Patrol To Benghazi:

Patrol to Benghazi Gordon Landsborough, 1975-01-01 Fighting with the Long Range Desert Group Brendan O'Carroll, 2022-06-30 Formed in 1940 the Long Range Desert Group was the first Allied Special Forces unit established to operate behind German and Italian lines in North Africa. Its officers and men were volunteers recruited from British and Commonwealth units. Merlyn Craw was serving with the 2nd New Zealand Expeditionary Force when he joined the LRDG in 1941. He took part in numerous missions in the desert. The navigational driving and fighting skills of the LRDG were legendary and they were frequently responsible for transporting Stirling's SAS detachments on raids. Merlyn's luck ran out when he was captured on the Barce raid in September 1942 but he escaped twice the second time making it back to Allied lines. Sent home on leave he returned to Italy with the New Zealand Army. After a disagreement he went AWOL and rejoined the LRDG with no questions asked serving until the end of the war. Drawing on interviews with Merlyn and other former LRDG veterans the author has created a vivid picture of this exceptional and highly decorated fighting man. Readers cannot fail to be impressed by the courage and ruthless determination of Merlyn Craw and his comrades.

R Patrol Long Range Desert Group Brendan O'Carroll, 2024-11-30 This is the story of the New Zealand R Patrol Long Range Desert Group who within their ranks had some very distinguished icons such as Jake Eason-Smith, Don Steele, Dick Croucher, Tony Browne, Bluey Grimsey and Buster Gibb. Their stories are told including that of many others mostly in the words of the participants themselves by way of wartime operational reports, diaries, personal letters and post-war interviews. This provides a human touch to the narrative examining the thoughts and observations of those who served. The work also explains the formation of the unit including its early missions and of the vehicles, supplies, weapons and equipment used. In addition serving as a Taxi Service for behind the line missions carrying agents, commandos, military observers, rescuing downed airmen and escaped PoWs. Chapters are also devoted to working with the SAS and Free French supporting the Eighth Army and undertaking the Road Watch. This includes dramatic accounts of air attacks and ground actions against enemy convoys and engagements with Axis forces. This is all supported by 288 images including maps and art.

Ghost Patrol John Sadler, 2015-11-19 From the author of D Day an amazing tale of how the world's very first special force was created specifically for North Africa during WWII. Books Monthly The origins of most of the West's Special Forces can be traced back to the Long Range Desert Group which operated across the limitless expanses of the Libyan Desert, an area the size of India during the whole of the Desert War from 1940 to 1943. After the defeat of the Axis in North Africa they adapted to serve in the Mediterranean, the Greek islands, Albania, Yugoslavia and Greece. In the process they became the stuff of legend. The brainchild of Ralph Bagnold, a pre-war desert explorer featured in fictional terms in The English Patient, the LRDG used specially adapted vehicles and recruited only men of the right temperament and high levels of fitness and endurance. Their work was often dangerous, always taxing, exhausting and uncomfortable. They were a new breed of soldier and the Axis never managed to field a similar unit Once the desert war was won they transferred their skills to the Mediterranean sector retraining as mountain guerrillas serving in the ill fated Dodecanese campaign then in strife torn Albania Yugoslavia and Greece fighting alongside the mercurial partisans In addition the LRDG worked alongside the fledgling SAS and established beyond all doubt the value of highly trained Special Forces a legacy which resonates today Genuinely gripping a tale of eccentrics and their high adventures during very dangerous times Classic Military Vehicle

HMS Turbulent Stephen Wynn,2023-03-09 HMS Turbulent was a Royal Navy T class submarine From its launch in May 1941 to when it was lost at sea along with its entire crew in March 1943 it was responsible for the sinking of nearly 100 000 tons of enemy shipping Besides the number of enemy vessels it sunk HMS Turbulent has gone down in history for the attack on the Italian merchant vessel the Nino Bixio which at the time was carrying more than 3 000 Allied POWs who had been captured during the fighting in North Africa Having left the Libyan port of Benghazi on 16 August 1942 accompanied by the Italian cargo vessel the Sestriere the Nino Bixio was attacked the following day A total of 336 Allied POWs most of whom were either Australian or New Zealanders were killed or died of their wounds in the explosion Although badly damaged the Nino Bixio stayed afloat and was towed to Navarino in southern Greece where the surviving POWs disembarked The wounded were treated in hospital while the rest were shipped on to POW camps in Bari Italy Although there have been different theories put forward as to how HMS Turbulent met its end off the Italian coast in 1943 there is still no absolute certainty as to where when and how the boat and its crew were lost

The Eyes of the Desert Rats David Syrett,2014-08-19 Made up of members of the Coldstream and Scots Guards British Yeomanry cavalry regiments New Zealanders South Africans and Indian Army men the Long Range Desert Group was perhaps the most effective of all the special forces established by the Allies during the Second World War It was able to go thousands of miles into enemy territory well armed and carrying its own supplies of petrol food and even water to last for weeks at a time something quite new in military history Using experience acquired in WWI and inter war exploration travels the LRDG thus developed the ability to appear almost anywhere in the desert to carry out almost every type of ground reconnaissance mission possible in desert warfare exploring and mapping the terrain transporting agents behind enemy lines or determining the strength and location of enemy forces with an extraordinary degree of accuracy and detail and thus able to verify or hide Ultra intelligence Equally important were their skills in the art of desert navigation demonstrated in the outflanking of the enemy during the Allied advance from El Alamein westward to Tunisia as led by the LRDG Once it had teamed up with the Special Air Service SAS made up of British Free French Commonwealth and Jewish Palestinian soldiers the LRDG perfected the art of irregular mechanized warfare conducted in the rear of the enemy s forces in the desert attacking enemy installations of all kinds mining roads raiding airfields destroying enemy aircraft on the ground and inflicting losses upon the enemy in inverse proportion to their own remarkably low rate of casualties Through meticulous research in original archival material this book thus tells the extraordinary story of how a relatively small number of dedicated men developed the methods and techniques for crossing by motor vehicle the depths of the then unmapped and seemingly impassable great deserts of Egypt and Libya the Western Desert during the British Army's North African Campaign of 1940-43 The Long Range Desert Group and the Special Air Service as a matter of course did extraordinary things the heroic was the commonplace Their tactics techniques and remarkable success in desert warfare continue to make them of great interest to the student of military affairs Likewise as it seeks to answer how the deep desert can best be used for military purposes this study is pertinent to today's military operations perhaps more so than at any time since World War II this study provides fresh insights into the nature of desert warfare past present and future and reveals the peculiarities of this warfare often lost to modern armies a virtual primer useful to commanders and soldiers alike At long last this book can find its rightful place in the classroom of military courses and colleges and in the hands of those interested in the intricacies complexities and problems of military operations in desert regions From the Foreword to the book by Colonel Retired David M Glantz The Desert War Jean Paul Pallud, 2022-09-21 A study of the North Africa campaign of World War II featuring a plethora of battlefield photographs from during the war and now Following Mussolini's declaration of war in June 1940 initially Italy faced only those British troops based in the Middle East but as the armed confrontation in the Western Desert of North Africa escalated other nations were drawn in Germany Australia India South Africa New Zealand France and finally the United States to wage the first major tank versus tank battles of the Second World War First tracing the history of the very early beginnings of civilisation in North Africa and on through the period of Italian colonisation Jean Paul Pallud begins his account when the initial shots were fired at the 11th Hussars as they approached Italian outposts near Sidi Omar in Libya It proved to be the opening move of a campaign which was to last for three years When the Afrikakorps led by Rommel joined the battle in February 1941 the Germans soon gained the upper hand and recovered the whole of Cyrenaica minus Tobruk in the summer The campaign then swung back and forth across the desert for another year until Rommel finally captured Tobruk in June 1942 and then moved eastwards into Egypt With British fortunes at their lowest ebb changes in command led to Montgomery launching his offensive at El Alamein the following November This began the advance of the Eighth Army over a thousand miles to Tunisia resulting in the final round up of the German and Italian forces in May 1943 Jean Paul and his camera retraced the route just prior to the recent civil war in Libya and the uprisings in Tunisia and Egypt in 2011 so he was fortunate to capture the locations before yet another war left its trail of death and destruction Although the campaign in 1940-43 was dominated largely by armour nevertheless the Allies lost over 250 000 men killed wounded missing and captured and the Axis 620 000 Those that never came home lie in cemeteries scattered across the barren landscape of a battlefield that has changed little in over 70 years Patrol to

Benghazi Gordon Landsborough,1959 Weekly Compilation of Presidential Documents ,1986 The Fighting Tenth John Wingate,2003-06 This is the story of the Tenth Submarine Flotilla and its part in the Second World War in the Mediterranean told in the survivors own words as well as by those British and Maltese civilians who obstinately fought the battle on shore Public Papers of the Presidents of the United States United States. President,1988 Containing the public born flying ace Raymond Collishaw 1893 1976 served in Britain s air forces for twenty eight years As a pilot in World War I he was credited with sixty one confirmed kills on the Western Front When World War II began in 1939 Air Commodore Collishaw commanded a Royal Air Force group in Egypt It was in Egypt and Libya in 1940 41 during the Britain s Western Desert campaign that he demonstrated the tenets of an effective air ground cooperation system Flying to Victory examines Raymond Collishaw s contribution to the British system of tactical air support a pattern of operations that eventually became standard in the Allied air forces and proved to be a key factor in the Allied victory The British Army and Royal Air Force entered the war with conflicting views on the issue of air support that hindered the success of early operations It was only after the chastening failure of Operation Battleaxe in June 1941 fought according to army doctrine that Winston Churchill shifted strategy on the direction of future air campaigns ultimately endorsing the RAF s view of mission and target selection This view adopted principles of air ground cooperation that Collishaw had demonstrated in combat Author Mike Bechthold traces the emergence of this strategy in the RAF air campaign in Operation Compass the first British offensive in the Western Desert in which Air Commodore Collishaw s small force overwhelmed its Italian counterpart and disrupted enemy logistics Flying to Victory details the experiences that prepared Collishaw so well for this campaign and that taught him much about the application of air power especially how to work effectively with the army and Royal Navy As Bechthold shows these lessons learned altered the Allied approach to tactical air support and ultimately changed the course of the Second World

Kennedy Shaw,2015-11-30 A moving exciting and authentic chronicle of the British Army s legendary recon and raiding unit in the desert of North African during WWII The Observer During its two and a half years fighting in North Africa from 1940 to 1943 the Long Range Desert Group became the acknowledged master of the desert This small highly mobile force made a name for itself through daring exploits and vital reconnaissance far behind enemy lines Emerging from the depths of the desert the LRDG would raid airfields or attack Axis lines of communication along the Mediterranean coast then vanish only to reappear hundreds of miles away First published in 1945 Long Range Desert Group is a classic of military nonfiction With its brilliant description of the desert s harsh beauty and its exciting chronicle of LRDG activities it has lost none of its gripping visceral power A remarkable record told simply unpretentiously and with engaging humor The Manchester Guardian In

Rommel's Backyard Alistair Timpson, Andrew Gibson-Watt, 2010-07-28 This WWII journal takes readers inside an elite reconnaissance and raiding unit operating behind enemy lines in the North African campaign As a young man entering the maelstrom of World War II Alastair Timpson had the good fortune to find his way into the most romantic of special force units the Long Range Desert Group In Rommel's Backyard describes the various roles of the LRDG all of which involved great daring and endurance deep behind enemy lines They were the eyes and ears of the Eighth Army reporting enemy movement they destroyed enemy aircraft supply dumps and vehicles and they transported other special forces and agents to their objectives Timpson kept a meticulous record of all his activities with the LRDG Only after his death did his son realize the significance of his father's journals In Rommel's Backyard is a personal account of the LRDG that epitomizes the spirit of the entire campaign
