another world In Keeping Hope Alive Dermot A Lane addresses these and other questions The author sets out to develop a theology of hope rooted in both human experience and the Christian tradition In discussing Christian belief Lane pays particular attention to the death and resurrection of Christ as both the pivotal eschatological event and the fundamental ground of Christian hope At the same time he deals with contemporary human experience addressing questions arising from the Marxist critique of Christianity the nuclear threat the ecological crisis and the apparent emptiness of much post modern thinking Dermot Lane confronts difficult issues such as death heaven hell purgatory resurrection reincarnation and the possibility of universal salvation with realism and honesty The end result is a new theological synthesis that takes account of recent developments in anthropology feminism and cosmology This carefully crafted book will be of value to all who are asking searching questions about the meaning of living and dying Hope and Community Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen,2017 The culmination of Kärkkäinen's multivolume magnum opus This fifth and final volume of Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen's ambitious five volume systematic theology develops a constructive Christian eschatology and ecclesiology in dialogue with the Christian tradition with contemporary theology in all its global and contextual diversity and with other major living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism In Part One of the book Kärkkäinen discusses eschatology in the contexts of world faiths and natural sciences including physical cosmological and neuroscientific theories In Part Two on ecclesiology he adopts a deeply ecumenical approach His proposal for greater Christian unity includes the various dimensions of the church's missional existence and a robust dialogical witness to other faith communities Battling the Buddha of Love Jessica Marie Falcone,2018-09-15 Battling the Buddha of Love is a work of advocacy anthropology that explores the controversial plans and practices of the Maitreya Project a transnational Buddhist organization as it sought to build the world's tallest statue as a multi million dollar gift to India Hoping to forcibly acquire 750 acres of occupied land for the statue park in the Kushinagar area of Uttar Pradesh the Buddhist statue planners ran into obstacle after obstacle including a full scale grassroots resistance movement of Indian farmers working to Save the Land Falcone sheds light on the aspirations values and practices of both the Buddhists who worked to construct the statue as well as the Indian farmer activists who tirelessly protested against the Maitreya Project Because the majority of the supporters of the Maitreya Project statue are converts to Tibetan Buddhism individuals Falcone terms non heritage practitioners she focuses on the spectacular collision of cultural values between small agriculturalists in rural India and transnational Buddhists hailing from Portland to Pretoria She asks how could a transnational Buddhist organization committed to compassionate practice blithely create so much suffering for impoverished rural Indians Falcone depicts the cultural logics at work on both sides of the controversy and through her examination of these logics she reveals the divergent competing visions of Kushinagar's potential futures Battling the Buddha of Love traces power faith and hope through the axes of globalization transnational religion and rural grassroots activism in South Asia showing the unintended local consequences of an international spiritual development project Eschatology and Hope Anthony Kelly,2006-01-01 Probes Christian wisdom and contemporary thought to help us give and accounting for the hope that is within us 1 Peter 3:15 in troubled and uncertain times Selling a Vision of Hope Nissim Dahan,2007-10-16 Is it just me or do you also sense that when it comes to the Middle East we may well be inching our way toward a bad place What if anything can we do about it Albert Einstein came up with $E=mc^2$ Thankfully the formula for success in the Middle East is a lot simpler Ideology plus Investment equals Hope We need nothing less than a new ideological framework along with some well placed investment dollars to generate a sense of hope and with hope all things are possible Use An Ideology of Common Sense along with Economic Incentives to sell a Vision of Hope a Vision of Peace Prosperity and Freedom on the Arab street in the Muslim World and in the world as a whole Speak to one another with common sense and with a sense of personal dignity Put some serious money on the table and give everyone on earth a place at the table a stake in his or her future Make the global economy truly global Use the motto We stand ready to invest in you if you are ready to invest in yourselves Invest in projects which resonate with hope which create jobs which protect the environment and which allow people to become who they want to become even if they want to become different from you Create facts on the ground which speak louder than words Marginalize the extremists on all sides by co-opting their strategy by doing what they do only better and by putting them in the uncomfortable and untenable position of holding their people back from a better life If the West is good at anything it is making and investing money Why not use this strength as part of our strategic arsenal to promote the peace and to win the war against ideological extremism And when the need arises fight on the ground and fight hard but position the fight within a Vision of Hope Raise the fight on the ground to a higher moral plain and sustain the fight by giving it a moral clarity of purpose If all this sounds a bit over the top it probably is But this may well be the time before time runs out to dream the impossible and to make the impossible come true
