Mama Rose's Turn Carolyn Quinn, 2013-10-11 Hers is the show business saga you think you already know but you ain't seen nothin' yet Rose Thompson Hovick mother of June Havoc and Gypsy Rose Lee went down in theatrical history as The Stage Mother from Hell after her immortalization on Broadway in Gypsy A Musical Fable Yet the musical was 75 percent fictionalized by playwright Arthur Laurents and condensed for the stage Rose's full story is even more striking Born fearless on the North Dakota prairie in 1891 Rose Thompson had a kind father and a gallivanting mother who sold lacy finery to prostitutes She became an unhappy teenage bride whose marriage yielded two entrancing daughters Louise and June When June was discovered to be a child prodigy in ballet capable of dancing en pointe by the age of three Rose without benefit of any theatrical training set out to create onstage opportunities for her magical baby girl and succeeded Rose followed her own star and created two more in dramatic and colorful style Baby June became a child headliner in vaudeville and Louise grew up to be the well known burlesque star Gypsy Rose Lee The rest of Mama Rose's remarkable story included love affairs with both men and women the operation of a lesbian pick up joint where she sold homemade bathtub gin wild attempts to extort money from Gypsy and June two stints as a chicken farmer and three allegations of cold blooded murder all of which was deemed unfit for the script of Gypsy Here at last is the rollicking wild saga that never made it to the stage Demon

Shot/Countershot Lucy Fischer, 2014-07-14 Do films made by women comprise a counter cinema radically different from the dominant tradition Feminist film critics contend that women filmmakers do present from a distinctive vision or countershot and Lucy Fischer argues persuasively for this view In rich detail this book relates the idea of a counter cinema to theories of intertextuality and locates it in the broad context of recent feminist film literary and art criticism Fischer also employs an original critical model of the dialogue between women's cinema and film tradition in the very organization of the book Each chapter discusses a theme or genre such as the musical the double the myth of womanhood and the figure of the actress counterposing two or more works from the feminist and from the dominant cinema What emerges is a fascinating picture of a women s film tradition that not only addresses but reworks and remakes the mainstream cinema Fischer successfully combines two main strains of feminist criticism the deconstructive critique of the dominant culture from a feminist standpoint and the study of a feminist counterculture Examining films from Persona and The Lady from Shanghai to Girlfriends and Sisters or the Balance of Happiness the book offers fresh interpretations of individual works and can incidentally serve as an introduction to the field of feminist film criticism Originally published in 1989 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
