Making Teaching Work Phil Race, Ruth Pickford, 2007-08-08 This concise book is strongly recommended as an invaluable source both for new teachers and for their mentors who may be well experienced but nevertheless glad of new ideas for coping with the demanding and fundamental shifts in how teaching is undertaken and assessed ESCaslate Making Teaching Work provides a down to earth jargon free book for teaching staff in universities and colleges and includes reference to some of the best modern literature on assessment teaching and feedback By focusing on the learner in a variety of situations and contexts the book explores how teachers can help learners to make learning happen The authors emphasize teaching smarter helping busy hard pressed teachers to increase the efficiency as well as effectiveness of their work Written with both full time and part time staff in mind the book allows teaching staff to balance the various tasks which make up their workload including the increasing paperwork and administration they encounter whilst carrying out assessment teaching and providing feedback to students The book addresses a wide range of aspects of assessment learning and teaching in post compulsory education including how to provide a supportive learning environment including online learning how to design and manage formative assessment and feedback how to support diverse students including addressing and achieving student satisfaction developing teaching including lecturing small group teaching supporting individual learning and dealing with disruptive students how to use research to improve teaching creatively designing curriculum promoting student employability broadening horizons including widening and deepening participation addressing and achieving student satisfaction It is a self sufficient and thought provoking resource about teaching and learning for all practitioners in post compulsory education Unlocking Speaking and Listening Deborah Jones,Pamela Hodson,2012-10-12 Written by expert contributors from Brunel University this vital resource offers practical advice on teaching speaking and listening creatively from the Foundation Stage through Key Stages One and Two The Principal as Assessment Leader Thomas R, Guskey,2010-05-01 This book explores the importance of effective classroom assessment to student achievement and the role of school leaders to model and spark positive change through building teacher literacy providing targeted professional development acquiring appropriate technology and more With insights from expert practitioners this book helps schools make the shift to best practice assessment for districtwide improvements in student learning Benefits Identify the characteristics of an effective balanced assessment system Find insights into how principals can best support improved assessment practice in the classroom Create professional development opportunities that build schoolwide assessment literacy Learn about assessment technology tools including what to look for how to use them and what to expect from staff Incorporate data analysis that staff will commit to and use to improve student learning Understand the advantages of implementing standards based grading and reporting Gain strategies for using assessment processes to engage learners at risk Creating Thinking Classrooms Garfield Gini-Newman,Roland Case,2018-03-22 Reinvigorating today s schools with Critical Creative and Collaborative thinking Critical creative and collaborative thinking should be at the centre of all 21st century teaching and learning Creating Thinking Classrooms is loaded with examples stories and strategies for reinvigorating schools with this quality thinking Written for leaders who support teachers this guide treats educational change as a process of renovation rather than process of revolution and emphasizes building upon refining and sustaining the many good things happening in today s schools Practical and user friendly it emphasizes five key principles for learning and teaching Engaging students Sustaining inquiry Nurturing self regulated learners Creating assessment rich learning Enhancing learning through digital technology As a balanced and reasoned response to the challenges and opportunities facing schools this book separates the rhetoric of school reform from reality by analyzing what s actually happening and offering a plan educators can use Recapture the fundamentals of classroom learning with a practical and powerful roadmap charting the way forward As a principal and community superintendent I observed firsthand how transformational the work of Garfield Gini Newman and Roland Case is in the school community and on a systemic level in the school community and on a systemic level Creating Thinking

Classrooms takes theory and research and places it directly into the hands of practitioners by offering thoughtful and immediately useful strategies Not only does this work transform engagement and achievement but it also transforms thinking for both teachers and their students Teaching and learning go from passive acquisition of information to active purposeful and deliberate interaction with the curriculum It is a must read Ursula A Hermann Ph D retired principal and community superintendent Montgomery County Public Schools What impresses me most about Creating Thinking Classrooms is the notion of framing the retooling of schools as renovation or reinvigoration rather than as revolution Too many seem to ignore that there are many good things worth preserving in our schools and others that need to be reframed or recast to give them greater currency This book builds on what has worked and makes it better The message being purposeful and patiently focused on long term success is a powerful one that needs to be heard above the din David Chojnacki Executive Director Near East South Asia Council of Overseas Schools
