Echoes of Scripture in Luke-Acts Kenneth D. Litwak, 2005-03-07 Litwak challenges previous studies of the use of the Old Testament in Luke Acts as inadequate In contrast to previous studies that consider only quotations or obvious allusions he examines intertextual echoes of the Old Testament at strategic points in Luke Acts as well as quotations and allusions and echoed traditions Thus this study s database is larger Previous studies generally argue that Luke s use of the Scriptures is in the service of christology This leads to the exclusion of scriptural citations such as those of the temptation Luke 4 1 13 which have different emphases Litwak views ecclesiology as the overall purpose behind Luke s use of the Old Testament but he does not skip or avoid intertextual references that may lie outside an ecclesiological function Whilst other studies contend that Luke uses the Old Testament according to a promise fulfillment proof form prophecy hermeneutic Litwak argues that this fails to account for many of the intertextual references Other studies often subsume all of Luke s use of the Scriptures of Israel under one theme such as the New Exodus but this study does not require that every intertextual echo maps to a specific theme Rather the many intertextual references in strategic texts at the beginning middle and end of Luke Acts and Luke s use of the texts are allowed to dictate the themes to which they relate JSNTS 282
