Paw Talk:

Paw Talk Stephen Mathis, 2000-08 More than 56 million American households have dogs they consider members of their family. If these dogs could talk they may wag a tale similar to this story inspired by an old canine and pug dog named Buster. You will be entertained and humored how this most unusual shaman works his own pedigree of magic as a member of his household family. Affectionately known as man's best friend, a dog is in the relationship business and some dogs develop extraordinary people skills. Our pets' behavior offers us many lessons and insights on how to improve our own relationships. That is what this book talks about. Read this and you too will be a believer. This book makes interesting reading for a few good reasons. It may be the first dog diary ever published. It is a family story. It is a story about how traditional and sacred family values are relevant to our survival and enjoyment of a good life from a dog's perspective, of course. If you don't have a dog in your life, you may want one after reading this. Or if you do have a pet, you will gain a new appreciation for that loved one.
