Security Challenges In The Mediterranean Region:

Security Challenges in the Mediterranean Region Roberto Aliboni, Tim Niblock, 1996 This book sets out to identify the challenges to western security emerging from the Mediterranean area      Troubled Waters James Black, 2017 New challenges are reshaping the international order requiring government leaders to consider new strategies and tools that integrate diplomatic economic and military instruments of power Nowhere is this more evident than around the Mediterranean Sea which has progressively returned as a region of global strategic interest where political tensions armed conflict economic and social instability and transnational criminal networks demand solutions that cross traditional institutional boundaries of domestic and international policy making The geo political situation on the southern coast of the Mediterranean has radically changed and new challenges have emerged for the European Union United States and beyond Long lasting issues such as the Israeli Palestinian conflict or the tensions between Turkey and Greece continue to be present but new destabilising factors have emerged in the region following the Arab spring of 2011 The US EU and NATO continue to maintain a significant military presence in and around the Mediterranean but military capabilities must be nested within a whole of government international approach The challenges in this region demand unprecedented levels of civil military and intergovernmental cooperation In this context RAND established the Mediterranean Foresight Forum MFF in 2015 to support the development of comprehensive integrated civil military responses to complex regional challenges through an innovative combination of research scenario based sensitivity analysis and strategic level exercises Publisher s web site

Troubled Waters James Black, 2017 New challenges are reshaping the international order requiring government leaders to consider new strategies and tools that integrate diplomatic economic and military instruments of power Nowhere is this more evident than around the Mediterranean Sea which has progressively returned as a region of global strategic interest where political tensions armed conflict economic and social instability and transnational criminal networks demand solutions that cross traditional institutional boundaries of domestic and international policy making The geo political situation on the southern coast of the Mediterranean has radically changed and new challenges have emerged for the European Union United States and beyond Long lasting issues such as the Israeli Palestinian conflict or the tensions between Turkey and Greece continue to be present but new destabilising factors have emerged in the region following the Arab spring of 2011 The US EU and NATO continue to maintain a significant military presence in and around the Mediterranean but military capabilities must be nested within a whole of government international approach The challenges in this region demand unprecedented levels of civil military and intergovernmental cooperation In this context RAND established the Mediterranean Foresight Forum MFF in 2015 to support the development of comprehensive integrated civil military responses to complex regional challenges through an innovative combination of research scenario based sensitivity analysis and strategic level exercises Publisher s web site      Security Challenges in the Euro-Med Area in the 21st Century Stephen C. Calleya, 2012 This book provides an empirical analysis of security challenges in the Euro Mediterranean area and highlights the political military economic societal and environmental issues that are already serving as a source of instability in the region

Euro-Mediterranean Security: A Search for Partnership Sven Biscop, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2003 This work provides a clearer understanding of the EU's approach towards security in the Mediterranean After examining the EU's interests and the potential threats to security in the region it analyzes EU security policy towards the region as a whole through the Euro Mediterranean Partnership and towards all disputes and conflicts in the area It recommends opening up the European Security and Defence Policy to Mediterranean participation in order to establish a deep and equitable security partnership between both shores The book argues that this way the EU could implement its innovative comprehensive and co operative approach to security Rather than focusing on the military aspect alone this approach takes into account all dimensions of security political socio economic cultural and ecological and is based on partnership rather than confrontation It therefore contrasts quite sharply with the policies advocated in the US National Security Strategy

The Greek-Turkish Relationship and NATO Dr Fotios Moustakis, 2004-11-23 This publication shows that the Eastern Mediterranean having been transformed from a region of secondary importance during the Cold War to one of greater importance for the western interests in the post Cold War era is in a state of flux Despite sporadic periods of rapprochement tensions between Greece and Turkey still exist Therefore one must question the grounds behind the lack of normal relations that exist between these two NATO members and its effects on the NATO organisation as a whole Hence this volume has two purposes first to examine Greek and Turkish foreign security and defence policies during and after the post Cold War period and second to investigate why these policies have been formulated

Strengthening Maritime Security Through Cooperation I. Chapsos, C. Kitchen, 2015-07-30 Seventy percent of our planet is covered by water and even in today's world of instant communication the global community is still heavily reliant on sea based transport The maritime domain has always been one of NATO's key strengths but concerns about maritime security have taken on renewed importance in recent years and NATO has been forced to re examine some of its fundamental assumptions about the post Cold War security environment This book shares some of the research debates and findings from a NATO Advanced Research Workshop ARW Building Trust to Enhance Maritime Security held in Geneva Switzerland in November 2014 The chapters in the book deal extensively with lessons learned by NATO from a wide range of policies operations and situations This maritime experience has been amassed from the Atlantic and Mediterranean to the Baltic and the Black Sea and even into the Indian Ocean as well as from the four decades spent defending NATO allies on the high seas during the Cold War The single most profound lesson learned over the years has concerned the importance of efficient coordination Structures and mechanisms have been created not least in recent counter piracy operations which enable a vast array of actors to work together in an efficient way and which could prove invaluable in future efforts to counter terrorism and aggression worldwide The safety of the maritime domain is essential to the freedom and security of all nations and this book will be of interest to all those whose work involves maintaining that freedom and security      Coping with Global Environmental Change, Disasters and Security Hans Günter Brauch, Úrsula Oswald Spring, Czesław Mesjasz, John Grin, Patricia Kameri-Mbote, Béchir Chourou, Pál Dunay, Joern Birkmann, 2011-02-03 Coping with Global Environmental Change Disasters and Security Threats Challenges Vulnerabilities and Risks reviews conceptual debates and case studies focusing on disasters and security threats challenges vulnerabilities and risks in Europe the Mediterranean and other regions It discusses social science concepts of vulnerability and risks global regional and national security challenges global warming floods desertification and drought as environmental security challenges water and food security challenges and vulnerabilities vulnerability mapping of environmental security challenges and risks contributions of remote sensing to the recognition of security risks mainstreaming early warning of conflicts and hazards and provides conceptual and policy conclusions      The security dimensions of EU enlargement David Brown, Alistair Shepherd, 2021-06-15 The changing nature of security the enlargement of European institutions and the evolving functions of the EU have been key developments in post Cold War Europe This book blends these three crucial developments in a sophisticated and illuminating manner It assesses the impact of EU enlargement on both pre existing security arrangements and key relationships with the EU's new partners and neighbours It also investigates both hard and soft and internal and external security issues ranging from military intervention to terrorism and from organised crime to human rights From this it concludes that enlargement has both positive and negative implications for European security Completing the analysis this study examines the evolving security relationships with key states regions and international organisations in the EU's neighbourhood The examination of relations with Turkey Russia Ukraine the Greater Middle East and the Balkans provides a sense of the direction in which European security politics is moving      The European Union in the Security of Europe Steve Marsh, Wyn Rees, 2012-03-12 This book examines the European Union's contribution to providing security in Europe amidst an increasingly complex and challenging environment In this new and comprehensive guide to the EU's role in security since the end of the Cold War the authors offer an explanation of EU internal and external security regimes and argue that the Union has become an important exporter of security within its region However the Union's rhetorical ambitions and commitments continue to outstrip its capabilities and it lacks both a common conceptualisation of security and a meaningful shared strategic culture Drawing extensively on primary sources the book examines the Union's relations with the US and Russia in a time of shifting geostrategic calculations and priorities With the EU capacity for enlargement slowing this text presents a detailed assessment of EU security policies towards Central Europe the Mediterranean the Western Balkans Eastern Europe and South Caucasus European Union Security will be of interest to students and scholars of the EU security studies and international relations      European Security Thomas Jäger, Gerhard Kümmel, 2016-07-27 The authors of this collection combine different national and institutional perspectives They cover a broad range of subjects new threats to Europe's security the advantages and disadvantages of the present security architecture in Europe the problem of nuclear weapons and their control the options for enlargement and partnership for peace the shifts in Europeans public opinion about security matters and the prospects for a European defence industry This collection provides an incomparable synthesis of some of the most crucial problems for the emergence of Europe as an independent actor in international politics

EU Development Policy in a Changing World Andrew Mold, 2007 On many fronts European Union development policy is at a critical juncture in the face of new obstacles the EU has been forced to rethink trade security and its relationship with neighbors in North Africa and the Middle East Contentious questions have centered on the effects of EU expansion agricultural protectionism and development friendly trade policy in the EU and its member nations To answer these questions and others this expertly edited volume draws on analysis from well known specialists in fields such as public policy and economic development providing a critical overview of EU development policy and the challenges it must confront in an increasingly volatile and changing world

Communitarian International Relations Emanuel Adler, 2005 Emanuel Adler is one of the leading IR theorists of his generation This volume brings together a collection of his articles including four new and previously unpublished chapters

Transnational Islam and Regional Security Frederic Volpi, 2013-09-13 This volume investigates the impact of a new brand of transnational terrorism and political violence produced by radical Islamist groups from the Maghreb on the regional security dynamics It describes the causes of the problems and the strategies devised by European and North African states in order to address it and details the successes and failures of co operation between states and society on both shores of the Mediterranean Investigating the grand security strategies that have been devised for the Mediterranean after the Cold War and after 9 11 the contributors focus on the role of police and military apparati in securitizing the new threats that have become prominent after 9 11 and the unintended consequences of these strategies In addition the contributors analyze the relationship between Islamist groups the state and society and highlight some key causes of political violence and radicalism They outline how a better use of the law migration and intercultural dialogue might provide useful alternatives or complements to the mostly securitarian strategies that are currently dominant in the region

Non-Traditional Security Challenges in Asia Shebonti Ray Dadwal, Uttam Kumar Sinha, 2017-07-05 Asia is challenged by a number of non traditional security issues including the foodenergywater nexus climate change transnational crime terrorism disaster relief and economic performance This volume categorizes and clarifies some key emerging issues in the area and looks at their interconnectedness and implications The essays explore how non traditional issues can manifest as security challenges and the role of the state and military in dealing with these Issue based and area specific they rely on facts and interpretation of data avoiding alarmist predictions A nuanced and analytical approach into an uncharted area this book will be essential for policymakers researchers and students of security and strategic studies foreign policy sociology and political economy as well as the general readers

Landscape Sciences for the Assessment of Environmental Security Irene Petrosillo, Felix Müller, K. Bruce Jones, Giovanni Zurlini, Kinga Krauze, Sergey Victorov, Bai-Lian Li, William G. Kepner, 2007-10-24 This book examines environmental security from the perspective of landscape sciences identifying the forces that threaten environmental security at all levels It stems from the last five years of the Pilot Study Project on Use of Landscape Sciences for Environmental Assessment sponsored by the NATO Committee on the Challenges of Modern Society Readers explore concepts of environmental security from subjective and objective perspectives Adapting the EU's Approach to Today's Security Challenges - the Review of the 2003 European Security Strategy Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords. European Union Committee, 2008 The EU's 2003 European Security Strategy ESS was a milestone document representing the collective thinking of the EU member states on the challenges and security threats facing them at the beginning of the 21st century This report aims to contribute to the review of the ESS currently underway in the EU which is scheduled to be discussed at the December 2008 European Council The Committee assesses the strategy and its implementation and the changes in the international security environment since 2003 and makes a number of recommendations Climate Change, Human Security and Violent Conflict Jürgen Scheffran, Michael Brzoska, Hans Günter Brauch, Peter Michael Link, Janpeter Schilling, 2012-05-26 Severe droughts damaging floods and mass migration Climate change is becoming a focal point for security and conflict research and a challenge for the world's governance structures But how severe are the security risks and conflict potentials of climate change Could global warming trigger a sequence of events leading to economic decline social unrest and political instability What are the causal relationships between resource scarcity and violent conflict This book brings together international experts to explore these questions using in depth case studies from around the world Furthermore the authors discuss strategies institutions and cooperative approaches to stabilize the climate society interaction Security and Environment in the Mediterranean Hans Günter Brauch, 2003 In this volume security specialists peace researchers environmental scholars demographers as well as climate desertification water food and urbanisation specialists from the Middle East and North Africa Europe and North America review security and conflict prevention in the Mediterranean They also analyse NATO's Mediterranean security dialogue and offer conceptualisations on security and perceptions of security challenges as seen in North and South The latter half of the book analyses environmental security and conflicts in the Mediterranean and environmental consequences of World War II the Gulf War the Balkan wars and the Middle East conflict It also examines factors of global environmental change population growth climate change desertification water scarcity food and urbanisation issues as well as natural disasters Furthermore it draws conceptual conclusions for a fourth phase of research on human and environmental security and peace as well as policy conclusions for cooperation and partnership in the Mediterranean in the 21st century Energy Security Challenges for the 21st Century Gal Luft, Anne Korin, 2009-08-10 The impact of energy on global security and economy is clear and profound and this is why in recent years energy security has become a source of concern to most countries. However, energy security means different things to different countries based on their geographic location, their endowment of resources, their strategic and economic conditions. In this book, Gal Luft and Anne Korin, with the help of twenty leading experts, provide an overview of the world's energy system and its vulnerabilities that underlay growing concern over energy security. It hosts a debate about the feasibility of resource conflicts and covers issues such as the threat of terrorism to the global energy system, maritime security, the role of multinationals and non-state actors in energy security, the pathways to energy security through diversification of sources and the development of alternative energy sources. It delves into the various approaches selected producers, consumers, and transit states have toward energy security and examines the domestic and foreign policy tradeoffs required to ensure safe and affordable energy supply. The book explains the various pathways to energy security and the tradeoffs among them and demonstrates how all these factors can be integrated in a larger foreign and domestic policy framework. It also explores the future of nuclear power, the complex relations between energy security and environmental concerns, and the role for decentralized energy as a way to enhance energy security.
