Ella Fitzgerald J. Wilfred Johnson, 2001-01-10 Ella Fitzgerald was one of America's greatest jazz singers. This volume is as complete a discography of her recorded songs as currently seems possible to compile. This volume also contains a complete discography 1927-1939 for drummer and bandleader Chick Webb with whom Ella began her recording career in 1935. Part One includes a chronological listing of all known recorded performances of both Chick Webb and Ella. Part Two gives the complete contents of Ella's LPs and CDs including track listings, titles with lyricists and composers, and timings. Part Three is an annotated alphabetical listing of all songs contained on all of Fitzgerald's records with detailed information on each song's composer, lyricist, and history. Reviews of the movies in which Ella appeared and surveys of her career with the Decca, Verve, and Pablo music companies are included. The book also has an index of album and CD recordings and composers, lyricists, and musicians. The Exhibitor, 1923. Some issues include separately paged sections: Better management, Physical theatre, extra profits, Review, Servisection.

Rhythms of Love - Jasmuheen's Travel Journal Jasmuheen, 2012-12-06 As a commitment to witness, stimulate, and record humanity's co-creation of paradise on earth, Jasmuheen shares her experiences and insights on this as she travels the globe during 2006 to 2012. From Russia and the Eastern Bloc countries through Europe to the jungles of Colombia and India, Jasmuheen reports on her work with many open-hearted groups that gather with her. In this journal, the reader gains insight on what life is like for someone who is in full-time service with this paradise co-creation agenda. Spending nearly half of each year on the road, living in hotel rooms, airports, and seminar halls, constantly adjusting to continually changing weather patterns all the while being nourished only by prana, Jasmuheen manages to keep herself healthy and happy regardless of the many challenges she faces. For despite all of this, she grows and learns and thoroughly enjoys meeting with all the beautiful, light-filled people that she now constantly meets in this world. Film Year Book, 1938.

Love's Privilege Stella M. Düring, 1909 United States of America V. Love, 1990 The Justus Scrolls Paul David Morris, 2013-03-14 Rejected by God, called to an uncommon path, the eleven apostles cast lots to determine whom the Holy Spirit would pick to replace Judas Iscariot. He must be someone who had been with Jesus the whole time. That left either Joseph bar Sabbas, called Justus or Matthias. The stones were cast, and the lot fell to Matthias. Even so, Justus wouldn't be denied his dream. He had mingled among the disciples for more than three years. He had been close to Jesus, held private conversations with him, and had laughed with him. He'd slept around the same campfires, visited the same homes, and eaten at the same tables. Now Justus would chart a new path. He would reveal everything he knew about his Lord from the viewpoint of a privileged witness. Justus began to write: What was it like to be near Jesus in everyday situations or to see him in action in his greatest moments? Did Jesus have a childhood best friend? How did he relate to his fish-breathed disciples? What did he feel when the crowd cried out for his death? Justus logged all of this in a series of scrolls and began a journey to house the treasure at the great library in Alexandria, Egypt. Perhaps someday they would be seen. Christians Who Counsel Ray S.

Anderson,2010-11-01 How does one view Christian counseling as a calling What is the role and task of the counselor from a theological perspective How does one strip away the ambiguity that is too often inherent in the words therapy and counseling in a religious setting Ray S Anderson has written this book as a theologian with a keen interest in helping Christian counselors fulfill their task more effectively by enabling them to see that task more clearly Too often even counselors who achieve effective results are beset by what Anderson calls an uneasy conscience the realization that for some reason a little transactional analysis once a week works better than a month of Sundays in curing the souls of troubled parishioners This book seeks to put that uneasiness and ambiguity to rest by helping counselors see their work as a means of grace rooted in a model of personhood that is both theologically and psychologically sound for realizing the full potential of each person Christians Who Counsel has three parts involving building a foundation for Christian counseling exploring the spiritual dynamics in counseling and describing counseling in a distinctly Christian mode Written without either theological or psychological jargon this book is for all Christians who counsel whether pastors lay counselors psychotherapists or family therapists With clarity of vision comes the power of a renewed commitment The Pacific Festivals of Aotearoa New Zealand Jared Mackley-Crump,2015-04-30 With a history now stretching back four decades Pacific festivals of Aotearoa assert a multicultural identity of New Zealand and situate the country squarely within a sea of islands In this volume Jared Mackley Crump gives a provocative look at the changing demographics and cultural landscape of a place frequently viewed through a bicultural lens P keh and M ori Taking the post World War II migrations of Pacific peoples to New Zealand as its starting point the story begins in 1972 with the inaugural Polynesian Festival an event that was primarily designed as a M ori festival now known as Te Matatini the largest M ori performing arts event in the world Two major moments of festivalization are considered the birth of Polyfest in 1976 and the inaugural Pasifika Festival of 1993 Both began in Auckland the home of the largest Pacific communities in New Zealand and both have spawned a series of events that follow the models they successfully established While Polyfests focus primarily on the transmission of performance traditions from culture bearers to the young largely New Zealand born generations Pasifika festivals are highly public community events in which diverse displays of material culture are offered up for consumption by both cultural tourists and Pacific communities alike Both models have experienced a significant period of growth since 1993 and here the author presents a thought provoking and wide ranging analysis to explain the phenomenon that has been called a Pacific renaissance Written from an ethnomusicological perspective The Pacific Festivals of Aotearoa New Zealand incorporates lively first person observations as well as interviews with festival organizers performers and other important historical figures The second half of the book delves into the festival space uncovering new meanings about the function and role of music performance and public festivity The author skillfully challenges accounts that label festivals as inauthentic recreations of culture for tourist audiences and gives both observers and participants an uplifting new approach to understand these events as meaningful and symbolic
