Relationship Solitude:

Letting Go Dudley D. Cahn, 1987-01-01 While many books in the popular press deal with relationships Letting Go is among the first to draw upon scholarly research to offer a theoretical perspective with practical implications Cahn examines interpersonal relationship disengagement and reengagement by tapping the resources of social science literature The result is a model for communication which seeks to achieve and maintain interpersonal understanding while promoting communication behaviors that encourage growth of the individual and relationship satisfaction The author's integrated approach combines three models of relationship development namely quality communication recognition and availability of more desirable alternatives and degree of personal investments He also surveys the literature on friendship mateship supervisor and subordinate relationships and teacher student relationships and demonstrates that a quality communication environment as measured by the Perceived Understanding Instrument is crucial for understanding relationship disengagement and reengagement

A Companion to Martin Buber Paul Mendes-Flohr, 2025-06-25 A definitive international guide to the thought of the most important twentieth century Jewish philosopher In his 1923 essay I and Thou the philosopher theologian and activist Martin Buber introduced a philosophy of dialogue that achieved a global interdisciplinary resonance For Buber dialogue was more than a conversation dialogue discloses something essential about our orientation and our lives with one another This companion assembles twenty six scholars from a dozen countries to explore Buber s international reputation and legacy in education interfaith relations Judaism philosophy politics and psychology The result is an essential guide to one of the most influential Jewish thinkers of the twentieth century Relationships in Adolescence John C. Coleman, 2022-12-29 Based on the study of a large number of young people ranging in age from eleven to seventeen Relationships in Adolescence originally published in 1974 proposes a new model of adolescent development described as the focal model which makes a valuable contribution to the greater understanding of adolescence for all who have contact with this age group The book contains an examination of three different approaches to adolescence an outline of the research project and a discussion of the empirical evidence concerning identity and self image heterosexual and parental relationships and large group situations Comparisons are made between age levels and between boys and girls with respect to the whole range of relationships and the evidence illustrates significant and at times dramatic differences between groups Of particular importance are some of the changes which occur with age such as the degree of conflict with parents and attitudes to sexuality Based on Dr Coleman s findings is his fresh focal model of adolescent development This model stresses the elements of growth and change in adolescence with special emphasis on the normal anxieties and conflicts that occur at different stages of the developmental period Today it can be read and enjoyed in its historical context Evolutionary Love Relationships Andrew Harvey, Chris Saade, 2017-01-17 In this profoundly uplifting book authors and sacred activists Andrew Harvey and Chris Saade call us to the next paradigm in human relations love connections that are solidly grounded in individual authenticity and passionately focused on service and solidarity Rather than limiting their gaze to each other partners are invited to take their focus outward channeling their energies toward those causes that both unite them and transform the world we live in With love as the fuel for inspired action the relationship becomes a homage to sacred purpose finding its deeper meaning in its efforts to positively influence the planet There are many books that invite us to focus on love relationship its perils and delights its shadow and light as the place where meaningful change happens and there are others including some potent ones written by these two authors individually that invite us to unite our individual spiritual paths sacred purpose callings and the like with benevolent action but this is the first book that focuses on the next step the bringing together of sacred activism and love relationship Evolutionary Love Relationships contains a powerful vision that offers humanity a path to coupledness not as a privatized escape or preoccupation but a path to evolve into dedicated activists whose combined purpose is to utilize their resources to help and sustain the planet and which does not forsake but includes the pleasure of personal fulfilment between the bonded pair They can enjoy the fullness of divine human love in the depths of their own personal relationship supporting each other s authenticity but also enjoy it in the ways that those healing depths make them powerful and strong and lucid and vibrant enough to go out into the world and pour their gifts out for the transformation of the planet What is really at stake is this If we continue to have a vision of relationship as purely personal purely private and something that we cultivate only for our own pleasure we will keep feeding the tragic narcissism that is now ravaging the planet on every level The real thrust and purpose and divine importance of relationship is to give us the fuel to take on the world to give us the passion to embrace the causes of justice to give us the energy to keep on pouring ourselves out for the transformation of the planet With a foreword by An Uncommon Bond author Jeff Brown this inspiring book shows us the way to turn our love relationship into a prayer for world transformation And not just a passive prayer but a prayer in action impassioning the world with a bonfire of sacred and benevolent activism that cannot be stopped This prayer may well save us Being-In, Being-For, Being-With Clark E.

International Case Studies in Mental Health Senel Poyrazli,Chalmer E. Thompson,2012-04-30 International Case Studies in Mental Health presents a variety of global cases from both developed and developing countries detailing descriptions of the people who are seeking help to eliminate their distress and of the exceptional practitioners who provide the help In most of the cases the practitioner is someone who shares a similar heritage with her or his help seeker and who is influenced at least partly by Western psychotherapy traditions Each chapter also is a showcase of how scholars pair up with mental health practitioners to create a work that weaves together contextual and individual qualities to inform an understanding of the help seeker and the intervention This book aims to help prepare both mental health trainees and practicing professionals to be effective in the provision of healing in their work with people in different regions of the world Consequently the authors hope to offer practitioners a glimpse of what can be achieved in these regions by people whose reputations within the respective communities are strong Shaping the Journey Daniel Ethan Harris, 2025-08-21 How do the theological impulses of evangelical pietism and contemplative monasticism converge in the modern spiritual formation movement Shaping the Journey brings John Wesley and Thomas Merton into critical dialogue examining their distinct yet complementary contributions to Christian spirituality With Wesleyan evangelicalism as a thesis and Mertonian monasticism as antithesis this study argues that the spiritual formation movement represents a meaningful synthesis of these traditions Central to this synthesis is the work of M Robert Mulholland Jr whose integrative vision of spiritual formation clearly reflects the influences of Wesley and Merton and the evangelical and monastic traditions they represent Engaging history theology and spirituality this work offers a vital resource for understanding the roots and trajectory of Christian spiritual formation
