Jewitt,1878 The Ancient Human Occupation of Britain Nick Ashton,Simon Lewis,Chris Stringer,2010-11-12 The Ancient Human Occupation of Britain Project AHOB funded by the Leverhulme Trust began in 2001 and brought together researchers from a range of disciplines with the aim of investigating the record of human presence in Britain from the earliest occupation until the end of the last Ice Age about 12 000 years ago Study of changes in climate landscape and biota over the last million years provides the environmental backdrop to understanding human presence and absence together with the development of new technologies This book brings together the multidisciplinary work of the project The chapters present the results of new fieldwork and research on old sites from museum collections using an array of new analytical techniques Features an up to date treatment of the record of human presence in the British Isles during the Palaeolithic period 700 000 10 000 years before present Takes multidisciplinary approach that includes archaeology geochemistry geochronology stratigraphy and sedimentology Coincides with the culmination of the AHOB project in 2010 providing a benchmark statement on the record of human occupation in Britain that can be utilized and tested by future research Annals Of The Coinage Of Great Britain And Its Dependencies; From The Earliest Period Of Authentic History To The Reign Of Victoria Rogers Ruding,1840 A View of the Gold Coin and Coinage of England, from Henry the Third to the Present Time Thomas Snelling,1763 Great Britain and the East ,1925 Abstraction in Post-War British Literature 1945-1980 Natalie Ferris,2022-03-29 In a catalogue note for the

1965 exhibition Between Poetry and Painting at the Institute of Contemporary Arts the poet Edwin Morgan probed the relationship between abstraction and literature Abstract painting can often satisfy but abstract poetry can only exist in inverted commas Language may be fragmented rearranged or distorted abstract in so far as it is withdrawn from a particular system of knowledge but Morgan was of the mind that to be wholly disruptive was to deprive a poem of its point as an object of contemplation Whilst abstract art may have come to fulfil or or fortify an impression of post war taste abstraction in literature continued to be treated with suspicion But how does this speak to the extent to which Britain s literary culture was responsive to progress compared to its artistic culture Abstraction in Post War British Literature 1945 1980 traces a line of literary experimentation in post war British literature that was prompted by the aesthetic philosophical and theoretical demands of abstraction Spanning the period 1945 to 1980 it observes the ways in which certain aesthetic advancements initiated new forms of literary expression to posit a new genealogy of interdisciplinary practice in Britain At a time in which Britain became conscious of its evolving identity within an increasingly globalised context this study accounts for the range of Continental and Transatlantic influences in order to more accurately locate the networks at play Exploring the contributions made by individuals such as Herbert Read Ian Hamilton Finlay and Christine Brooke Rose as well as by groups of practitioners It brings a wide range of previously unexplored archival material into the public domain and offers a comprehensive account of the evolving status of abstraction across cultural institutional and literary contexts

Britain's Historic Ships Paul Brown, 2016-10-06 The British Isles have a long rich and celebrated seafaring history stretching from the earliest times through the victories of Drake and Nelson the voyages of discovery of Cabot and Cook and the defence of the realm by vessels of all types in the present century Much of this history is recorded in literature and in museums but reaches its most tangible form in the large number of historical ships that have been preserved and are continually restored as monuments to a proud past This lavish book explores 20 of the most celebrated and accessible ships and offers a comprehensive history of each vessel s design construction active service and subsequent restoration and preservation Presented in order of each ship s launch date each entry is written by the acknowledged expert on a particular vessel gives full specification details and is sumptuously illustrated with contemporary photographs historical illustrations and a full set of scale plans In addition to the featured entries an appendix presents all of the necessary contact details and opening times where applicable The appendix also lists and provides details for other vessels of historical importance including a small number of working replicas such as the Matthew and the recently commissioned eighteenth century frigate The Grand Turk featured in the recent Hornblower television series Principal vessels include Mary Rose HMS Victory HMS Trincomalee SS Great Britain Cutty Sark RRS Discovery HMS Warrior HMS Belfast HMY Britannia HMS Alliance HMS Cavalier Gypsy Moth IV and HMS Plymouth

The Nouveau Roman and Writing in Britain After Modernism Adam Guy, 2019 This volume explores the influence of the avant garde French novel form known as Nouveau Roman on experimental prose fiction and post war literary culture in Britain

Late Modernism and the Avant-Garde British Novel Julia Jordan, 2020-03-24 In the decades following the immediately postwar period in Britain a loose grouping of experimental writers that included Alan Burns Christine Brooke Rose B S Johnson and Ann Quin worked against the dominance as they saw it of the realist novel of the literary mainstream Late Modernism and the Avant Garde British Novel reassesses the experimentalism versus realism debates of the period and finds a body of work engaged with rather than merely antagonistic towards the literary culture it sought to renovate Charting these engagements it shows how they have significance not just for our understanding of these decades but for the broader movement of the novel through the century This volume takes some of the claims made about experimental fiction that it is unreadable nonlinear elliptical errant plotless and reimagines these descriptors as historically inscribed tendencies that express the period s investment in the idea of the accidental These novels are interested in the fleeting and the fugitive in discontinuity and shock The experimental novel cultivates an interest in methods of representation that are oblique attempting to conjure the world at an angle or in the rear view mirror by ellipsis or evasion These concepts error indeterminacy uncertainty accident all bear a relation to that which evades or resists interpretation and meaning Asking what are the wider political ethical and philosophical correlates of this incommensurability Late Modernism and the Avant Garde British Novel reads experimental literature in this light as suffused with anxiety about its adequacy in the light of its status as necessarily imitative and derivative and therefore redolent of the forms of not knowing and uncertainty that mark late modernism more generally The London Philatelist ,1904

Fertility, Class and Gender in Britain, 1860-1940 Simon Szreter,2002-07-25 This book offers an original interpretation of the history of falling fertilities in Britain between 1860 and 1940 It integrates the approaches of the social sciences and of demographic feminist and labour history with intellectual social and political history It exposes the conceptual and statistical inadequacies of the orthodox picture of a national unitary class differential fertility decline and presents an entirely new analysis of the famous 1911 fertility census of England and Wales Surprising and important findings emerge concerning the principal methods of birth control births were spaced from early on in marriage and sexual abstinence by married couples was a far more significant practice than previously imagined The author presents a new general approach to the study of fertility change raising central issues concerning the relationship between history and social science
