Pathway to the Moon Doreen Kerry,2018-02-27 Doreen Kerry s lifelong passion has been to lose herself in the romance of the movies a passion she shared for many years with her late mother Now she has written a memoir in which she imagines herself travelling back with the aid of H G Wells time machine to meet and perform with the stars from Judy Garland to Katharine Hepburn and from Humphrey Bogart to Clark Gable Consider it more a memoir than an autobiography an intimate insight into my feelings and emotions as not portrayed anywhere else times in my life that cannot be rewritten history in the making James Tiptree, Jr. Julie Phillips,2007-06-12 Tiptree burst onto the science fiction scene in the 1970s with hard edged provocative short stories Then the cover was blown the author was actually a 61 year old woman named Alice Sheldon world traveler debutante chicken farmer CIA agent and experimental psychologist Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1979-03 Tale Spin Nickunj Malik,2021-01-01 Some people see things as they are and turn them happily out of shape while retaining the core That is the essence of humour and only a few individuals are blessed with felicity to take everyday situations and give them an extra dimension The Man Who Tasted Words Guy Leschziner,2025-10-16 In The Man Who Tasted Words Guy Leschziner leads readers through the senses and how through them our brain understands or misunderstands the world around us Vision hearing taste smell and touch are what we rely on to perceive the reality of our world Our senses are the conduits that bring us the scent of a freshly brewed cup of coffee or the notes of a favorite song suddenly playing on the radio But are they really that reliable The Man Who Tasted Words shows that what we perceive to be absolute truths of the world around us is actually a complex internal reconstruction by our minds and nervous systems The translation into experiences with conscious meaning the pattern of light and dark on the retina that is transformed into the face of a loved one for instance is a process that is invisible undetected by ourselves and in most cases completely out of our control In The Man Who Tasted Words neurologist Guy Leschziner explores how our nervous systems define our worlds and how we can in fact be victims of falsehoods perpetrated by our own brains In his moving and lyrical chronicles of lives turned upside down by a disruption in one or more of their five senses he introduces readers to extraordinary individuals like one man who actually tasted words and shows us how sensory disruptions like that have played havoc not only with their view of the world but with their relationships as well The cases Leschziner shares in The Man Who Tasted Words are extreme but they are also human and teach us how our lives and what we perceive as reality are both ultimately defined by the complexities of our nervous systems

Escaping Nazi Germany Joachim Schlör, 2020-11-26 Carefully piecing together the personal letters of Alice Liesel Schwab Escaping Nazi Germany tells the important story of one woman's emigration from Heilbronn to England From the decision to leave her family and emigrate alone to gaining her independence as a shop worker and surviving the Blitz to the reunion with her brother and parents in England and shared grief as they learn about the fate of family members who died in the Holocaust her story provides powerful insight into both the everyday realities of German Jewish refugees in Britain and the ability of letters and life writing to create transnational networks during times of trauma and separation Elegantly written and deeply researched Joachim Schlör's emphatic and unflinching retelling of Alice Schwab's life sheds new light on the Jewish experience of persecution during the Holocaust and adds nuances to current debates on emigration memory and identity This book is an essential primary resource for scholars of modern European history and Jewish studies offering a compelling and intimate route into understanding what it meant to be a Jewish refugee caught up in the tragic and tumultuous events of World War II

Friending Rosie Judith Wright Favor, 2021-10-15 In alternating voices Judith Wright Favor and Rosie Alfaro take the reader on a frank frustrating and unforgettable journey Friending Rosie Respect on Death Row bridges the chasm between souls consigned to life behind bars and souls enjoying the privileges of freedom Rosie's letters from Central California Women's Facility interwoven with Judith's reflections and questions highlight perspectives from authors of different races religions and languages Marginalized people stifle their stories when there is no one to hear but mutual listening brings forth accounts of regret doubt humiliation and grace Some stories describe difficult encounters in prison Family members with intimate knowledge of Rosie tell their stories Other tales illustrate surprising parallels in the inner lives of both authors Judith follows the friendly path of Quakers who began in the 1650s to value women's leadership and befriend prisoners Rosie grew up Catholic in a faith tradition that shaped her art and values Both write stories interwoven with social challenges and spiritual practices intended to support readers in reaching out to persons behind bars
