Selected Lead Articles From The Dawn:

Selected Lead Articles from The Dawn Louisa Lawson, 2022-09-15 In Selected Lead Articles from The Dawn Louisa Lawson offers a powerful anthology that encapsulates the vibrant discourse of the late 19th century feminist movement in Australia. This collection features Lawson's incisive editorial articles characterized by a persuasive yet accessible literary style that engages readers with its blend of rhetorical fervor and keen social critique. Set against the backdrop of a burgeoning suffragette movement, Lawson's writing captures the urgent calls for women's rights and education, shedding light on the socio-political landscapes that shaped early Australian feminist thought. Through her eloquent prose, she not only confronts societal norms but also carves out a space for women's voices in public discourse. Louisa Lawson, a pioneering feminist and journalist, established The Dawn as one of the first women's journals in Australia. Her own experiences as a woman navigating a patriarchal society played a crucial role in her advocacy for women's rights. As a writer and activist, Lawson sought to empower women through education and self-expression. Her literary contributions were not only reflections of her convictions but also crucial tools in the struggle for gender equality during a transformative era. Selected Lead Articles from The Dawn is essential reading for anyone interested in feminist literature, Australian history, or the evolution of women's rights. Lawson's passionate advocacy and eloquent articulation of women's issues remain resonant today, making this collection a vital resource for scholars and general readers alike, illuminating the path toward modern feminist thought.

Xavier Collier, Guillermo Cordero, Antonio M. Jaime-Castillo, 2018-04-27 Selecting candidates for elections is a major goal of political parties and a major function of political regimes in democratic systems. With the negative effects of the economic crisis being seen to translate into changes in voting patterns and citizens using elections to punish parties in government for their roles in economic mismanagement or lack of response to the global economic crisis, a broad examination is required. This book is presented as the first comparative study of the effects of the political crisis on candidate selection, covering a large number of countries. Using an integrated framework and unified strategy, it examines how new relevant political actors are really implementing participative ways of candidate selection, whether they are being innovative in their political environments and the extent to which traditionally mainstream parties are changing selection procedures to have more open and inclusive mechanisms as part of internal or intra party democracy The book illuminates these issues through empirically driven chapters explaining changes in the way candidates for parliaments are selected in countries where new parties have emerged and consolidated or where traditional mainstream parties have adopted new mechanisms of selection affecting if not challenging traditional politics Additionally therefore this work will serve as a response to some current debates in the discipline on the consequences of the democratization of party life relating political participation and representation This text will be of key interest to scholars and students of political parties organizational change social and political elites and more broadly to comparative politics and sociology
