Making It Home A Child's Eye Of Life As A Refugee:

Global Refugee Crisis Mark Gibney, 2010-09-16 This book documents the current global refugee crisis and examines the interrelated factors of immigration enforcement international human rights law political violence and refugee protection There are two disparate components to the global refugee crisis first there are about 46 million refugees and Internally Displaced Persons IDPs most of whom are struggling to survive in the poorest and most violent countries in the world and second our interpretation of international human rights law allows this state of affairs to worsen Refugee protection has been a longstanding policy that ostensibly protects victims of human rights violations from other countries In actuality protection is largely negated by systematic efforts by industrialized states to reduce the number of refugees arriving at the borders This book provides a comprehensive examination of this worldwide problem and rejects the idea that the majority of asylum seekers abuse the system to gain entrance into the country Exploring the Links between Social Connections, Care and Integration Marcia Vera Espinoza, Arek Dakessian, Clayton Boeyink, 2024-10-18 Integration has in recent decades emerged as the primary policy tool through which the nations of the global north and increasingly the global south shepherd their immigrants to achieve the same social and economic outcomes as natives taking into account their characteristics OECD 2018 Despite scholarship on the importance of social connections to facilitate feelings of belonging and settlement lack of consensus around what integration means has led to bustling critique of the notion as prescribing processes through which migrant others must work their way into acceptance in the body social Moreover scholars recognise that discourses and practices of integration are often used as means to justify accompanying policies of disintegration and exclusion Put differently there is a humanitarian hand that cares and a hand that strikes Frameworks for understanding migration and integration traverse the realms of theory policy and practice and are usually intertwined with discourses and regimes of care and connectedness This Research Topic aims to further unsettle debates around integration and care through an engagement with the value commitments that underlie integration projects and that drive everyday practice and service provision drawing upon perspectives beyond the global north There's No Place Like Home Stephanie Hemelryk Donald, 2018-03-27 Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2018 The Wizard of Oz brought many now iconic tropes into popular culture the yellow brick road ruby slippers and Oz But this book begins with Dorothy and her legacy as an archetypal touchstone in cinema for the child journeying far from home In There's No Place Like Home distinguished film scholar Stephanie Hemelryk Donald offers a fresh interpretation of the migrant child as a recurring figure in world cinema Displaced or placeless children and the idea of childhood itself are vehicles to examine migration and cosmopolitanism in films such as Le Ballon Rouge Little Moth and Le Havre Surveying fictional and documentary film from the post war years until today the author shows how the child is a guide to themes of place self and being in world cinema Kaapse bibliotekaris, 2019 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957 Women in Islam Terence Lovat, 2012-06-12 The role of women in

Islamic societies not to mention in the religion itself is a defining issue It is also one that remains resistant to universal dogma with a wide range of responses to women s social roles across the Islamic world Reflecting this heterogeneity the editor of this volume has assembled the latest research on the issue which combines contemporary with historical data The material comes from around the world as well as from Muslim and non Muslim researchers It takes in work from majority Muslim nations such as Bangladesh Iran Iraq Lebanon Pakistan Palestine Tunisia and Turkey as well as countries with troubled interfaith relations such as India and Israel Nations with minority Muslim populations such as France the UK Canada and Australia are also represented The work also features varying Islamic sub groups such as the two main ones Sunni and Shi a as well as less well known populations such as the Ismaili Muslims In each case the work is underpinned by the very latest socio theological insights and empirical data

Life in Britain and Germany on the Road to War Anton Rippon, Nicola Rippon, 2024-04-04 In December 1922 the distinguished foreign correspondent Leonard Spray warned Britain to keep your eye on Hitler The carnage of the so called war to end all wars had left 900 000 British servicemen dead and more than 2 million suffering physical and psychological wounds but there was hope The vanquished had been left with no military capacity to wage another war and with a huge debt to pay to the victors The Treaty of Versailles had surely made it impossible for the world to ever again be threatened by Germany Safe in that knowledge Britain now had her eye firmly set on new challenges The cost of the war had already triggered her decline as the world s greatest economic power The Great Depression that followed the Wall Street Crash of 1929 now saw Britain riven by unemployment and poverty Seven General Elections between 1918 and 1935 resulted in mostly minority and coalition governments bringing further uncertainty And all the time an Austrian ex corporal by the name of Adolf Hitler was on the rampage first with his swashbuckling gangs in Bavaria and then on an inexorable march to power throughout the rest of Germany and beyond Life in Britain and Germany on the Road to War tells the story of one of the most eventful tumultuous and heart breaking periods in history The twenty one years that separated the First and Second World Wars and that eventually saw everyone s eyes firmly fixed on Hitler

Women of the Somali Diaspora Joanna

Lewis,2021-12-01 This book is about Somali mothers and daughters who came to Britain in the 1990s to escape civil war Many had never left Somalia before followed nomadic traditions did not speak English were bereaved and were suffering from PTSD Their stories begin with war and genocide in the north followed by harrowing journeys via refugee camps then their arrival and survival in London Joanna Lewis exposes how they rapidly recovered mobilising their networks social capital and professional skills Crucial to the recovery of the now breakaway state of former British Somaliland these women bore a huge burden but inspired the next generation with many today caught between London and a humanitarian impulse to return home Lewis reveals three histories Firstly the women s personal history helping us to understand resilience as an individual lived historical process that is both positive and negative and both inter and intra generational Secondly a collective history of refugees as rebuilders offering insight into the dynamism of the Somali diaspora Finally the forgotten history and hidden legacies of Britain s colonial past which have played a key role in shaping this dramatic sometimes upsetting but always inspiring story the power of women to heal the scars of war Compasito Annette Schneider, Ellie Keen, Laure De Witte, Rui Gomes, Zsuzsanna Rutai, 2021-09-07 Children are young citizens of the present living in the here and now rights holders and competent in many issues related to their lives Human rights education aims to establish a culture of human rights Human rights education should have a key role in any educational processes The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child offers an invaluable opportunity for introducing human rights to children Learning about and experiencing children s rights helps children to understand what human rights are about to understand that they are rights holders themselves and to adapt and apply their rights in everyday life These are the key aims of human rights education with children Compasito is a manual designed to facilitate the practice of human rights education with children Its primary users are adults active in formal and non formal education with children Compasito provides ideas inspiration and practical help to explore human rights with children It looks at children as young citizens of the present and as rights holders who are competent in many issues related to their life It builds on children s motivations experiences and their search for solutions In Compasito children s rights are presented within the wider context of human rights as a whole Thus universal human rights and children s rights are jointly presented in such a way that by understanding their own rights children also understand that all human beings have human rights The educational process builds on children s active participation by which they learn about human rights and understand human rights issues acquire skills and abilities to be able to defend human rights and develop attitudes of respect for equality and dignity Practitioners of human rights education will find inspiration and practical ideas in this manual to make human rights education a reality for children and for the benefit of our societies Family and Child Life Education Mr. Rohit Manglik, 2023-03-23 In this book we will study about the relationship between family structures and child development with emphasis on emotional and social learning Inside Indonesia , 1999 Being a Teacher Educator in Challenging Times Mike Hayler, Judy Williams, 2020-04-24 This book presents a duoethnographic exploration and narrative account of what it means to be a teacher educator today Adopting a narrative approach the book presents different personal political and institutional perspectives to interrogate common challenges facing teacher education and teacher educators today In addition the book compares and contrasts the teacher education landscapes in Australia and the UK and addresses a broad range of topics including the autobiographical nature of teacher educators work the value of learning from experience the importance of collegiality and collaboration in learning to become a teacher educator and the intersection of the personal professional and political in the development of teacher educator pedagogies and research agendas Each chapter combines personal narratives and research based perspectives on the key dimensions of teacher educators work that can be found in the literature including self study research Readers will gain a better understanding of the processes influences and relationships that make being a teacher educator both a challenging and rewarding career Accordingly the book offers a valuable asset for university leaders experienced and beginning teacher educators and researchers interested in the professional learning and development of teacher educators
