Self Esteem The Key To Your Child's Education:

Self-Esteem Tony Humphreys, 2004-10-15 Tony Humphreys shows convincingly how the development of a child's self-esteem is the cornerstone of their educational, emotional and personal growth. Already translated into six languages.

Self-esteem Tony Humphreys, 1996 Rethinking Pastoral Care Una M Collins, Jean McNiff, 2012-10-12 The issue of pastoral care and how a teacher effectively provides it is currently a topic of great debate in the media. With teachers increasingly bearing the brunt of their pupils' difficult personal lives, they feel under pressure to do the right thing and to do it in an informed and professional manner. This book investigates how teachers can attempt to give good quality pastoral care, whether as a form tutor in the first instance or in a managerial role further along in their development. It uses practical case studies as examples of what can be achieved and explores the theory of this subject, making it the perfect resource for teachers, counsellors and undergraduates on PGCE, BEd and BA courses. Positive Teaching, Positive Learning Rob Barnes, 2002-01-04 Positive Teaching Positive Learning offers teachers and student teachers in training a number of practical strategies for developing and improving teaching and learning. It provides insights into very positive teacher/pupil management and learning, such as ways to increase pupil involvement and give constructive feedback from assessment. The book draws together findings about pupils and teachers' classroom practice and suggests how practical steps can be taken to create a positive attitude towards generating high expectations. It includes quoted material researched over five years through interviews with known effective teachers identified by OFSTED about the teaching strategies they use. Beyond Educational Disadvantage Paul Downes, Ann Louise Gilligan, 2007 The Teacher's Toolkit Paul Ginnis, 2001-07-30 The Teacher's Toolkit provides an overview of recent thinking, innovations in teaching and presents over fifty learning techniques for all subjects and age groups, with dozens of practical ideas for managing group work, tackling behavioural issues and promoting personal responsibility. It also presents tools for checking your teaching skills, from lesson planning to performance management. The Complete Guide to Behaviour for Teaching Assistants and Support Staff Chris Lee, 2010-11-17 By providing a thorough grounding in the theory behind behaviour management, followed by suggestions for successful strategies to use in the classroom, this book gives the reader the confidence to manage the challenging behaviour of children and young people in educational contexts. Written specifically for teaching assistants and support staff, this book covers behaviour, motivation and discipline issues with their specific role and position in mind. Supported by the views and responses of current students on Foundation Degrees and those working towards HLTA status, the book reflects the difficulties, dilemmas and successes of this vital group of people working in today's classrooms. There are three main types of teaching assistant: the discipliner, the negotiator, the counsellor. This book helps the reader to find their own behaviour management style and their own way of working. Useful features include chapter objectives, exercises and activities, case studies, further reading. This book is ideal for those studying on a Foundation Degree, working towards Higher Level Teaching Assistant (HLTA).

Adorno's Shadow Amirhosein Khandizaji, Wolfgang Iser, 2025-06-13. Theodor W. Adorno's legacy as a philosopher, sociologist, musicologist, and critical theorist remains as vital today as it was in his own time. This volume brings together a diverse array of essays that engage deeply with Adorno's work, exploring its enduring power to illuminate the complexities of contemporary life. From the culture industry's grip on digital existence to the commodification of human relationships, the contributors trace Adorno's critiques of modernity to our present moment, demonstrating the ongoing relevance of his thought in an era of rising authoritarianism, ecological collapse, and social fragmentation. Far from being a mere exercise in intellectual history, this collection wrestles with Adorno's most challenging ideas: his negative dialectics, his reflections on education, and his unwavering insistence on the necessity of critique. The essays reveal how Adorno's commitment to human emancipation, tempered by an acute awareness of the forces that obstruct it, offers not just a diagnosis of social pathologies but also a fragile hope for transformation. For scholars, students, and anyone grappling with the urgent questions of justice, freedom, and solidarity, this book is an invitation to think with Adorno, to confront the discomforts of our time, to resist facile consolations, and to sustain the difficult labor of imagining a more humane world. Dinkmeyer, Jr., Carlson Jon, Rebecca E. Michel, 2015-12-22 The methods presented by Don Dinkmeyer Jr Jon Carlson and Rebecca Michel in Consultation are based on the assumption that problems in the home and classroom result not only from the direct actions of disruptive students but also from the expectations of teachers and parents This newly expanded fourth edition continues the tradition of encouraging change in supposed problem children by helping authority figures recognize and alter the part they may play in exacerbating negative behavior New additions include two all new chapters on assessment and mindfulness multicultural and diverse case examples as well as access to online video sessions that accompany the text

Critical Theory, Poststructuralism and 'Nietzsche's Paradox' Nektarios Kastrinakis, 2025-07-18 Critical Theory Poststructuralism and Nietzsche's Paradox addresses a fundamental question in the exchange between Critical Theory and poststructuralism is poststructuralism justified in its critique of dialectical thinking and in the conclusion of this critique that we need to leave dialectics behind us to properly understand the social world When Deleuze's book Nietzsche and Philosophy was first published back in 1962 it caused a sensation in France and its Nietzschean critique of Hegelian dialectics played a pivotal role in the emergence of the current of thought we call poststructuralism However to what extent is this critique valid and justified This question has never been adequately investigated With this book Nektarios Kastrinakis attempts such an investigation through the exploration of the influence of Nietzsche in both Deleuze and Adorno More specifically he investigates a paradox in 20th century philosophy the paradox of Nietzsche Nietzsche is claimed by Deleuze to be a fierce critic of Hegel's dialectics and by authors like Gillian Rose and Karin Bauer to be the originator of Adorno's negative dialectics Kastrinakis argues that there are in fact at least two Nietzsches one with an irrationalistic and one with a rationalistic critique of identity thinking on which both poststructuralism Deleuze and Critical Theory Adorno respectively lay a legitimate claim He moreover enacts the missing in the literature debate between Adorno and Deleuze which concludes that Adorno's critique of identity thinking his negative dialectics when modified to include an affirmative moment at its heart unacknowledged by Adorno himself can effectively challenge Deleuze's Nietzschean critique of dialectics Critical Theory Poststructuralism and Nietzsche's Paradox intervenes in the boundary between political philosophy and philosophy and will be of interest to scholars of Nietzsche Deleuze Adorno but also generally of poststructuralism and Critical Theory in these disciplines
