Seductive Surrender:

Seduction, Surrender, and Transformation Karen J. Maroda, 2013-06-17 Seduction Surrender and Transformation demonstrates how interpersonal psychoanalysis obliges analysts to engage their patients with genuine emotional responsiveness so that not only the patient but the analyst too is open to ongoing transformation through the analytic experience. In so doing the analyst moves from the position of an interpreting observer to that of an active participant and facilitator whose affective communications enable the patient to acquire basic self trust along with self knowledge. Drawing on the current literature on affect Maroda argues that psychological change occurs through affect laden interpersonal processes. Given that most patients in psychotherapy have problems with affect management the completing of cycles of affective communication between therapist and patient becomes a vitally important aspect of the therapeutic enterprise. Through emotionally open responses to their patients and careful use of patient prompted self disclosures analysts can facilitate affect regulation responsibly and constructively with the emphasis always remaining on the patient's experience. Moments of mutual surrender the honest emotional giving over of patient to analyst and analyst to patient epitomize the emotionally intense interpersonal experiences that lead to enduring intrapsychic change. Maroda's work is profoundly personal. She does not hesitate to share with the reader how her own personality affects her thinking and her work. Indeed she believes her theoretical and clinical preferences are emblematic of the way in which the analyst's subjectivity necessarily shapes theory choice and practice preferences in general. Seduction Surrender and Transformation is not only a powerful brief for emotional honesty in the analytic relationship but also a model of the personal openness that according to Maroda psychoanalysis demands of all its practitioners. Hot Surrender Charlotte Lamb, 2011-07-15 An Undeniable Attraction

Zoe was enraged by Connel Hillier's arrogance. He'd been direct, demanding, and had even invited himself to her home. Well, other women might simmer over his brooding good looks but not Zoe. Who was she trying to fool? Connel had the monopoly on sex appeal and Zoe couldn't deny their attraction to one another no matter how hard she tried. She couldn't handle this man in her life; her feelings were too intense. But Connel always got what he wanted and this time he was asking for Zoe's passionate surrender. Seductive Surrender Kathryn Hockett, 1991 Hot Moves Kristin Hardy, 2007-02-01 Thea Mitchell has everything almost. On the dance floor the gorgeous model turned dance instructor abandons herself to the sensuous throb of the tango and her imagination. But reality's a different matter. A disastrous affair has left her with cold feet in the bedroom and no juicy tidbits about her love life to serve up to her worried Supper Club friends. Until Brady McMillan tempts her to believe that the perfect partner really does exist and proves that his moves on and off the dance floor are as hot as she can handle.
