Rosemary Sage And The Man In Black:

Rosemary Sage And the Man in Black G. L. Pritchard, 2005-09-01 Rosemary and Rachel embark upon a trip around the world They discover there is an evil wizard lurking around the mortal world Who is this wizard and where did he come from This wizard seeks Rosemary for a bride But she is trying to stop him from destroying the mortal world as well as the realm Rosemary has visions of this Man in Black the mysterious black magic wizard who is terrorizing the world These visions begin to come true The first vision is of her brothers wedding And the next vision if it comes true will devastate the realm to its core Will Rosemary find the Man in Black in time to stop his terrible rampage Stay tuned to the continuing saga of Rosemary Sage Can she continue her journey to discover magical creatures and still save her two worlds Egyptian Secrets and On Union with God Saint Magnus Albertus, If a Human Being or Beast is attacked by Evil Spirits how to restore him and make him well again Thou arch sorcerer thou has attacked N N let that witchcraft recede from him into thy marrow and into thy bone let it be returned unto thee I exorcise thee for the sake of the five wounds of Jesus thou evil spirit and conjure thee for the five wounds of Jesus of this flesh marrow and bone I exorcise thee for the sake of the five wounds of Jesus at this very hour restore to health again N N in the name of God the Father God the Son and of God the Holy Spirit Three times If a Man or Beast is attacked by Wicked People and how to banish them forever from the House so that they may never be able to do any Harm Bedgoblin and all ye evil spirits I forbid you my bedstead my couch I forbid you in the name of God my house and home I forbid you in the name of the Holy Trinity my blood and flesh my body and soul I forbid you all the nail holes in my house and home till you have traveled over every hillock waded through every water have counted all the leaflets of the trees and counted all the starlets in the sky until that beloved day arrives when the mother of God will bring forth her second Son This formula three times spoken in the house of the person whom we seek to aid always adding in the right place both his baptismal and other names has been found excellent in many hundred cases I have felt moved to write a few last thoughts describing as far as one may in this waiting time of our exile and pilgrimage the entire separation of the soul from all earthly things and its close unfettered union with God I have been the more urged to this because Christian perfection has no other end but charity which unites us to God This union of charity is essential for salvation since it consists in the practice of the precepts and in conformity to the Divine will Hence it separates us from whatever would war against the essence and habit of charity such as mortal sin But religious the more easily to attain to God their last end have gone beyond this and have bound themselves by vow to evangelical perfection to that which is voluntary and of counsel With the help of these vows they cut off all that might impede the fervour of their love or hinder them in their flight to God They have therefore by the vow of their religious profession renounced all things whether pertaining to soul or body God is in truth a Spirit and they that adore Him must adore Him in spirit and in truth that is with a knowledge and love an intelligence and will purified from every phantom of earth Hence it is written When thou shalt pray enter into thy chamber i e into the inmost abode of thy heart and having shut the door of thy senses with a pure heart a free conscience and an unfeigned faith pray to thy Father in spirit and in truth in the secret of thy soul Then only will a man attain to this ideal when he has despoiled and stripped himself of all else when wholly recollected within himself he has hidden from and forgotten the whole world that he may abide in silence in the presence of Jesus Christ There in solitude of soul with loving confidence he makes known his desires to God With all the intensity of his love he pours forth his heart before Him in sincerity and truth until he loses himself in God Then is his heart enlarged inflamed and melted in him yea even in its inmost depths Whosoever thou art who longest to enter upon this happy state or seekest to direct thither thy steps thus it behoveth thee to act First close as it were thine eyes and bar the doors of thy senses Suffer not anything to entangle thy soul nor permit any care or trouble to penetrate within it Shake off all earthly things counting them useless noxious and hurtful to thee When thou hast done this enter wholly within thyself and fix thy gaze upon thy wounded Jesus and upon Him alone Strive with all thy powers unwearingly to reach God through Himself that is through God made Man that thou mayest attain to the knowledge of His Divinity through the wounds of His Sacred Humanity In all simplicity and confidence abandon thyself and whatever concerns thee without reserve to God s unfailing Providence according to the teaching of St Peter Casting all your care upon Him Who can do all things And again it is written Be nothing solicitous Cast thy care upon the Lord and He shall sustain thee It is good for me to adhere to my God I set the Lord always in my sight I found Him Whom my soul loveth and Now all good things came to me together with Him This is the hidden and heavenly treasure the precious pearl which is to be preferred before all This it is that we must seek with humble confidence and untiring effort yet in silence and peace It must be sought with a brave heart even though its price be the loss of bodily comfort of esteem and of honour Lacking this what doth it profit a religious if he gain the whole world and suffer the loss of his own soul Of what value are the religious state the holiness of our profession the shaven head the outward signs of a life of abnegation if we lack the spirit of humility and truth in which Christ dwells by faith and love St Luke says The kingdom of God that is Christ is within you

Black Boys Apart Freeden Blume Oeur,2018-08-07 How neoliberalism and the politics of respectability are transforming African American manhood While single sex public schools face much criticism many Black communities see in them a great promise that they can remedy a crisis for their young men Black Boys Apart reveals triumphs hope and heartbreak at two all male schools a public high school and a charter high school drawing on Freeden Blume Oeur's ethnographic work We meet young men who felt their schools empowered and emasculated them parents who were frustrated with co ed schools teachers who helped pave the road to college and administrators who saw in Black male academies the advantages of privatizing education While the two schools have distinctive histories and ultimately charted different paths they were both shaped by the convergence of neoliberal ideologies and a politics of Black respectability As Blume Oeur reveals all boys education is less a school reform initiative and instead joins a legacy of efforts to reform Black manhood during periods of stark racial inequality Black male academies join long standing attempts to achieve racial uplift in Black communities but in ways that elevate exceptional young men and aggravate divisions within those communities Black Boys Apart shows all boys schools to be an odd mix of democratic empowerment and market imperatives racial segregation and intentional sex separation strict discipline and loving care Challenging narratives that endorse these schools for nurturing individual resilience in young Black men this perceptive and penetrating ethnography argues for a holistic approach in which Black communities and their allies promote a collective resilience
