Relating Faith Robert Knowles, 2014-03-01 This stimulating book contains a selection of reflections that aim to encourage us to approach issues in the church and in life increasingly through engagement with the biblical texts The author argues that Western Christians are often starved of biblical content in their local church contexts He believes that the Bible is indispensable to building Christian and church identity thought and life and that the biblical texts brought to life by the Holy Spirit themselves play a central role in Christian formation In this way Robert Knowles locates biblical formation squarely at the centre of our relationships with God and with each other

COMMENDATIONS Rob's gift to the Church is to communicate rich theological truth in profoundly relational ways with the Scriptures at the centre Those who want more and know there's more but just don't know where to look would find in Rob's work a goldmine of wisdom and Christ is the fount of it all Rev d Richard Matcham Minister of Barton Baptist Church Torquay I am glad to commend this book It combines such technical sounding topics as speech act theory and postmodernism with very practical issues in bible study and the Christian life Dr Knowles has shown that these are down to earth tools and issues which can be of practical use in everyday Christian discipleship Issues such as that of church leadership are also raised in a practical way Anthony C Thiselton Emeritus Professor of Christian Theology University of Nottingham Rob Knowles is one of those people who has had a massive influence on my life and ministry his work is always thoughtful challenging and very helpful Rob always seeks to be thoroughly biblical and he's never one to duck the tough questions or offer easy platitudes I thoroughly recommend this volume as one which will help you significantly in your life and ministry Rev d Ted Fell Vicar of All Saints Anglican Church Kings Cross London
