From Deterrence to Engagement Terence Roehrig, 2006-01-01 From Deterrence to Engagement provides a comprehensive examination of the U S South Korea defense relationship from 1945 to the present Using deterrence theory as its framework this work explores the evolving nature of U S interests in a region that became a focal point only after the North Korean invasion in 1950 Author Terence Roehrig addresses the changing nature of the threats to U S interests in Korea especially North Korea s buildup and its efforts to acquire nuclear weapons and examines specific measures utilized by the United States to implement its deterrence policy While U S policy regarding Korea has changed over the years this timely and important work argues that although the U S commitment to protect its ally has been credible and effective the same cannot be said for its attempts to prevent North Korean nuclear proliferation From Deterrence to Engagement is certain to find an audience amongst scholars of defense policy national security and Korean security relations The Second Indochina War William S. Turley,2008-10-17 Now in a thoroughly revised and updated edition this classic history of the Vietnam War as seen by all participants takes into account the wealth of research and writing on the war since the book's original publication more than two decades ago Leading scholar William S Turley combines original research thorough knowledge of the literature his own insight from many trips to Vietnam during and since the war and sound interpretation into a succinct and well crafted analysis that provides balanced treatment of the Vietnamese Lao Khmer and American dimensions of the war Southeast Asia (Routledge Revivals) Jonathan Rigg,2013-09-13 Southeast Asia A Region in Transition first published in 1991 is a contemporary human geography of the market economies of the region usually defined by membership of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN Organized thematically the chapters deal with the environment and development plural societies agrarian change and urbanization This thematic approach provides a comprehensive picture of the ASEAN countries and gives a depth of coverage often lacking in other regional geographies With a detailed introduction dealing with the physical environment and history of the region this work will be of great value to students studying the human geography of Southeast Asia as well as those with a more general interest in the issues and developments affecting the ASEAN region Australia and the Pacific Islands ,1989 Thailand and the Southeast Asian Networks of The Vietnamese Revolution, 1885-1954 Christopher E. Goscha,2013-09-05 Christopher Goscha resituates the Vietnamese revolution and war against the French into its Asian context Breaking with nationalist and colonial historiographies which have largely locked Vietnam into Indochinese or Nation state straightjackets Goscha takes Thailand as his point of departure for exploring how the Vietnamese revolution was intimately linked to Asia between the birth of the Save the King Movement in 1885 and the Battle of Dien Bien Phu in 1954 But his study is more than just a political history Goscha brings geography to bear on his subject with a passion While he considers the little known political movements of such well known faces as Phan Boi Chau and Ho Chi Minh across Southeast Asia the author takes us into the complex Asian networks stretching from northeastern Thailand and the port of Bangkok to southern China and Hong Kong and beyond There we see how Ho and Chau drew upon an invisible army of Vietnamese and Chinese traders criminals prostitutes sailors and above all the thousands of emigres living in Vietnamese communities in Thailand Domestic Political Change and Grand Strategy National Bureau of Asian Research (U.S.),2007 Based upon work supported by the Department of Energy National Nuclear Security Administration under Award Number DE FG52 03SF22724 AccessAsia ,1996 The GCC and the Development of ASEAN Julius Caesar Parreñas,1998-11-24 The Security Cooperation in the Pacific Islands Joanne Wallis, Henrietta McNeill, James Batley, Anna Powles, 2025-03-20 Wallis McNeill Batley Powles and the contributors examine the dynamics of Pacific Islands security cooperation analysing how it helps address regional security challenges amid the broader strategic competition between China and the United States that is increasingly playing out in the region Pacific Island countries do not want to become pawns in this competition but its impacts are inescapable and are creating additional security challenges Compounding these effects are climate change and COVID 19 both of which have intersected with existing traditional and non traditional security challenges facing the region In response Pacific Island leaders have vowed to pursue greater security cooperation amongst themselves and with partner states This book addresses partner states interests in the region how these interests and Pacific priorities align and if not what the possible consequences may be It also analyses successful areas of security cooperation and tackles how challenges may be improved Incorporating a range of perspectives from key leaders practitioners and scholars this is an empirically grounded analysis of security cooperation within the Pacific Islands region and by the region s major partners A vital resource for researchers and practitioners seeking to better understand Pacific Islands security collaboration and the inherent challenges it faces The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
