Piotrowski,Elizabeth A. Rogers, IIDA,2012-06-14 The definitive reference on designing commercial interiors expanded and updated for today s facilities Following the success of the ASID Polsky Prize Honorable Mention in 1999 authors Christine Piotrowski and Elizabeth Rogers have extensively revised this guide to planning and designing commercial interiors to help professionals and design students successfully address today s trends and project requirements This comprehensive reference covers the practical and aesthetic issues that distinguish commercial interiors There is new information on sustainable design security and accessibility three areas of increased emphasis in modern interiors An introductory chapter provides an overview of commercial interior design and the challenges and rewards of working in the field and stresses the importance of understanding the basic purpose and functions of the client's business as a prerequisite to designing interiors. This guide also gives the reader a head start with eight self-contained chapters that provide comprehensive coverage of interior design for specific types of commercial facilities ranging from offices to food and beverage facilities and from retail stores to health care facilities. Each chapter is complete with a historical overview, types of facilities, planning and interior design elements, design applications, a summary, references, and Web sites. New design applications covered include spas in hotels, bed and breakfast inns, coffee shops, gift stores, and salons, courthouses and courtrooms, and golf clubhouses. In keeping with the times, there are new chapters focusing on senior living facilities and on restoration and adaptive use. A chapter on project management has been revised and includes everything from proposals and contracts to scheduling and documentation. Throughout the book, design application discussions, illustrations, and photographs help both professionals and students solve problems and envision and implement distinctive designs for commercial interiors. With information on licensing codes and regulations along with more than 150 photographs and illustrations, this combined resource and instant reference is a must-have for commercial interior design professionals, students, and those studying for the NCIDQ licensing exam. Hotel Eleanor Curtis, 2001-04-04 This volume aims to offer architects, interior designers, and hotel owners, as well as those with a more general interest in the use of interior design detail, to create a particular atmosphere or living experience. A valuable insight into the what, why, and how of current design directions for hotels across the globe. Identifying ten hotel types that have been conceived within the last ten years, it features text plans and detailed photography of a selection of hotels of each type, as well as interviews with some of the key figures involved. With examples of hotels in major cities and resorts worldwide, from London, Paris, and New York to locations in Japan, Egypt, and Lebanon, it gives a complete picture of the creativeness and imaginativeness of hotel interior design at the beginning of the 21st century. BOOK JACKET

Hotel Revolution Howard Watson, 2005-11-29 For the first time, Hotel Revolution draws together the new concepts of luxury that are central to 21st-century life, highlighting radical, exciting, and exquisite designs that leave the now-diluted concept of the boutique hotel in their wake. Hotel design has reached a new peak of innovation in recent years, providing a prism for our understanding of culture, style, and desire. Using beautiful photographs, Howard Watson reassesses the diversity of hotel design in the wake of the rise of the boutique hotel, exploring new projects from many of the world's greatest designers and architects. The cultural importance of hotel design has never been greater, becoming the mirror to our aspirations and the fulcrum for innovation in architecture and design. With a blossoming interest in eco-resorts, spas, and retreats, we now see hotels as both the leaders of style and as the antidote to the negative aspects of modern life. Karim Rashid, Marcel Wanders, Antonio Citterio, Philippe Starck, Matteo Thun, Norman Foster, Zaha Hadid, David Chipperfield, GRAFT, and many other inspirational designers have taken on the challenge. They have created gorgeous hotels that shock and delight. From converted boulangeries and convents to micro-hotels, to country retreats and eastern spas, the designers have delivered with
