Pathway of Peace Charles Dumont, 1999      The Cistercian Fathers and Their Monastic Theology Thomas Merton, 2016-05-12 These conferences presented by Thomas Merton to the novices at the Abbey of Gethsemani in 1963 1964 focus mainly on the life and writings of his great Cistercian predecessor St Bernard of Clairvaux 1090 1153 Guiding his students through Bernard's Marian sermons his treatise On the Love of God his controversy with Peter Abelard and above all his great series of sermons on the Song of Songs Merton reveals why Bernard was the major religious and cultural figure in Europe during the first half of the twelfth century and why he has remained one of the most influential spiritual theologians of Western Christianity from his own day until the present As James Finley writes in his preface to this volume Merton is teaching us in these notes how to be grateful and amazed that the ancient wisdom that shimmers and shines in the eloquent and beautiful things that mystics say is now flowing in our sincere desire to learn from God how to find our way to God

Cassian and the Fathers is the initial volume in the series of Novitiate Conferences of Thomas Merton the classes he presented to young men beginning their monastic life at the Abbey of Gethsemani in Kentucky They contain Merton's insights on important Patristic and monastic figures preceding the time of St Benedict above all John Cassian the most significant bridge between the early desert fathers and the development of monastic life in the West and they reveal the continuing relevance of their teachings for contemporary monastics and other Christians Much of the value and interest of Cassian and the Fathers as of the novitiate conferences in general lies in the light it casts on Merton himself as teacher novice master and monk These notes provide a privileged standpoint for observing Merton functioning as an integral and important member of his monastic community The public Merton has long been visible in his works written for publication and has more recently been complemented by the interpersonal Merton disclosed in his correspondence and the intimate Merton revealed in his complete journals While the novitiate conferences may not equal in significance these other sources they do allow access to yet another stratum of Merton s wide ranging and immensely productive engagement with his world from the distinctive standpoint he had chosen within a tradition dating back more than sixteen centuries While these lectures need to be used critically and carefully in evaluating Merton s own perspectives and commitments nevertheless they do need to be used The dialectical relationship between Merton s private and more public statements including those made to his novice classes makes possible a more complex and thus a richer picture of his monastic identity and so of his personal identity In learning about Cassian and the Fathers from Merton one learns as well about Merton as monk as heir to the great monastic teachers and as teacher of a new generation of monks an easily overlooked and undervalued yet integral even central component of his vocation for more than half his monastic life Thus the publication of the novitiate conferences will fill a significant lacuna in Merton studies and contribute to a balanced holistic comprehension and appreciation of Thomas Merton s life and work This edition includes an extensive introduction situating these conferences and Merton s years as novice master in the context of his broader life as monk and writer an extensively annotated edition of the text of the conferences based on Merton s own typescript and helpful appendices indicating changes Merton made to his text correlating the written text with taped versions of the actual classes and providing suggestions for further reading both in Merton s other works and in more recent studies of the figures he discusses here

Charles Dumont Elizabeth Connor,2007 Charles Dumont shared his ever deepening knowledge as editor of the Order s French language journal Collectanea Cisterciensia in articles and translations of texts and in lectures in Europe and North and South America

The American Benedictine Review ,2009

Saint Mary of Egypt Ronald E. Pepin,2005 A prostitute become hermit Mary of Egypt has been held up especially to monks as the quintessential example of compunction and conversion First written down around AD 600 her story was translated first into Latin by Paul the Deacon in the ninth century and then into vernacular languages Three metrical versions of her Life are translated here that of Flodoard of Reims in the tenth century Hildebert of Lavardin in the twelfth century and an anonymous Spanish poet of the thirteenth century Although these vernacular versions seem to have been directed in part at monks they also envisaged a larger audience For most of her life Mary of Egypt was a pilgrim her story has travelled from Palestine to Europe from Greek to Latin to French to Spanish and from the monastery to the secular world

Vincenzo E Anastasio at Tre Fontane Near Rome Joan Barclay Lloyd,2006 The long and fascinating history of the abbey of SS Vincenzo e Anastasio at Tre Fontane Near Rome reached back into roman antiquity An ancient martyrdom marked the spot where the apostle Paul was believed to have been beheaded and three fountains said to have sprung up as his head hit the ground were places of pilgrimage and monastic habitation Around 1140 Pope Innocent II invited Bernard of Clairvaux to establish a Cistercian monastery on the site Its first abbot later became pope as Eugene III for whom Bernard wrote his Five Books on Consideration advising him how a pope much involved in business could and must maintain a contemplative life

Today following nineteenth century suppression and refoundation it is once again a Cistercian abbey Working with architectural archaeological epigraphic and documentary evidence Joan Barclay Lloyd traces the vicissitudes of this historic monastery As she untangles pious tradition from historical fact she also decodes the architectural influences of Rome and Burgundy and traces the alterations wrought over centuries of habitation Stewards of the Poor ,2006 Three remarkable fifth century Christians of the Syrian city of Edessa are profiled here one a pauper by choice and two bishops of opposing theological opinions The Man of God born to rank and privilege identified completely with the poor spending his days fasting and praying constantly His quiet holiness deeply influenced Rabbula convert monk and bishop who championed the poor and battled injustice but dealt harshly with those who held what he considered unorthodox beliefs During the christological controversies surrounding Nestorius he supported Cyril of Alexandria and exiled Hiba a supporter of the school of Antioch and an advocate of Theodore of Mopsuestia and Nestorius He regarded Rabbula as a tyrant yet in the turbulent theological climate of the day succeeded him as bishop of Edessa only to reap the fury of the cyrillican party Two undercurrents of fifth century Christianity ebb and flow in these documents The Life of Hiba reflects the intensity of the Nestorian Cyrillian controversy while The Life of the Man of God and The Life of Rabbula emphasize as the chief christian duty of the clergy the care of the poor Whatever the Church has it hold only as a steward for the poor Sermons for Advent and the Christmas Season Saint Bernard (of Clairvaux),2007 The twelfth century abbot and contemplative known to history as The Mellifluous Teacher wrote sermons for the entire Christmas liturgical cycle from the first Sunday of Advent four weeks before Christmas to the Feast of the Purification of the Virgin Mary Presentation of Christ in the Temple 2 February As he reflects on the wonder of the Incarnation he reminds Christians still today that Christmas celebrates the awesome condescension of God with us not a commercial carnival The Publishers Weekly ,1999 American Book Publishing Record ,2000 The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,2001 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1971
