Nuns in Jeopardy Martin Boyd, 1975

Islands, Identity and the Literary Imagination Elizabeth

McMahon, 2016-07-09 Australia is the planet's sole island continent. This book argues that the uniqueness of this geography has shaped Australian history and culture including its literature. Further, it shows how the fluctuating definition of the island continent throws new light on the relationship between islands and continents in the mapping of modernity. The book links the historical and geographical conditions of islands with their potent role in the imaginary of European colonisation. It prises apart the tangled web of geography, fantasy, desire, and writing that has framed the Western understanding of islands, their real and material conditions, and their symbolic resonance from antiquity into globalised modernity. The book also traces how this spatial imaginary has shaped the modern man who is imagined as being the island's natural inhabitant or mirror.

Importantly, the book challenges these habits of thought by their relocation within larger topological and imaginary visions from islanders themselves. Joan Lindsay Brenda Niall, 2025-02-04 One of Australia's foremost biographers examines the life of Joan Lindsay, the author of one of Australia's most enduring novels, Picnic at Hanging Rock.

Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post-colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories. In more than 1,600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars, it explores the effect of the colonial and post-colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide. Martin Boyd

Brenda Niall, 2004-06-15 Martin Boyd was one of the generation whose lives were changed by World War I. He served in a British regiment, survived the trenches in 1916-17, and joined the Royal Flying Corps. The pacifist beliefs which emerged from that war experience are central to his fiction, as they were to his life. Boyd's was a complex personality: witty, generous, sociable, yet deeply reserved. He looked for his home of the spirit in many places: an Anglican monastery, London's West End, clubland, a Cambridge village, and an old family house in Harkaway, Victoria, and among English expatriates in Rome. In a fine study of a man and his work, Brenda Niall re-creates the Melbourne in which Boyd grew up just before World War I and traces his development as a writer during his restless expatriate years. Convents and the Body Politic in Late Renaissance

Venice Jutta Gisela Sperling, 1999 In late sixteenth-century Venice, nearly 60 percent of all patrician women joined convents, and only a minority of these women did so voluntarily. In trying to explain why unprecedented numbers of patrician women did not marry, historians have claimed that dowries became too expensive. However, Jutta Gisela Sperling debunks this myth and argues that the rise of forced vocations happened within the context of aristocratic culture and society. Sperling explains how women were not allowed to marry beneath their social status while men could, especially if their brides were wealthy. Faced with a shortage of suitable partners, patrician women were forced to offer themselves as a gift not only to God but to their fatherland. As Patriarch Giovanni Tiepolo told the Senate of Venice in 1619, noting the declining birth rate among patrician women Sperling explores the paradox of a marriage system that preserved the nobility at the price of its physical extinction And on a more individual level she tells the fascinating stories of these women Some became scholars or advocates of women s rights some took lovers and others escaped only to survive as servants prostitutes or thieves Australian Literary Studies ,1981 The ABC Movie of the Week Michael McKenna,2013-08-22 On September 23 1969 five years after the first made for television movie premiered the ABC network broadcast Seven in Darkness This was the first television film for an anthology show called the Tuesday Night Movie of the Week Dedicating ninety minutes of weekly airtime to a still emerging genre was a financial risk for the third place network a risk that paid off The films were so successful that in 1972 the network debuted The Wednesday Movie of the Week Although most of the movies are no longer remembered a handful are still fondly recalled by viewers today including Duel Brian s Song and The Night Stalker The series also showcased pilot films for many eventual series such as Alias Smith and Jones The Six Million Dollar Man and Starsky and Hutch By the end of both shows regular runs in the spring of 1975 the network had broadcast more than 200 made for television films In The ABC Movie of the Week Big Movies for the Small Screen Michael McKenna examines this programming experiment that transformed the television landscape and became a staple of broadcast programming for several years The author looks at how the revolving films showcased the right mixture of romantic comedy action horror and social relevance to keep viewers interested week after week McKenna also chronicles how the ratings success led to imitations from the other networks resulting in a saturation of television movies As a cultural touchstone for millions who experienced the first run and syndicated versions of these films The ABC Movie of the Week is a worthy subject of study Featuring a complete filmography of all 240 movies with credit information and plot summaries a chronology and a list of pilots both failed and successful this volume will be valuable to television historians and scholars as well as to anyone interested in one of the great triumphs of network programming Of Virgins and Martyrs Barbara Ann Kathe,1998 If Nuns Ruled the World Jo Piazza,2014-09-02 Fascinating profiles of remarkable nuns from an eighty three year old Ironman champion to a crusader against human trafficking Daily News New York In an age of villainy war and inequality it makes sense that we need superheroes writes Nicholas Kristof of The New York Times And after trying Superman Batman and Spider Man we may have found the best superheroes yet Nuns In If Nuns Ruled the World veteran reporter Jo Piazza overthrows the popular perception of nuns as killjoy schoolmarm instead revealing them as the most vigorous catalysts of change in an otherwise repressive society Meet Sister Simone Campbell who traversed the United States challenging a Congressional budget that threatened to severely undermine the well being of poor Americans Sister Megan Rice who is willing to spend the rest of her life in prison if it helps eliminate nuclear weapons and the inimitable Sister Jeannine Gramick who is fighting for acceptance of gays and lesbians in the Catholic Church During a time when American nuns are often under attack from the very institution to which they devote their lives and the values of the institution itself are hotly debated these sisters offer thought
