Selected Chapters From Film History An Introduction:

Doing Digital Film History Sarah-Mai Dang, Tim van der Heijden, Christian Gosvig Olesen, 2024-12-30 How has the digital turn shaped the practices of film historical research and teaching While computational approaches have been used by film historians since the 1960s and 1970s the arrival and use of digital tools and methods in recent decades has fundamentally changed the ways we search analyze interpret present and so think and write about film history from digital archival and curatorial practices data driven search and analysis of film historical collections to the visualization and dissemination of film historical materials online While film historians have increasingly embraced the new possibilities brought by digital technologies their practical epistemological and methodological implications need further exploration What opportunities does the digitization of film historical sources provide for film historians What new questions can be raised by using digital methods What new perspectives emerge from analyzing interpreting and visualizing film historical data at the levels of both close and distant or scalable reading and viewing By focusing on the concepts tools and practices of digital film historiography this edited volume aims to contribute to a better understanding and critical reflection on the changes and continuities of doing film history in the digital age

The Challenge of the Silver Screen Freek L.

Bakker, 2009 In 1897 only two years after the invention of film the first feature film about Jesus appeared This and other films about Jesus became examples for and an inspiration for films on other important religious figures like Rama Buddha and Muhammad Although religious leaders did not always approve of these films they did find a ready audience among believers This book explores these films and looks at how these films dealt with the fundamental question of portraying an individual thought to have either divine status or a very special and unique status among human beings This book will thus benefit not only students of religious film but also those studying the portrayal of central religious figures in the contemporary world

EBOOK: Film Art: An Introduction David Bordwell, 2013-08-16 Film is an art form with a language and an aesthetic all its own Since 1979 David Bordwell and Kristin Thompson's Film Art has been the best selling and most widely respected introduction to the analysis of cinema Taking a skills centered approach supported by examples from many periods and countries the authors help students develop a core set of analytical skills that will enrich their understanding of any film in any genre In depth examples deepen students appreciation for how creative choices by filmmakers affect what viewers experience and how they respond Film Art is generously illustrated with more than 1 000 frame enlargements taken directly from completed films providing concrete illustrations of key concepts
