Making Of The Poets:

Melville Hershel Parker, 2008 Revealed here is an unknown Melville the autodidact who made himself a poet and who brilliantly constructed a personal aesthetic credo Dispelling baseless claims that Melville had a quarrel with fiction after Moby Dick or Pierre and that he did not in 1860 complete a book he called Poems Parker offers new evidence of the full trajectory of Melville's career in all its glory and frustration BOOK JACKET

The Making of Poetry Adam Nicolson, 2020-01-21 Brimming with poetry art and nature writing Wordsworth and Coleridge as you've never seen them before June 1797 to September 1798 is the most famous year in English poetry Out of it came Samuel Taylor Coleridge's The Rime of the Ancient Mariner and Kubla Khan as well as his unmatched hymns to friendship and fatherhood and William Wordsworth's revolutionary songs in Lyrical Ballads along with Tintern Abbey Wordsworth's paean to the unity of soul and cosmos love and understanding In The Making of Poetry Adam Nicolson embeds himself in the reality of this unique moment exploring the idea that these poems came from this particular place and time and that only by experiencing the physical circumstances of the year in all weathers and all seasons at night and at dawn in sunlit reverie and moonlit walks can the genesis of the poetry start to be understood The poetry Wordsworth and Coleridge made was not from settled conclusions but from the adventure on which they embarked thinking of poetry as a challenge to all received ideas stripping away the dead matter looking to shed consciousness and so change the world What emerges is a portrait of these great figures seen not as literary monuments but as young men troubled ambitious dreaming of a vision of wholeness knowing they had greatness in them but still in urgent search of the paths toward it The artist Tom

Hammick accompanied Nicolson for much of the year making woodcuts from the fallen timber in the park at Alfoxden where the Wordsworths lived Interspersed throughout the book his images bridge the centuries depicting lives at the source of our modern sensibility a psychic landscape of doubt and possibility full of beauty and thick with desire for a kind of connectedness that seems permanently at hand and yet always out of reach

Lyric Poetry Mutlu Blasing, 2009-01-10 Lyric poetry has long been regarded as the intensely private emotional expression of individuals powerful precisely because it draws readers into personal worlds But who exactly is the I in a lyric poem and how is it created In Lyric Poetry Mutlu Blasing argues that the individual in a lyric is only a virtual entity and that lyric poetry takes its power from the public emotional power of language itself In the first major new theory of the lyric to be put forward in decades Blasing proposes that lyric poetry is a public discourse deeply rooted in the mother tongue She looks to poetic linguistic and psychoanalytic theory to help unravel the intricate historical processes that generate speaking subjects and concludes that lyric forms convey both personal and communal emotional histories in language Focusing on the work of such diverse twentieth century American poets as T S Eliot Ezra Pound Wallace Stevens and Anne Sexton Blasing demonstrates the ways that the lyric I

How Women Became Poets Emily Hauser,2023-08-22 How the idea of the author was born in the battleground of gender When Sappho sang her songs the only word that existed to describe a poet was a male one aoidos or singer man The most famous woman poet of ancient Greece whose craft was one of words had no words with which to talk about who she was and what she did In How Women Became Poets Emily Hauser rewrites the story of Greek literature as one of gender arguing that the ways the Greeks talked about their identity as poets constructed played with and broke down gender expectations that literature was for men alone Bringing together recent studies in ancient authorship gender and performativity Hauser offers a new history of classical literature that redefines the canon as a constant struggle to be heard through and sometimes despite gender Women as Virginia Woolf recognized need rooms of their own in order to write So too have women writers through history needed a name to describe what it is they do Hauser traces the invention of that name in ancient Greece exploring the archaeology of the gendering of the poet She follows ancient Greek poets philosophers and historians as they developed and debated the vocabulary for authorship on the battleground of gender building up and reinforcing the word for male poet then in response creating a language with which to describe women who write Crucially Hauser reinserts women into the traditionally all male canon of Greek literature arguing for the centrality of their role in shaping ideas around authorship and literary production
