and communicating with all its uncertainties and open endedness She draws particularly on ideas from the relational turn in philosophy on pragmatism on social constructionism and on a communication perspective Using a relational communication framework Robyn Penman shows how it is possible to pick up the threads of recent critiques and reform proposals in the justice literature and transform them into something so much better In doing so she develops a rich grammar including concepts such as relational responsivity and responsibility to account for the dynamics of making justice She also offers new insights and possibilities towards acting justly in an ongoing co created process Controversies in Critical Criminology Martin Schwartz, Suzanne E.
