Making Of Pakistan The Military Perspective:

Making of Pakistan Noor ul Haq, 1997      The Dynamics of States Klaus Schlichte, 2016-12-05 State domination in the non Western world is hallmarked by its constantly shifting character This stimulating book develops a new approach to the study of state formation and state erosion to explain dynamics that neither follow the pathways of development nor the rule of stagnation that dependency theory once suggested Carefully edited by Klaus Schlichte this book provides a fresh angle to the study of states with an attempt to overcome Weber with Weber The approach focuses on the historical authenticity of states and their institutional frameworks describing the trajectories taken as they react to the effects of changes in their international and local social environments The emphasis laid on the specific characteristics of individual states does not however lead to the theoretical difficulty of a new contextual relativism The conceptual design employs sociological categories developed by Max Weber Norbert Elias Michel Foucault Pierre Bourdieu and others      Asian Strategic and Military Perspective Ravi Shekhar Narain Singh, 2005 Nation states are compelled to function within the parameters of their respective geo political and geo strategic environment The behavior of nations and the interplay of their strengths and vulnerabilities particularly their foreign and military posturing is predicated on geographic political and economic factors Besides historical imperatives also coalesce in determining the way States shape their policies Many Asian countries today are threatened by a war that is of a subtle and imperceptible nature There is also a paradigm shift in the perception of national security especially with the blurring of the notion of internal and external security This is reflected in the growing military expenditures of several Asian countries This volume attempts to examine the critical factors that influence the foreign and defense policies of Asian countries It provides comprehensive information and analyses of the strengths needs aspirations and compulsions that shape their strategic and military outlook      Pakistan's Arms Procurement and Military Buildup, 1979-99 A. Siddiq-Agha, 2001-03-20 The strategic imperative is held as the primary explanation for Pakistan's military buildup This book presents a fundamental departure in presenting an analysis of the internal dynamics of defence management and decisionmaking in Pakistan a new nuclear weapon state This is an in depth study of Pakistan's security link with its arms suppliers and defence industrial capacity and the influence of Pakistan's Army on conventional and non conventional defence decisions The analysis is backed with numerous case studies of defence decisions carried out from 1979-99      Military Inc. Ayesha Siddiq, 2007-04-20 This bold book explains why it will be so difficult to persuade the Pakistani military to renounce political power and return to the barracks It is a must read for anyone who cares about Pakistan or its future Lee H Hamilton President and Director Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars Siddiq demonstrates how economic impunity and political impunity are closely related Nicole Ball Senior Fellow Center for International Policy Washington DC No one else has so comprehensively explained the army's involvement in Pakistan's economy nor linked it so clearly with the army's growing and seemingly permanent role in Pakistan's politics Stephen P

Cohen Senior Fellow Foreign Policy Studies Brookings Complex riveting absorbing Siddiqua has written a vitally important book which enhances our understanding of the army on the front line in the war on terror Ahmed Rashid Far Eastern Economic Review An incisive look at the largely hidden economic empire run by and for the benefit of Pakistan's military This courageous book will not please Pakistan's generals But no Pakistani civilian or military can afford to ignore its sobering analysis Robert M Hathaway Director Asia Program Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars Pakistan is a strategic ally of the US in the war on terror It is the third largest receiver of US aid in the world Yet Pakistan is a state run by its army Siddiqua shows how the power of the military has transformed Pakistani society where the armed forces have become an independent class The military is entrenched in the corporate sector So Pakistan's companies and its main assets are in the hands of a tiny minority of senior army officials Siddiqua examines this military economy and the consequences of merging the military and corporate sectors Does democracy have a future Will the generals ever withdraw to the barracks Military Inc analyses the internal and external dynamics of this gradual power building and the impact that it is having on Pakistan's political and economic development

The Royal Indian Navy Kalesh Mohanan, 2019-10-08 This book presents a comprehensive history of the Royal Indian Navy RIN It traces the origins of the RIN to the East India Company as early as 1612 and untangles the institution's complex history Capturing various transitional phases of the RIN especially during the crucial period of 1920-1950 it concludes with the final transfer of the RIN from under the British Raj to independent India Drawn from a host of primary sources personal diaries and logs official reports and documents the author presents a previously unexplored history of colonial and imperial defence policy and the contribution of the RIN during the World Wars This book explores several aspects in RIN's history such as its involvement in the First World War its status in policies of the British Raj the martial race theory in the RIN and the development of the RIN from a non combat force to a full fledged combat defence force during the Second World War It also studies the hitherto unexplored causes nature and impact of the 1946 RIN Revolt on the eve of India's independence from a fresh perspective An important intervention in the study of military and defence history this will be an essential read for students researchers defence personnel military academy cadets as well as general readers

The Military and Denied Development in the Pakistani Punjab Shahrukh Rafi Khan, Aasim Sajjad Akhtar, 2014-11-01 This book focuses on the retrogressive agrarian interventions by the Pakistani military in rural Punjab and explores the social resentment and resistance it triggered potentially undermining the consensus on a security state in Pakistan Set against the overbearing and socially unjust role of the military in Pakistan's economy this book documents a breakdown in the accepted function of the military beyond its constitutionally mandated role of defence Accompanying earlier work on military involvement in industry commerce finance and real estate the authors research contributes to a wider understanding of military intervention revealing its hand in various sectors of the economy and consequently its gains in power and economic autonomy

Conventional Warfare in South Asia, 1947 to the Present

Kaushik Roy,2017-03-02 The essays included in this volume focus on conventional war on land sea and air fought by the states of South Asia and their impact on the host societies and economies The authors are drawn from academia and the military in India and Pakistan as well as from outside the subcontinent in order to give a wide perspective In the introduction the editors describe the changing contours of warfare in South Asia and the similarities and dissimilarities with warfare in the Middle East and South East Asia The volume highlights the influence of extra regional powers like China Russia and the US in providing arms munitions and shaping the texture of military doctrines and force structures of the South Asian powers

New Perspectives on Pakistan's Political Economy Matthew McCartney,S. Akbar Zaidi,2019-09-19 This volume makes a major intervention in the debates around the nature of the political economy of Pakistan focusing on its contemporary social dynamics This is the first comprehensive academic analysis of Pakistan s political economy after thirty five years and addresses issues of state class and society examining gender the middle classes the media the bazaar economy urban spaces and the new elite The book goes beyond the contemporary obsession with terrorism and extremism political Islam and simple civilian military relations and looks at modern day Pakistan through the lens of varied academic disciplines It not only brings together new work by some emerging scholars but also formulates a new political economy for the country reflecting the contemporary reality and diversification in the social sciences in Pakistan The chapters dynamically and dialectically capture emergent processes and trends in framing Pakistan s political economy and invite scholars to engage with and move beyond these concerns and issues

The Changing Dynamics of Civil Military Relations in Pakistan Rabia Chaudhry,2023-09-04 The Changing Dynamics of Civil Military Relations in Pakistan offers a unique insiders perspective on the political climate in the country presenting the challenges established in boundaries of interaction between the state and its military This book argues that the prospects of another military coup in Pakistan are minimal because of the military extending its presence in the civil arenas and thus discovering new avenues of concretising its hegemony Based on primary data sources in the form of interviews with senior military personnel civil bureaucrats and other relevant technocrats and using military and government publications to verify their claims the author discusses the military s previous takeovers and future plans from a defense point of view The book uncovers how the military has created a space and rationale for itself in non defense sectors Providing a first hand account of why and how the military extends itself beyond proscribed fields of responsibility and their expected outcomes the book also provides a theoretical context to the military s hegemonic status using literature on civil military relations in general and Pakistan in particular The book uses Pakistan as a case study to show how civil military imbalances in the world over can be re evaluated It will be of interest to researchers studying political science public policy peace and security studies governance and institutions law and South Asian Studies

An Army Muhammad Ayub,2002      Margalla Papers ,2011      Military Review ,2011      Coercion and Governance Muthiah Alagappa,2001 This far ranging volume offers both a broad overview of the role of the military in contemporary Asia and a close look at the state of civil military relations in sixteen Asian countries It discusses these relations in countries where the military continues to dominate the political realm as well as others where it is disengaging from politics

Southeast Asian Perspectives on Security Derek Da Cunha,2000 The conventional understanding of strategic issues in the modern world has been very much a Western driven phenomenon That is to say Western strategists thinkers and writers have tended to establish the principles of strategic concepts and to develop theories around them While there is utility in much Western strategic thought it is also apt to note that some of it does not have full relevance or validity when applied to a regional setting that is far removed from the geographical boundaries of the Western world In that connection this volume is partly intended to serve as an antidote to much of the Western commentary on Asia Pacific security issues by providing a range of perspectives on those issues from the Southeast Asian point of view It offers a range of Southeast Asian perspectives on the multifaceted security issues that confront the Asia Pacific region in the post Cold War era That there is no unitary perspective emanating from the region is symptomatic of the very fluid geopolitical situation that characterizes Asia Pacific security and of equal import the different schools of thought that analysts in the region have chosen to subscribe to

Review of Current Military Literature ,2011 Contemporary Debates in Indian Foreign and Security Policy Harsh V. Pant,2008-06-23 As India s attempts to carve out a foreign policy that is in sync with the irrising international stature they are having to deal with a range of issues that are controversial but central to the future of an Indian global strategy This book examines these issues and deduces major trends in Indian foreign policy Expensive Poverty Greg Mills,2021-10-01 Africa has received 1 2 trillion in development assistance since 1990 Even though donors have spent more than 1 000 per person over these 30 years the average income of sub Saharan Africans has increased by just 350 The continent has very little to show for this money some of which has been consumed by the donors themselves much of it by local governments and elites There must be a better way to address the poverty pandemic Expensive Poverty is focused on answering the trillion dollar question why have decades of spending had such a small impact on improving the lives of the poor Whatever the area of aid expenditure humanitarian governance military development the overall intention should be the same to try to reach the point that aid is no longer necessary Expensive Poverty lays out how to get there Indian Foreign Policy in Transition Arijit Mazumdar,2014-08-27 India s relation with other South Asian countries has been impacted by recent developments in the post Cold War period These include India s economic rise the recent democratic transitions in many South Asian countries and greater US engagement in the region following 9 11 This book is an effort to address these issues and examine their role in India s interactions with its neighbours Indian Foreign Policy in Transition provides a comprehensive overview of India s relations with the South Asian countries of Pakistan Afghanistan Bangladesh Sri Lanka and Nepal Bhutan and the Maldives As well as looking at India s past and present foreign policy the book analyses recent political changes and developments It identifies the broad tenets of India s policy towards the other countries of South Asia and the domestic factors that impact

India's policy in the region. It looks at India's historical patterns of interactions with its neighbours and describes recent developments in these South Asian countries and their perceptions of India. By providing specific examples of the major disputes and conflicts between India and its neighbours, the book explores the challenges inherent in promoting peace and cooperation and goes on to highlight the growing US influence in South Asia. Providing an in-depth discussion on the opportunities and challenges facing India in the South Asia region, the book is an important contribution to Indian and South Asian Politics, Foreign Policy and International Relations.

The Prospect of Nuclear Jihad in South Asia Musa Khan Jalalzai, 2015-10-01

When we talk about Pakistan's nuclear weapons, armed forces and civilian governments, then controversies and uninvited misperceptions swirl in our minds. If we take in the broad picture, we inevitably conclude that not all is going in the right direction in the country and that is because the army, politicians and the establishment perceive jihadism as a profitable business. They run this business of killings and torture through their proxies. While we study the militarized mind of Pakistani generals and recognize their resentment towards civilian governments, we find more controversies about the role of armed forces and their relationship with worldwide terrorist organizations. International journalist Musa Khan Jalalzai is ideally positioned to present us with a picture of what is actually afoot and what it means for the future. When we study the militarized mind of Pakistani generals and recognize their resentment towards civilian institutions, we find more controversies about the role of armed forces and their relationship with worldwide terrorist organizations. The Pakistan military controls the financial market, stock exchange, real estate, business, banking sector and smuggling of narcotics. Ethnic representation within the armed forces raises serious concerns. Some experts say this is not a national army but view it as the club of Pashtun and Punjabi generals. The army has failed to develop a true ethnic representation process or motivate Baloch and Sindhis to join the armed forces but they certainly have gained experience in killing innocent civilians. Then there is the question of the Saudi investment in Pakistan's Islamic nuclear bomb. Saudi Arabia's link with Pakistan's nuclear and missile program has long been the source of speculation that Pakistan might either station nuclear forces on Saudi sand or provide a nuclear umbrella to the Wahabi state in return for oil supply or that the Saudis would purchase nuclear weapons from Pakistan. International journalist Musa Khan Jalalzai is ideally positioned to present us with a picture of what is actually afoot and what it means for the future.
