The Argumentative Turn in Policy Analysis and Planning Frank Fischer, John Forester, 2013-07-12 Public policy is made of language Whether in written or oral form argument is central to all parts of the policy process As simple as this insight appears its implications for policy analysis and planning are profound Drawing from recent work on language and argumentation and referring to such theorists as Wittgenstein Habermas Toulmin and Foucault these essays explore the interplay of language action and power in both the practice and the theory of policy making The contributors scholars of international renown who range across the theoretical spectrum emphasize the political nature of the policy planner s work and stress the role of persuasive arguments in practical decision making Recognizing the rhetorical communicative character of policy and planning deliberations they show that policy arguments are necessarily selective both shaping and being shaped by relations of power These essays reveal the practices of policy analysts and planners in powerful new ways as matters of practical argumentation in complex highly political environments They also make an important contribution to contemporary debates over postempiricism in the social and policy sciences Contributors John S Dryzek William N Dunn Frank Fischer John Forester Maarten Hajer Patsy Healey Robert Hoppe Bruce Jennings Thomas J Kaplan Duncan MacRae Jr Martin Rein Donald Schon J A Throgmorton

Big Plans Kenneth L. Kolson,2003-11-03 This work springs from the idea that human aspirations for the city tend to overstate the role of rationality in public life The author explores the part serendipity plays in urban experience

The Cambridge Handbook of Community Empowerment Brian D. Christens,2024-04-25 Power and empowerment are critical topics for social change This handbook maps out ways that people can collectively engage with influence and change systems that affect their lives particularly the systems that maintain inequality and oppression It includes in depth examinations of a variety of approaches to building and exercising community power in local organizations institutions and settings Each chapter examines a particular approach critically engaging with contemporary research on how and when collective action can be most effective at producing change within communities and societal systems By examining a range of approaches in diverse contexts this book provides new insights for scholars practitioners and engaged resident leaders aiming to be more precise strategic and innovative in their efforts to build and sustain community power It is the ideal resource for those working with community groups to build more just and equitable systems

Reclaiming Capital Christopher Gunn,Hazel Gunn,2018-08-06 Towns without nationally advertised fast food restaurants often eagerly await the day when the golden arches sprout next door to the local car dealership But what really happens to a community with the arrival of the uni burger Christopher Gunn and Hazel Dayton Gunn demonstrate that perhaps three quarters of the money a community spends at its burger emporium will leave the area Poor communities remain poor they assert because local capital tends to be drained off to financial centers corporate accounts and stockholders portfolios In keeping with ecologists injunction to think globally and act locally this imaginative book documents ways in which communities have counteracted constraints of the capitalist economic system and succeeded in promoting democratic control of their resources Taking as one example the local impact of a new McDonald s restaurant Gunn and Gunn first illustrate how capital potentially available for community development may be identified They then explore a variety of alternative institutions credit unions nonprofit corporations and consumers and workers cooperatives among others that serve to attract and retain resources foster growth and extend public control over the development process The authors also consider how grassroots activism for social change may be integrated with more conventional political practice Reclaiming Capital will be a vital resource for activists elected officials and others concerned with urban and regional planning

Cleveland William Dennis Keating, Norman Krumholz, David C. Perry, 1995 An analysis of the political economy social development and history of Cleveland from 1796 to the present As one of the oldest communities in the United States the author looks at it as a model of transformation for other industrial cities Growing Smart Legislative Guidebook Stuart Meck, 2020-12-17 States and their local governments have practical tools to help combat urban sprawl protect farmland promote affordable housing and encourage redevelopment They appear in the American Planning Association's Growing Smart Legislative Guidebook Model Statutes for Planning and the Management of Change The Guidebook and its accompanying User Manual are the culmination of APA's seven year Growing Smart project an effort to draft the next generation of model planning and zoning legislation for the United States The Guidebook is also pertinent to those who are affected by planning decisions and who have an interest in how the statutes are revised including Local planners Builders Developers Real estate and design professionals Smart growth and affordable housing advocates Environmentalists Highway and transit specialists Citizens
