Making Literature Matter An Anthology For Readers And Writers By Schilb 2nd Edition:

Making Literature Matter John Schilb, John Clifford, 2014-09-26 Students have always responded powerfully to the memorable stories poems plays and essays gathered in distinctive clusters in Making Literature Matter's thematic anthology. At the same time the book's chapters on reading writing and research help students harness those responses into persuasive well supported arguments about the issues raised by the literature. As ever the new edition of Making Literature Matter reflects John Schilb and John Clifford's careful attention to emerging pedagogical needs and trends. In response to instructor requests they have expanded their treatment of argumentation and research and refined their approach to literary genres. Further they read widely to identify some of the most engaging fiction poetry drama and nonfiction published recently and based their new choices for the sixth edition on how well that literature raises and explores issues that matter to students right now.

Making Literature Matter John Schilb, John Clifford, 2005 Making Literature Matter combines an innovative writing text with a uniquely organized anthology for introductory literature courses that emphasize critical thinking and writing. The third edition addresses new trends in literature and composition with more instruction on writing arguments and unique clusters that pair literary and visual texts for analysis.

Integrating Literature and Writing Instruction Judith H. Anderson, Christine R. Farris, 2007-01-01 Judith H. Anderson and Christine R. Farris colleagues at Indiana University and prominent scholars in literary studies and composition respectively aim here to bridge the perceived division between the two disciplines. In a spirit of curricular collaboration Integrating Literature and Writing Instruction presents an array of courses mainly for non-English majors that use literature in teaching first-year college students how to read write and think critically. Contributors teach at a range of institutions from Research I and large state universities to small selective colleges and use different classroom approaches some highly participatory and others combining lectures with small group work. Divided into three groups representing humanities core courses courses that focus on literature and courses that focus on cultural issues in relation to literature the essays explore the use of a variety of literary texts from Shakespeare's sonnets to historical novels to detective fiction. Contributors offer imaginative assignments and innovative pedagogical techniques that can be adapted profitably in multiple courses and institutional contexts. The concluding section narrates the collaborative development of a course on language metaphor and textuality which the editors offer as a successful model of what literature and writing instruction can accomplish together.
