Patterns and Patterning Bart Westerweel, 2021-11-15 Patterns and Patterning Bart Westerweel, C. J. Partridge, 1984 Essays in English and American language and literature Patterns and Patterning Bart Westerweel, C. J. Partridge, John James Peereboom, 1984 George Herbert Thomas Stearns Eliot, 1994 Peter Porter's new introduction gives a fresh perspective on the poetry of George Herbert and on T S Eliot's study of the poet itself George Herbert's Christian Narrative Harold Toliver, 2010-11-01 Minor American Fiction 1920-1940 Colin Partridge, 2022-07-04 The Pulse of Praise Julia Carolyn Guernsey, 1999 Guernsey draws on D W Winnicott's object relations model which focuses on self development in a relational context to illuminate various senses of self and Other that Herbert's poems express discursively and formally The book will appeal not only to Herbert scholars and other Renaissance critics but also to audiences interested in psychoanalysis and how it relates to literature religion culture and poetics BOOK JACKET The Ludic Self in Seventeenth-Century English Literature Anna K. Nardo, 1991-09-03 This book argues that play offered Hamlet John Donne George Herbert Andrew Marvell Robert Burton and Sir Thomas Browne a way to live within the contradictions and conflicts of late Renaissance life by providing a new stance for the self Grounding its argument in recent theories of play and in a historical analysis that sees the seventeenth century as a point of crisis in the formation of the western self the author demonstrates how play helped mediate this crisis and how central texts of the period enact this mediation The Notion of Turning in Metaphysical Poetry Carmen Dörge, 2018 In Metaphysical Poetry there is an emphasis on religious experience which often touches on diverse kinds of turning Among them are religious conversion a turn to God spatial movement turning in space divine transformation turning from one kind into another musical tuning turning as a requisite for harmony and circular turning Moreover there is a strong link between turning and its realisation through the language of the poems Focusing on John Donne and George Herbert this study explores various aspects of turning as well as their interrelation Dissertation Series Religion and Literature Religion und Literatur Vol 7 Subject Poetry Presenting Poetry Howard Erskine-Hill, Richard A. McCabe, 1995-06-08 The presentation of poetry to auditor and reader from the sixteenth to the twentieth centuries Friendship in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Age Albrecht Classen, Marilyn Sandidge, 2010 Although it seems that erotic love generally was the prevailing topic in the medieval world and the Early Modern Age parallel to this the Ciceronian ideal of friendship also dominated the public discourse as this collection of essays demonstrates Following an extensive introduction the individual contributions explore the functions and the character of friendship from Late Antiquity Augustine to the 17th century They show the spectrum of variety in which this topic appeared not only in literature but also in politics and even in painting Finding the Place Kees Fens, 2021-11-01 This is a collection of essays on major English literary figures by the leading Dutch critic Kees Fens Although most of them are on nineteenth and twentieth century literature dealing with among others Newman Hopkins Wilde Shaw and Greene authors from earlier periods such as Thomas More and George Herbert are not excluded Kees Fens holds that great cultural achievements are creative responses to a large diversity of traditions The most important of these constitute the cultural heritage that is preserved and passed on in education religion reading and writing For Fens culture is first and foremost a continuity of experience starting in one's youth when one goes to school and to church In assimilating the tradition one learns that all aspects of life are culturally significant for better or worse Creativity is the urge to continue to learn on all occasions What one learns is that one's knowledge necessarily remains incomplete Fens has a sharp eye for inconsistencies and paradoxes in authors as well as in their work He responds to these with humour since in his view they illustrate a permanent striving for perfection What a great author leaves behind is his language Language is saturated with many kinds of traditions an author uses language to reshape the traditions he wants to perfect A great author becomes a great teacher when he makes his readers experience his own need for perfection

The Last Pilgrimage to Eternity Cyril L. Caspar, 2018-03-15 With the advent of the reformation concepts of living and dying were profoundly reconfigured As purgatory disappeared from the spiritual landscape other paths to the afterlife were rediscovered Thus when life draws to a close the passage to the afterlife becomes a last pilgrimage a popular early modern metaphor that has received little critical commentary In a rigorous historical and theological reading Cyril L Caspar explores five major English poets John Donne Sir Walter Raleigh George Herbert Edmund Spenser and John Milton to unveil the poetical potential of the last pilgrimage as a life transcending metaphor

Metaphor and Iconicity M. Hiraga, 2004-12-10 Metaphor and Iconicity attempts to clarify the interplay of metaphor and iconicity in the creation and interpretation of spoken and written texts from a cognitive perspective There are various degrees in which metaphor and iconicity manifest themselves ranging from sound symbolism and parallelism in poetic discourse to word order inflectional forms and other grammatical structures in ordinary discourse The book makes unique contributions to the study of the relationship of form and meaning

Devil Theatre Jan Frans van Dijkhuizen, 2007 The so called Devil Theatre is here set against its context of non dramatic texts on possession and exorcism providing many new insights Representations of demonic possession and exorcism rituals abound in English Renaissance drama an area which this book seeks to illuminate by comparison with non dramatic works The author investigates stage images of possession in relation to a range of early modern demonological theological and medical prose texts on the subject looking specifically at how the theatre responded to these texts He argues that the stage appropriated debates over demonic possession to explore the competing roles of the inner life and the body in early modern definitions of selfhood The theatre also employed the contemporary controversy over possession and exorcism to investigate the politics of religion and to consider the nature of monarchic power Moreover because demonic possession cases and exorcism rituals were frequently dismissed by conformist writers as a piece of theatre they offered an opportunity to reflect on the nature of drama and role playing JAN FRANS VAN DIJKHUIZEN is lecturer and research fellow at the University of Leiden Joannes Sambucus And The Learned Image Arnoud S. Q. Visser, 2005 This volume provides the first full study of Sambucus influential Neo Latin emblem book By analysing individual emblems and the historical contexts in which they were shaped a new picture emerges of the use of the emblem for Renaissance humanists Aspects of Lyric in the Poetry of Emily Brontë Maureen Peeck-O'Toole, 2022-07-04 The B Text of the Old English Bede Raymond J.S.
