Towns in Decline, AD100-1600 Terry Slater,2017-07-05 Many European towns have experienced loss of population degradation of physical structure and profound economic change at least once since the height of the Roman Empire This volume is an examination of the various causes of these changes the results which flowed from them and the reasons why some urban centres survived revived and eventually flourished again while others failed and died The contributors bring to bear the techniques of history and archaeology the perspectives of economics agronomy medicine architecture and planning geography and law to the study The result is a synthesis which connects the Decline of the Roman Empire to the effects of the Black Death and the economic transformation of Renaissance Florence Inhabited Spaces Nicole Guenther

Discenza,2017-01-18 We tend to think of early medieval people as unsophisticated about geography because their understandings of space and place often differed from ours yet theirs were no less complex Anglo Saxons conceived of themselves as living at the centre of a cosmos that combined order and plenitude two principles in a constant state of tension In Inhabited Spaces Nicole Guenther Discenza examines a variety of Anglo Latin and Old English texts to shed light on Anglo Saxon understandings of space Anglo Saxon models of the universe featured a spherical earth at the centre of a spherical universe ordered by God They sought to shape the universe into knowable places from where the earth stood in the cosmos to the kingdoms of different peoples and to the intimacy of the hall Discenza argues that Anglo Saxon works both construct orderly place and illuminate the limits of human spatial control The Art of the Roman Empire Jaś Elsner,2018-04-27

The passage from Imperial Rome to the era of late antiquity when the Roman Empire underwent a religious conversion to Christianity saw some of the most significant and innovative developments in Western culture This stimulating book investigates the role of the visual arts the great diversity of paintings statues luxury arts and masonry as both reflections and agents of those changes Jas Elsner s ground breaking account discusses both Roman and early Christian art in relation to such issues as power death society acculturation and religion By examining questions of reception viewing and the culture of spectacle alongside the more traditional art historical themes of imperial patronage and stylistic change he presents a fresh and challenging interpretation of an extraordinarily rich cultural crucible in which many fundamental developments of later European art had their origins This second edition includes a new discussion of the Eurasian context of Roman art an updated bibliography and new full colour illustrations
