Paul McCartney and His Creative Practice Phillip McIntyre, Paul Thompson, 2021-08-10 This book provides fresh insight into the creative practice developed by Paul McCartney over his extended career as a songwriter record producer and performing musician It frames its examination of McCartney's work through the lens of the systems model of creativity developed by Mihaly Csikszentmihalyi and combines this with the research work of Pierre Bourdieu This systems approach is built around the basic structures of idiosyncratic agents like McCartney himself and the choices he has made as a creative individual It also locates his work within social fields and cultural domains all crucial aspects of the creative system that McCartney continues to be immersed in Using this tripartite system the book includes analysis of McCartney's creative collaborations with musicians producers artists and filmmakers and provides a critical analysis of the Romantic myth which forms a central tenet of popular music This engaging work will have interdisciplinary appeal to students and scholars of the psychology of creativity popular music sociology and cultural studies

Lennon and McCartney Thomas MacFarlane, 2022-09-30 Lennon and McCartney Painting with Sound explores the work of two of the most influential composers of the twentieth century Five decades after the breakup of the Beatles the music of John Lennon and Paul McCartney continues to fascinate and inspire Evidence suggests that their uniquely eclectic approach can be traced back to the Liverpool College of Art Following on that idea this book explores the creative dialogue between John Lennon and Paul McCartney both with the Beatles and on their own that grew out of that early influence The book is presented in three sections I Stretching the Canvas considers the Liverpool College of Art as the backdrop for John and Paul's early collaborations with painter and musician Stuart Sutcliffe This is followed by discussions of select works created by the Beatles between 1962-69 II Extending the Space focuses on the long distance creative dialogue between Lennon and McCartney as demonstrated in their respective solo recordings of the 1970s III New Colours considers the final works of the Lennon and McCartney creative dialogue as well as various McCartney solo projects released in the years that followed Lennon's death in 1980 Here the focus is on Paul's development as a painter its effect on his creativity and his subsequent efforts to establish the Liverpool Institute for Performing Arts as a world class arts conservatory The Paul McCartney Catalog Ted Montgomery,2020-02-10 This complete discography of Paul McCartney's solo and other post Beatles work examines his entire catalog It covers his studio and live albums and compilations including the trance electronic classical and cover albums and selected bootleg recordings all of the singles videos and DVDs and the 15 radio shows he made as Oobu Joobu Each song is reviewed in depth providing a wealth of information for both dedicated McCartney fans and those just discovering his music , Paul McCartney Tony Barrow,Robin Bextor,2004 This unique book is not a biography of Paul McCartney but something far more personal and out of the ordinary It is a series of snapshots that together form a picture of the man who it could be argued did more to change the face of popular culture than any other Bringing together a carefully selected series of eyewitness accounts the authors own plus others exclusively assembled for this project and illustrated throughout with many rare photographs Paul McCartney Now and Then is an array of very real memories that create a revealing and intimate portrait of the man they call Macca 101 Best Ways to Get Ahead Michael E.
