The Making of Modern Switzerland, 1848-1998 M. Butler, M. Pender, J. Charnley, 2000-08-30 A fascinating collection of essays by leading British and Swiss scholars which explore the development of Swiss democracy from 1848 to the present day Culture and literature politics and economics are looked at in turn in an attempt to unravel the extraordinary success of this microcosmic multicultural society at the heart of Europe The problem of contemporary Switzerland faced with rapid changes within the European Union are outlined with refreshing candour The question is posed whether the country can retain its distinctive identity and traditional attitudes while at the same time seeking closer cooperation with the newly emerging Europe and accepting the challenges of the globalized economy The Cambridge Companion to the Modern German Novel Graham Bartram, 2004-04-05 The Cambridge Companion to the Modern German Novel first published in 2004 provides a broad ranging introduction to the major trends in the development of the German novel from the 1890s to the present Written by an international team of experts it encompasses both modernist and realist traditions and also includes a look back to the roots of the modern novel in the Bildungsroman of the late eighteenth and nineteenth centuries The structure is broadly chronological but thematically focused chapters examine topics such as gender anxiety images of the city war and women's writing within each chapter key works are selected for close attention Unique in its combination of breadth of coverage and detailed analysis of individual works and featuring a chronology and guides to further reading this Companion will be indispensable to students and teachers Research in Germanic Studies, 1991 The Text and Its Context Nigel Harris, Joanne Sayner, 2008 This Festschrift for Ronald Speirs Professor of German at the University of Birmingham contains twenty four original essays by scholars from Great Britain Germany Austria and Norway Between them they encompass the entire modern period from the later eighteenth century onwards and focus on a wide range of German speaking environments Several essays throw new light on authors to whom Professor Speirs himself has devoted particular attention such as Brecht Thomas Mann Nietzsche and Fontane whilst others discuss writers such as Lenz Böhmner Böhlau C F Meyer Keyserling Jahn and Huch Above all however the contributions address the complexities of writing in ideologically diverse contexts including the Third Reich and the former German Democratic Republic This interplay between text and context is the cornerstone which links all the essays as it has consistently informed Ronald Speirs's own work which combines a scrupulous attention to textual detail with an acute awareness of the socio political milieu and philosophical influences that shape creative literature Rejection and Emancipation Michael Butler, Malcolm Pender, 1991 A collection of papers examining the development of writing in German in Switzerland since 1945 After an examination of Frisch and Dürrenmatt the principal part of the book looks at the work of twelve younger writers Forthcoming Books Rosemary, 1991 Transkulturalität der Deutschschweizer Literatur Vesna Kondrić Horvat, 2017-04-25 Der Band enthält 21
