Muslims in the West Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad,2002-04-11 Today Muslims are the second largest religious group in much of Europe and North America The essays in this collection look both at the impact of the growing Muslim population on Western societies and how Muslims are adapting to life in the West Part I looks at the Muslim diaspora in Europe comprising essays on Britain France Germany Switzerland Norway Sweden Denmark Italy and the Netherlands Part II turns to the Western Hemisphere and Muslims in the U S Canada and Mexico Throughout the authors contend with such questions as Can Muslims retain their faith and identity and at the same time accept and function within the secular and pluralistic traditions of Europe and America What are the limits of Western pluralism Will Muslims come to be fully accepted as fellow citizens with equal rights An excellent guide to the changing landscape of Islam this volume is an indispensable introduction to the experiences of Muslims in the West and the diverse responses of their adopted countries

The Muslims of America Amherst Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad Professor of Islamic History University of Massachusetts,1991-06-13 This collection brings together sixteen previously unpublished essays about the history organization challenges responses outstanding thinkers and future prospects of the Muslim community in the United States and Canada Both Muslims and non Muslims are represented among the contributors who include such leading Islamic scholars as John Esposito Frederick Denny Jane Smith and John Voll Focusing on the manner in which American Muslims adapt their institutions as they become increasingly an indigenous part of America the essays discuss American Muslim self images perceptions of Muslims by non Muslim Americans leading American Muslim intellectuals political activity of Muslims in America Muslims in American prisons Islamic education the status of Muslim women in America and the impact of American foreign policy on Muslims in the United States

Muslim Women in the United Kingdom and Beyond Haifaa Jawad,Tansin Benn,2002-12-01 The book explores ways in which Muslim women are portrayed alongside their experiences of being Muslim and part of a predominantly western culture It engages with Muslim women living predominantly in the United Kingdom with contributions from other countries such as Australia America and Sweden Religious prejudice is a major theme that permeates the book providing empirical evidence of ways in which islamophobia and visible symbols such as the hijab influence life experiences and perceptions of Muslim women negatively Accounts of the impact of discrimination on life chances and opportunities are vivid The book recounts ways in which the women cope in challenging diasporic contexts and concludes with recommendations for positive change The text will be particularly valuable to anyone interested in issues of gender religion and ethnicity including students employers politicians and professionals American Muslim Women, Religious Authority, and Activism Juliane Hammer,2012-04-01

Hammer looks at the work of significant female American Muslim writers scholars and activists since 1990 using their writings as a lens for a larger discussion of Muslim intellectual production in America and beyond Centered on the controversial women led Friday prayer in March 2005 Hammer uses this event and its aftermath to address themes of faith community and public opinion While gender is the catalyst for Hammer s study her examination of these women s intellectual output touches on themes central to contemporary Islam authority tradition Islamic law justice and authenticity The Muslim Community in North America Earle H. Waugh,Baha Abu-Laban,Regula Qureshi,1983 This book consists of fifteen studies addressed to the relatively recent phenomenon of Muslims residing in North America their adaptation to an often alien way of life as well as the problem the larger North American community faces in not only accepting but also benefiting from the existence of this new group Most of the papers were presented at a symposium on Islam in North America held at the University of Alberta from May 27 to 31 1980 In this book the studies are grouped under six major headings Islam and the Modern World Muslims in North America Dynamics of Growth Muslim Immigrant Communities Identity and Adaptation Islam and the Educational Establishment Indigenous Muslims and Statements from within the Tradition It is an excellent introduction to a subject of great interest fraught with problems and needing further in depth research The Cambridge

Companion to American Islam Juliane Hammer,Omid Safi,2013-08-12 This book is a comprehensive introduction to the past and present of American Muslim communities Chapters discuss demographics political participation media cultural and literary production conversion religious practice education mosque building interfaith dialogue and marriage and family as well as American Muslim thought and Sufi communities No comparable volume exists to date Media, Home and Family

Stewart M. Hoover,Lynn Schofield Clark,Diane F. Alters,2012-09-10 Based on extensive fieldwork this book examines how parents make decisions regulating media use and how media practices define contemporary family life Methods in Religion, Spirituality & Aging James W. Ellor,2013-10-18 Since the 1971 White House Conference on Aging in the United States the need to move from religiosity into new areas such as Spiritual Assessment and Spirituality has emerged This movement has picked up momentum among scholars particularly in terms of research in the area of Spirituality While spirituality as a term is employed in many new studies this term continues to defy the quest for a single definition and method This book is divided into three sections In the first the authors reflect on the philosophical and theological issues presented by these terms from a variety of both cognate and practical methodological approaches The second section offers insights from the major professions of sociology psychology public health nursing and social work The final section offers insight and assistance to researchers and authors on specific religious traditions This book will be important for anyone working to develop such practical tools as spiritual assessment forms to those who engage in more formal scholarly investigation

Muslim American City Alisa Perkins, 2020-07-07 Explores how Muslim Americans test the boundaries of American pluralism In 2004 the al Islah Islamic Center in Hamtramck Michigan set off a contentious controversy when it requested permission to use loudspeakers to broadcast the adh n or Islamic call to prayer The issue gained international notoriety when media outlets from around the world flocked to the city to report on what had become a civil battle between religious tolerance and Islamophobic sentiment The Hamtramck council voted unanimously to allow mosques to broadcast the adh n making it one of the few US cities to officially permit it through specific legislation Muslim American City explores how debates over Muslim Americans use of both public and political space have challenged and ultimately reshaped the boundaries of urban belonging Drawing on more than ten years of ethnographic research in Hamtramck which boasts one of the largest concentrations of Muslim residents of any American city Alisa Perkins shows how the Muslim American population has grown and asserted itself in public life She explores for example the efforts of Muslim American women to maintain gender norms in neighborhoods mosques and schools as well as Muslim Americans efforts to organize public responses to municipal initiatives Her in depth fieldwork incorporates the perspectives of both Muslims and non Muslims including Polish Catholics African American Protestants and other city residents Drawing particular attention to Muslim American expressions of religious and cultural identity in civil life particularly in response to discrimination and stereotyping Perkins questions the popular assumption that the religiosity of Muslim minorities hinders their capacity for full citizenship in secular societies She shows how Muslims and non Muslims have through their negotiations over the issues over the use of space together invested Muslim practice with new forms of social capital and challenged nationalist and secularist notions of belonging

Culture, 1992 Encyclopedia of Women and Religion in North America, Set Rosemary Skinner Keller, Rosemary Radford Ruether, Marie Cantlon, 2006-04-19 A fundamental and well illustrated reference collection for anyone interested in the role of women in North American religious life

Children and Childhood in American Religions Don S. Browning, Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore, 2009-02-16 Whether First Communion or bar mitzvah religious traditions play a central role in the lives of many American children In this collection of essays leading scholars reveal for the first time how various religions interpret reconstruct and mediate their traditions to help guide children and their parents in navigating the opportunities and challenges of American life The book examines ten religions among other topics How the Catholic Church confronts the tension between its teachings about children and actual practice The Oglala Lakota s struggle to preserve their spiritual tradition The impact of modernity on Hinduism Only by discussing the unique challenges faced by all religions and their followers can we take the first step toward a greater understanding for all of us Islamic Divorce in North America Julie Macfarlane, 2012-04-30 Policy makers and the public are increasingly attentive to the role of shari a in the everyday lives of Western Muslims with negative associations and public fears growing among their non Muslim neighbors in the United States and Canada The most common way North American Muslims relate to shari a is in their observance of Muslim marriage and divorce rituals recourse to traditional Islamic marriage and to a lesser extent divorce is widespread Julie Macfarlane has conducted hundreds of interviews with Muslim couples as well as with religious and community leaders and family conflict professionals Her book describes how Muslim marriage and divorce processes are used in North America and what they mean to those who embrace them as a part of their religious and cultural identity The picture that emerges is of an idiosyncratic private ordering system that reflects a wide range of attitudes towards contemporary family values and changes in gender roles Some women describe pervasive assumptions about restrictions on their role in the family system as well as pressure to accept these values and to stay married Others of both genders describe the gradual modernization of Islamic family traditions and the subsequent emergence of a Western shari a but a continuing commitment to the rituals of Muslim marriage and divorce in their private lives Readers will be challenged to consider how the secular state should respond in order to find a balance between state commitment to universal norms and formal equality and the protection of religious freedom expressed in private religious and cultural practices Culture ,1992
