Paul Bowles In Morocco:

Paul Bowles Allen Hibbard, 2004 Paul Bowles 1910 1999 was one of the most paradoxical literary talents of his century a sophisticated New York writer and composer who lived a half century in Morocco a man who fled the western world that acclaimed him Paul Bowles Magic and Morocco is an extended homage a memoir of a friendship and an examination of more than a half century's influence of North African magic on Bowles's sensibilities and fictions Allen Hibbard a scholar and close friend situates Bowles with others like Conrad and Lawrence who lived a split existence literally and metaphorically divided between the modern and the primitive With an extensive knowledge of the Middle East and North Africa Hibbard weaves literary analysis and personal insight thereby yielding a unique understanding of the effects of Moroccan culture upon Bowles's sensibility Their Heads Are Green And Their Hands Are Blue Paul Bowles, 2016-01-27 In the nineteenth century there flourished a peculiar breed of Englishmen often the second sons of the aristocracy or ambitious men from a lower class who as soldiers consuls and tea planters were largely responsible for making England a great colonial power Save for the fact that he is a staunch anticolonialist Paul Bowles resembles these men in many respects Like them he appears to be happiest away from civilization as we know it like them he thrives when the traveling is hardest the food ghastly or infrequent water scarce heat intolerable or mosquitoes abundant This engaging collection of eight travel essays by the author of such noted fiction as The Sheltering Sky and The Delicate Prey deals largely with places in the world that few Westerners have ever heard of much less seen places as yet unencumbered by the trappings luxuries and corruptions of modern civilization Except for one essay on Central America all of these pieces are concerned with remote spots in the Hindu Buddhist or Mohammedan worlds The author is a sympathetic and discerning interpreter of these alien cultures and his eyes and ears are especially alert both to what is bizarre and what is wise in the civilizations in which he settles He is also acutely aware of the transitions occurring on the fringes of many of these regions and he is disturbed and indignant about the corrosive effect of Western culture on the non Christian way of life Above all however Paul Bowles is a superb and observant traveler born wanderer who finds pleasure in the inaccessible and who cheerfully endures the concomitant hardships matter of factly and with humor These essays provide us with Paul Bowles's characteristic insightfulness and bring us closer to a world we frequently hear about but often find difficult to understand Paul Bowles and Morocco Aftermath Books, 2007
