Redefining Sexual Ethics A Sourcebook Of Essays Stories And Poems By Davies:

Redefining Sexual Ethics Susan E. Davies, Eleanor Humes Haney, 1991 A bold literary collection addressing many different aspects of sexuality in ethical and theological terms Contributors consider race gender age disability class and sexual orientation in poetry song essay and story form Unrepentant, Self-Affirming, Practicing Gary David Comstock, 2002-06-14 Praise for Unrepentant For open minded religious leaders there are nuggets of enlightenment in this ecumenical array Publishers Weekly Surprisingly readable as well as informative San Francisco Chronicle A significant body of knowledge Theology Today Publishers catalogues are full of books on the church's view of homosexuality Comstock here offers gay views of the church Given the often hostile environment he asks why gay people stay in religious institutions Using social scientific methods he summarizes thirty six surveys of gay attitudes toward religious communities including Jewish Buddhist Muslim and Native American traditions He adds data from his survey of gay people in two mainline Protestant denominations Religious Studies Review Explores how each religion accepts half accepts or rejects gays and lesbians and how they themselves feel about their religion The book is also filled with personal stories of how spiritual people who discovered they are homosexual came out within their community and their congregation and how they feel about the central figures and tenets of their belief Gatherings With its succinct accessible language and rich collection of empirical research findings on lesbian gay peoples Unrepentant Self Affirming Practicing would be an excellent addition to academic libraries and could be appropriately used as well in an undergraduate religion or sociology classroom Journal for Scientific Study of Religion Plenty Good Room Marcia Y. Riggs, 2008-12-01 I offer this book as an outgrowth of my faith journey in the African American Church and as an ethicist who is deeply concerned about the distorted relationship between the professed theological and ethical beliefs and moral practices with respect to gender in that church I am concerned with the way that we interpret our beliefs about justice in particular in order to match our sexual gender oppressive practices while maintaining that we received such interpretation by way of the Bible and or church tradition Marcia Y Riggs In Plenty Good Room Women Versus Male Power in the Black Church Riggs discusses African American church life as a case study for ethical reflection about sexual ethics and clergy ethics the prevailing silence about sexuality in the black church as well as the fact that sexuality is generally a taboo in the Christian tradition The author feels that sexism has been perpetrated by misuse of the Scriptures and by circumscribing the role of women and seeks to transform current discourse about sexual behavior and clergy misconduct from a concentration on formulating policy to re train Riggs offers both descriptive analysis and normative proposals for transforming the moral life of the African American church the way of being and doing characteristic of the African American church in the areas of Sexual gender relations Clergy ethics Ministerial ethics Ecclesial practices Riggs begins each chapter with a scenario and ends each chapter with dialogue questions for further group reflection Womanist Theological Ethics Katie Geneva Cannon, Emilie Maureen Townes, Angela D.

Sims, 2011-01-01 Writing across theological disciplines nine African American women scholars reflect on what it means to live as responsible doers of justice With some classic essays and some contributions published here for the first time each chapter in this new volume in the Library of Theological Ethics series presents analytical strategies for understanding the story of womanist scholarship in the service of the black community The Library of Theological Ethics series focuses on what it means to think theologically and ethically It presents a selection of important and otherwise unavailable texts in easily accessible form Volumes in this series will enable sustained dialogue with predecessors though reflection on classic works in the field

Erotic Justice Marvin Mahan Ellison, 1996-01-01 Ethicist Marvin Ellison compellingly argues that current crises in family personal life and sexuality are related to our culture's prevailing attitudes about human sexuality He proposes a liberating Christian ethic of erotic justice that goes beyond the prevailing patriarchal paradigm

Createdness and Ethics Hans Schaeffer, 2012-02-13 This book contains a systematic description of the theologies of Colin E Gunton 1941 2003 and Oswald Bayer b 1939 Their use of the doctrine of creation in systematic theology has remarkable consequences for late modern theological ethics This book explores those consequences from the example of the theological doctrine of marriage The author also contributes to the ecumenical debate by building on the Neo Calvinist theological heritage

Handbook of U.S. Theologies of Liberation Miguel A. De La Torre, 2004-11-01 The purpose of this handbook is to introduce the reader to Christian concepts from the perspective of U S marginalized communities It explores the interrelationship between religion community and culture in the social context of different marginalized groups specifically those rooted in the African American Amerindian Asian American feminist gay lesbian and Hispanic experiences and their impact on the development of U S theologies of liberation The handbook gives attention to the history nature sources and development of these theologies and the theologians who contributed to their formation Of particular interest is how Handbook of U S Theologies of Liberation clearly distinguishes both the differences and similarities between these U S theologies and their Latin American counterparts The handbook is divided into two sections Thematic Essays that provide a general overview of a specific theological theme from the perspectives of different marginalized groups and Contextual Essays that focus on the specific contributions of scholars from various racial ethnic and gender backgrounds

The Advocate, 1994-07-12 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States
