a Veteran who has gone through the same troubles at home and work and the fear of dying will bring some answers

Making Americans Gary D. Schmidt, 2013-12 Making Americans is a study of a time when the authors and illustrators of children's books consciously set their eyes on national and international sights with the hope of bringing the next generation into a full sense of citizenship Schmidt examines the literature for young people published during a momentous period in our nation's past and documents in detail its role as an instrument of nation building and social reform A thought provoking contribution to our understanding of children's books as cultural transmitters and transformers

A Landscape with Dragons Michael D. O'Brien, 2011-05-24 The Harry Potter series of books and movies are wildly popular Many Christians see the books as largely if not entirely harmless Others regard them as dangerous and misleading In his book A Landscape with Dragons Harry Potter critic Michael O'Brien examines contemporary children's literature and finds it spiritually and morally wanting His analysis written before the rise of the popular Potter books and films anticipates many of the problems Harry Potter critics point to A Landscape with Dragons is a controversial yet thoughtful study of what millions of young people are reading and the possible impact such reading may have on them In this study of the pagan invasion of children's culture O'Brien the father of six describes his own coming to terms with the effect it has had on his family and on most families in Western society His analysis of the degeneration of books films and videos for the young is incisive and detailed Yet his approach is not simply critical for he suggests a number of remedies including several tools of discernment for parents and teachers in assessing the moral content and spiritual impact of this insidious revolution In doing so he points the way to rediscovery of time tested sources and to new developments in Christian culture If you have ever wondered why a certain children s book or film made you feel uneasy but you couldn t figure out why this book is just what you need This completely revised much expanded second edition also includes a very substantial recommended reading list of over 1 000 books for kindergarten through highschool

Theme Play Gary Zingher,2006-06-30 Out of his years of experience in working with children Zingher identifies some of the powerful and evocative themes of childhood and explores why these touch children so deeply He encourages professionals who work with children in school camp club and library settings to consider using these themes to develop thoughtful and creative programs and units of study Included are recommended books and videos that illustrate each theme questions for discussion possible starting points readalouds stories to be told sensory experiences interesting objects etc follow up activities and examples of fully described and developed thematic journeys In this time of standards and accountability this book reminds us of the joy of teaching and learning and the power of the imagination
