Reinventing The Family:

Reinventing the Family Elisabeth Beck-Gernsheim, 2002-04-22 The traditional image of the family as a life long unit is fading fast There are fewer marriages more divorces and ever more children born to unmarried or single parents The forms of our private life are changing rapidly and people are embarking on new lifestyles based on cohabitation separation and same sex partnerships In this lively and accessible new book Elisabeth Beck Gernsheim looks at the future of our lives after the family Examining the breakdown of the conventional family unit she explores the new choices that are open to individuals and analyses our anxiety over the ensuing loss of stability In Reinventing the Family Beck Gernsheim describes how men and women are being confronted with competing and often incompatible demands Our areas of personal choice have been redrawn but in a space that involves new social regulations and controls The talk of family values sits uneasily with the reality of long working hours business trips weekend seminars and career moves At work we are encouraged to pursue competition speed and change at home we are expected to find community and conciliation Beck Gernsheim examines the impact of these conflicting expectations on the relationships between men women and children and searches for possible solutions Reinventing the Family is an important and timely contribution to the growing debate about the family and its future It will be ideal reading for students of sociology and gender studies but will also appeal to a wide general readership

Reinventing the Family Laura Benkov, 1997-06-17 Reinventing the Family in Uncertain Times Catherine Lee, Marie-Pierre Moreau, Cynthia Okpokiri, 2023 This edited volume looks at the reproduction and transformation of family norms in contemporary times Set against a context of far right politics calling for a return to more conservative identity politics and family norms and building on late 20th century social movements which challenged essentialist and functionalist understandings of identities and families it considers a variety of non traditional family structures Written by scholars based in Argentina Ghana Italy Portugal the UK and the USA the chapters question what counts as a family in contemporary times and considers how the discourses of power which operate in institutional and geographical contexts impact how families are recognized and valued The book includes analysis of non traditional and non heteronormative families such as single parent families childless families families with animal companions LGBTQ families families across the Global South mixed heritage families and families of friends Drawing on post structuralist critical and feminist theories the contributors discuss how power relationships linked to gender class ethnicity sexuality disability and other inequalities intersect and operate in defining what counts as a family Representing the Family Deborah Chambers, 2001-08-09 Looking at how the family is represented by the media and by scrutinizing the manner in which it is regulated this book uncovers the ways in which academic research and welfare policy have colluded with political rhetoric and the popular media to reinvent a mythical ideal family Representing the Family combines perspectives from a range of theories including media and cultural studies sociology and social history to show how certain types of family life are pathologised highlights the discrepancies between contemporary representations of the ideal family and lived experience and compares the British experience with that of the United States and Australia

Reinventing Richard Nixon Daniel E. Frick, 2008 Examining Nixon's autobiographies and political memorabilia Frick offers far reaching perceptions not only of the man but of Nixon's version of himself contrasted with those who would interpret him differently He cites reinventions of Nixon from the late 1980s particularly the museum at the Richard Nixon Library and Birthplace to demonstrate the resilience of certain national mythic narratives in the face of liberal critiques And he recounts how celebrants at Nixon's state funeral at which Bob Dole's eulogy depicted a God fearing American hero attempted to bury the sources of our divisions over him rendering in some minds the judgment of redeemed statesman to erase his status as disgraced president With dozens of illustrations Nixon posing with Elvis the National Archives most requested photo Nixonian cultural artifacts classic editorial cartoons no other book collects in one place such varied images of Nixon from so many diverse media These reinforce Frick's probing analysis to help us understand why we disagree about Nixon and why it matters how we resolve our disagreements

Kapella, Christiane Rille-Pfeiffer, Marina Rupp, Norbert F. Schneider, 2010-03-17 Family in all its aspects Familienbande International experts provide an overview of the current state of the art of European family research and outline the multiple formations structures and configurations of family in Europe Four aspects are discussed in depth family images sex gender roles globalisation and family development processes Influenced by globalisation European countries experience processes which still have greatly varying consequences Cultural differences reflected in a range of family schemes and national family policies are one reason for the continued existence of differences in the scope and speed of change processes Quite generally images and concepts of family have become more heterogeneous and flexible The flip side of this coin is that family members are increasingly faced with the challenges of achieving a satisfactory work life balance a task aggravated by globalisation We therefore need to ask how family policy can help families enjoy adequate freedom of action and latitude for their decision making To summarise a read well worth the effort for all experts working in family research and family policy His

Father'S Son Bernard Baumbach PH.D., 2016-07-23 This trilogy His Fathers Son seeks to characterize the colorful life of Julius Ludwig Frederick Becker Jr through three totally unrelated careers A fictionalized biography it begins in Book I He Wore a Clerical Collar wherein the reader first meets the man who will become his father Widowed shortly after migrating to this country he purchased a grocery store and meat market in Detroit Young Julius was apprenticed in the market as a butcher However she who would become his stepmother she refused marriage unless the son studied for a professional career The solution was his entry into the Lutheran ministry He married while in his first parish Shortly thereafter he accepted a call to a church in Wayne County Michigan It was there that his ministry was interrupted by a religious dispute He was defrocked Subsequently he suffered exceedingly poor health and had to resign his pastorate Book 2 His Fathers Son He Wore a Khaki Collar presents his efforts to rebuild his stamina and support a growing family in Inyo County California It was there where because of the ever patient guidance of his father in law he began his second career he would try becoming a farmer rancher After a decade of demanding labor and the growing demands of seven children his health became a disturbing issue once again However he hiked from Inyo County to Los Angeles County and a TB sanatorium The professional diagnosis was that he had altitude sickness not TB He recovered in the sea level milieu of the area Book 3 His Fathers Son He Wears a White Collar introduces the third career he became a Swedish masseur This final book is also dependent upon literary license but gives greater emphasis however to the genealogical aspects of his family in addition to glimpses into his white collar practice Hence book 3 contains a greater amount of actual history and verifiable biography Although his life spanned three careers he exited life as one faithfully committed to his first career that as an ordained Lutheran minister

After the Crisis: Remembrance, Re-anchoring and Recovery in Ancient Greece and Rome Jacqueline Klooster, Inger N.I. Kuin, 2020-02-06 Crises resulting from war or other upheavals turn the lives of individuals upside down and they can leave marks on a community for many years after the event This volume aims to explore how such crises were remembered in the ancient world and how communities reconstituted themselves after a crisis Can crises serve as catalysts for innovation or change and how does this work What do crises reveal about the normality against which they are defined and framed People living in post crisis societies have no choice but to adapt to the changes caused by crisis Such adaptation entails the question of how the relationship between the pre crisis situation and the new status quo is constructed and by whom Due to the reduced possibility of using the immediate past which is tainted by conflict and bad memories it may involve revisions of historical narratives about communal pasts and identities through the selection of new anchors and sometimes even a discarding of the old ones Crises affect all areas of life and crisis recovery likewise spans different spheres This volume finds traces of such recovery strategies in texts as well as visual representations in literary as well as in documentary texts in official ideology as much as in subaltern responses The contributors bring together the diverse testimonies for such ways of coping that have survived from antiquity

Luther on Leadership David D. Cook, 2017-12-05 As a leader Martin Luther shook the world Yet oddly enough while a great deal has been written about his life theology and legacy few authors have taken the time to examine his leadership characteristics Luther on Leadership fills this gap by examining his life in light of modern leadership theories This book looks at Luther's life from a variety of angles to show why he was such an effective leader With chapters focusing on Luther as a change agent transformational leader adaptive leader and more this work will help the reader understand why Luther transformed the landscape of Europe Examining not only his theological contributions but also his contributions in fields such as law politics economics and education Luther on Leadership aims to give a holistic picture of Luther as a leader in many areas of society

All Our Families Jennifer Natalya Fink, 2022-04-05 A provocation to reclaim our disability lineage in order to profoundly reimagine the possibilities for our relationship to disability kinship and carework Disability is often described as a tragedy a crisis or an aberration though 1 in 5 people worldwide have a disability Why is this common human experience rendered exceptional In All Our Families disability studies scholar Jennifer Natalya Fink argues that this originates in our families When we cut a disabled member out of the family story disability remains a trauma as opposed to a shared and ordinary experience This makes disability and its diagnosis traumatic and exceptional Weaving together stories of members of her own family with sociohistorical research Fink illustrates how the eradication of disabled people from family narratives is rooted in racist misogynistic and antisemitic sorting systems inherited from Nazis By examining the rhetoric of genetic testing she shows that a fear of disability begins before a child is even born and that a fear of disability is fundamentally a fear of care Fink analyzes our racist and sexist care systems exposing their inequities as a source of stigmatizing ableism Inspired by queer and critical race theory Fink calls for a lineage of disability a reclamation of disability as a history a culture and an identity Such a lineage offers a means of seeing disability in the context of a collective sense of belonging as cause for celebration and is a call for a radical reimagining of carework and kinship All Our Families challenges us to relineate disability within the family as a means of repair toward a more inclusive and flexible structure of care and community
