Regionalism And Regional Integration In Africa:

Regionalism, Security and Development in Africa Ernest Tooche Aniche, Ikenna Mike Alumona, Innocent Moyo, 2021-04-29 This book charts the history and contemporary landscape of African regionalism investigating how regional cooperation can be used to help to tackle security and development challenges in Africa Africa has a long tradition of regional cooperation with the oldest trade and monetary integration schemes in the developing world but its colonial period and partition of have caused lasting damage that still be seen in today s African economies Contemporary post colonial African regionalism deeply rooted in notions of pan Africanism has served as a means of collective self reliance and economic transformation and development This book starts with the history and theory behind African regionalism before discussing and comparing regional organisations such as the Economic Community of Central African States ECCAS the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS the Community of Sahel Saharan States CEN SAD Southern African Development Community SADC the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa COMESA and the East African Community EAC Finally the book considers how regional integration and cooperation can help to address security and development challenges This ambitious and broad ranging book will be a valuable resource for researchers working on African regionalism security African integration and development and comparative regionalism Policymakers should also consider it a useful guide to the background and contemporary landscape of African regionalism

The Political Economy of Regionalism in Southern Africa Margaret Carol Lee, 2003 In the face of increasing globalisation regionalism continues to be seen as a conduit for enhancing Africa s integration into the world economy In the light of this the countries of southern Africa have made verbal commitments to enhance regional development and the integration of their economies This important book examines the challenges to regionalism in southern Africa It tackles the issues of political and economic instability overlapping membership in regional economic organisations increased intra regional trade through the creation of free trade agreements the ability to secure needed foreign investment and the failure of governments to make a political commitment to regionalism

Transfrontier Regionalism. The Revival of Regional Integration in Africa A.I. Asiwaju, 1999 The views and perspectives adopted by A I Asiwaju and D Bach appear sufficiently distinct yet they converge on several key issues i e the informal achievement of regionalization in Africa through kinship and other non state networks the resistance of Africans to boundaries inherited from the colonial period and the consequences of the arbitrariness of these boundaries Anyone who has ever crossed the Seme border between the Federal Republic of Nigeria and the Republic of Benin cannot but subscribe to the perceptions shared by the two authors Whatever the purpose of the trip travellers crossing the border share the experience of being in a lawless area the occasional traveller who behaves suspiciously will immediately attract the attention of the immigration officer who begins to search through his papers scrupulously looking for any error on the other hand the market woman who knows the system crosses with ease The popularization of these border scenes by novels and video productions is significant evidence of the intensity of transborder movements in West Africa and of the constraints as well as the resources offered by the borders This dual reality of what appears as an obstacle to the implementation of institutionalized regional integration schemes and as the booster of an informal market driven trade flow is widely documented and discussed in the two papers

Regionalism and Africa's Development S.K.B. Asante,2016-07-27 A critical appraisal of regionalism as a key strategy in Africa s development explaining the failures thus far of attempts at regional integration on the continent This is the first text to highlight the main features of the new post 1990 regional initiatives such as the all embracing African Economic Community and World Bank IMF African Development Bank EC and French initiatives and the challenges to Africa from trading blocs elsewhere in the post Uruguay Round environment Regionalism in Africa Daniel C Bach,2015-12-22 Africa which was not long ago discarded as a hopeless and irrelevant region has become a new frontier for global trade investment and the conduct of international relations This book surveys the socio economic intellectual and security related dimensions of African regionalisms since the turn of the 20th century It argues that the continent deserves to be considered as a crucible for conceptualizing and contextualizing the ongoing influence of colonial policies the emergence of specific integration and security cultures the spread of cross border regionalisation processes at the expense of region building the interplay between territory space and trans state networks and the intrinsic ambivalence of global frontier narratives This is emphasized through the identification of distinctive threads of regionalism which by focusing on genealogies trajectories and ideals transcend the binary divide between old and new regionalisms In doing so the book opens new perspectives not only on Africa in international relations but also Africa s own international relations This text will be of key interest to students and scholars of African politics African history regionalism comparative regionalism and more broadly to international political economy international relations and global and regional governance

Building Capacity in African Regional Integration S. K. B. Asante,2007 The New Regionalism in Africa Fredrik Söderbaum,2017-03-02 This edited volume transcends conventional state centric and formalistic notions of regionalism and theorizes conceptualizes and analyzes the complexities and contradictions of regionalization processes in contemporary Africa The collection not only unpacks and theorizes the African state society complex with regard to new regionalism but also explicitly integrates the often neglected discourse of human security and human development In so doing the book moves the discussion of new regionalism forward at the same time as it adds important insights to security and development It is organized into three parts Part I theorizes conceptualizes and analyzes the new regionalism in Africa from the point of view of the region e g West East Central and Southern Africa The national perspectives in Part II focus on the new regionalism in Africa from the point of view of particular countries or specific state society complexes such as Kenya the Democratic Republic of the Congo DRC the enclave of Cabinda Angola and Zambia Part III contains two concluding chapters that tie the main threads of the volume together theoretically and empirically and discuss the contribution of the analytical framework the new regionalism approach NRA to the larger study of regionalism      Regional Economic Communities and Integration in Southern Africa Leon Mwamba Tshipaka, Christopher Changwe Nshimbi, Inocent Moyo, 2021-05-07 This book examines regional integration in Africa with a particular focus on the Southern African Development Community SADC It argues that the SADC's pursuit of a rationalist and state centric form of integration for Southern Africa is limited as it overlooks the contributory role and efficacy of non state actors who are relegated to the periphery The book demonstrates that civil society networks in Southern Africa constitute well governed self organised entities that function just like formal regional arrangements driven by state actors and technocrats The book amplifies this point by deploying New Institutionalism and the New Regionalism Approach to examine the role and efficacy of non state actors in building regions from below The book develops a unique typology that shows how Southern African regional civil society networks adopt strategies norms and rules to establish an efficient form of alternative integration in the region Based on a critical analysis of this self organised regionalism the book projects the reality that alternative regionalism driven by non state actors is possible This book expands the study of regionalism in the SADC and makes a significant and innovative contribution to the study of contemporary regionalism      Contemporary Regional Development in Africa Kobena T. Hanson, 2016-03-09 Contemporary Regional Development in Africa interrogates well known concerns in the areas of regionalism and economic integration in contemporary Africa while offering an added uniqueness by highlighting the capacity imperatives of the issues and proposing critical policy guideposts The volume juxtaposes a set of dynamic entanglements new and micro regionalism informal cross border trade intra African and African FDI plus cross border investments infrastructure development science and technology regional value chains conflict management and regional security with fluid interpretations of regional development The chapters provide snapshots of the several emerging and complex regionalisms and highlight a set of relevant and often overlapping analyses drawing on authors nuanced and granular understanding of the African landscape The varied yet interlinked nature of issues covered in this study make the book valuable and attractive to academics researchers policymakers and development practitioners      The Strategy of Regional Integration in Africa S. K. B. Asante, 1996      Regionalism and Integration in Africa Samuel O. Oloruntoba, 2015-11-10 The resurgence of regionalism is borne out of the current political logjams that have characterized the governance and operations of multilateral trading system over the past one decade and a half Oloruntoba critically examines Euro Nigeria relations within the context of the Economic Partnership Agreements in terms of the political and economic implications of the agreements on Nigeria's non oil exports sub sectors Set within one of the main objectives of the Economic Partnership Agreements he also interrogates the prospects and challenges of regional integration in Africa under the regime of transnational accumulation which the Economic Partnership Agreements represents      Regional Integration in Southern Africa Christopher S. Clapham, 2001      The Political Economy of Regionalism F. Söderbaum, 2004-10-29 The Political Economy of Regionalism The Case of Southern Africa challenges prevailing wisdom showing how ruling political elites and big business join forces with certain external actors in order to promote market integration and economic globalization boost regimes and to satisfy group specific and even personal interests Only rarely do these forms of regionalism contribute to the poor and disadvantaged who instead opt out and survive through informal economic regionalisms or seek to create regionalisms rooted in civil society Pan

Africanism, Regional Integration and Development in Africa Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, 2021-03-25 This edited volume addresses the accomplishments prospects and challenges of regional integration processes on the African continent Since regional integration is a process that ebbs and flows according to a wide range of variables such as changing political and economic conditions implications and factors derived from the vagaries of migration and climate change it is crucial to be cognizant with how these variables impact regional integration initiatives The contributors discuss the debates on Pan Africanism and linking it with ongoing discourses and policies on regional integration in Africa Other aspects of the book contain some of the most important topic issues such as migration border management and the sustainable development goals This content offers readers fresh and innovative perspectives on various aspects of sustainable development and regional growth in Africa Rethinking Civil Society Regionalism in Africa Dele Kogbe, 2022-10-14 This book interrogates the extent to which regional civil society organisations have evolved as actors in West Africa Examining civil society democratic participation in regional integration and involvement in regionalism of peacebuilding it rethinks how we study civil society in the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS region Beyond the functional typology of civil society actors as partner legitimiser resistance counter hegemonic and manipulator the book develops a new analytical framework to understand how organisations such as the West African Civil Society Forum WACSOF and West African Network for Peacebuilding WANEP have evolved Offering analytical perspectives of the actorship of specific regional civil society actors the book draws attention to the tendencies in the previous studies of mistaking an action or misdeed that is empirically specific to particular civil society organisations within a region to the generality of the civic space of the region Providing an alternative perspective aimed at invoking a new intellectual conversation about civil society regionalism this book advances a new analytical framework of action based regional identity of civil society regional presence of activities regional capacities and societal impact It will be of interest to academics and scholars of international relations global governance African politics and comparative regionalism The Future of Regionalism in Africa Ralph I.

Onwuka, Amadu Sesay, 1985 Essays on attempts at economic integration in Africa discusses the background and future prospects of the ECA OAU African Development Bank and Fund African Common Market or Free Trade Area ECOWAS WAEMU CACEU and the Mano River Union considers the role of multinational enterprises examines the failure of the EAC and the dependence associated with the Southern African Development Coordination Conference SADC and Customs Union Bibliography statistical tables Africa-EU Relations and the African Continental Free Trade Area Samuel Ojo

Oloruntoba, Christopher Changwe Nshimbi, Leon Mwamba Tshimpaka, 2023-08-10 This book explores relations between states in the Africa European Union in view of the African Continental Free Trade Area both at a regional level and as a series of informal processes of socioeconomic and political interactions between state and non state actors The book reconsiders the ways in which actors in the Africa European Union relationship function and what that means for regionalism regionalisation and regional integration In addition to formalised state to state and inter regional interactions the book examines the impact of socio economic and political interactions with non state actors including those who engage with regional integration through formal and informal processes such as civil society activists African migration evangelists human smugglers and human traffickers The book thus demonstrates that regional and inter regional engagements include issues that extend beyond the usual discussions of trade The book is authored from an African perspective and will be of interest to academics who specialise in International Relations Political Economy Political Sociology and African Studies Policy makers and various actors in civil society and think tanks who have an academic inclination and deal with trade migration and regionalism in Africa and Africa s relations with Europe will also find the book beneficial Regional Integration in Africa Sipho Buthelezi, 2006 This study outlines the challenges to mutual linkages at a regional level to social and economic development across the continent Organised topically and covering all regional groupings in Africa the study provides a historical overview of integration and common markets of COMESA and ECOWAS discussion of Africa in the global economy the question of regionalism in North Africa and the Arab Maghreb union the case of the Southern African Development Community and a survey of the political economy of the Horn of Africa Regional Integration, Trade and Industry in Africa Helmut Asche, 2021-06-14 This book examines the past present and prospects of regional economic integration in Africa The empirical analysis ranges from unions formed during the years following independence to the proposed African Continental Free Trade Area AfCFTA which aims to remove trade barriers between all 55 African states In addition the book explores to what extent Africa s Regional Economic Communities RECs have advanced in accordance with a linear integration model of goods labor and capital markets The book subsequently evaluates the suitability of the European model of deep integration with costly institutions for the conditions specific to Africa considering for example the role of informal and non recorded trade Stylized cases of regional division of labour with increasing returns and imperfect competition are introduced to support the economic integration logic Past and current economic policies in Africa are scrutinized to answer the question how can African regions best foster new manufacturing industries and value chains across the continent In conclusion the book outlines content and processes of Common Industrial Policy in the African regions The book also addresses the controversial issue of international trade agreements between developing countries and the European Union or the USA and investigates whether these agreements impede or promote economic development in Africa The book includes a detailed roadmap describing how to improve key clauses of agreements for economic partnership in the interest of

African countries In closing it outlines a new vision of joint sustainable development for Africa and Europe Innovation, Regional Integration, and Development in Africa Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Mammo Muchie, 2018-07-26 This edited volume discusses the role of innovation and regional integration in economic development in Africa Over the past five decades post colonial African countries have struggled to break loose from the trap of poverty and underdevelopment through the adoption of various development strategies at regional national and continental levels However the results of both national and regional efforts at advancing development on the continent have been mixed Although the importance of agglomeration and fusion of institutions have long been recognized as possible path to achieving economic development in Africa the approach to regionalism has been unduly focused on market integration while neglecting other dimensions such as social policy mobility of labor educational policy biotechnology regional legislation manufacturing innovation and science and technology This volume investigates the link between innovation regional integration and development in Africa arguing that the immediate and long term development of Africa lies not just in the structural transformation of its economies but in the advancement of scientific and innovation capacities The book is divided into four parts Part I addresses the theoretical and conceptual underpinnings of innovation and regional integration in Africa Part II presents case studies which examine how regional economic institutions are fostering innovation in Africa Part III of the book deals with sectoral issues on innovation and integrated development in Africa Part IV sets the future research on innovation regional integration and development in Africa Combining theoretical analysis and a comparative interdisciplinary approach this volume is appropriate for researchers and students interested in economic development political economy African studies international relations agricultural science and geography as well as policymakers in regional economic communities and the African Union
