The Passion Story Marcia Ann Kupfer, 2008 The incidence of Passion imagery in diverse media is fundamental to the histories of Christian piety church politics and art in European and American societies At the same time the visualization and reenactment of Christ's suffering has for centuries been the principal engine generating popular perceptions of Jews and Judaism The essays collected in this book written by eminent scholars with an eye toward the nonspecialist reader broadly survey the depiction and dramatization of the Passion and consider the significance of this representational focus for both Christians and Jews This anthology provides a unique multifaceted overview of a subject of enduring importance in today's religiously pluralistic societies

Artistic Practices and Cultural Transfer in Early Modern Italy Allison Sherman, 2017-07-05 For too long the centre of the Renaissance has been considered to be Rome and the art produced in or inspired by it This collection of essays dedicated to Deborah Howard brings together an impressive group of internationally recognised scholars of art and architecture to showcase both the diversity within and the porosity between the centre and periphery in Renaissance art Without abandoning Rome but together with other centres of art production the essays both shift their focus away from conventional categories and bring together recent trends in Renaissance studies notably a focus on cultural contact material culture and historiography They explore the material mechanisms for the transmission and evolution of ideas artistic training and networks as well as the dynamics of collaboration and exchange between artists theorists and patrons The chapters each with a wealth of groundbreaking research and previously unpublished documentary evidence as well as innovative methodologies reinterpret Italian art relating to canonical sites and artists such as
