Nupe Religion Traditional Beliefs And The Influence Of Islam In A West African Chieftdom:

Nupe Religion S. F. Nadel, 2018-09-03 Originally published in 1954 this book is a penetrating study of Nupe religion and the increasing influence that Islam has had on indigenous forms of worship The practise of witchcraft forms of ritual Gods and faith in medicine are all examined as an integral part of Nupe religion and culture Nupe Religion S. F. Nadel, 1954

Nupe Religion Siegfried Ferdinand Nadel, Siegfried Frederick Nadel, 1954 Nupe Religion Siegfried Ferdinand Nadel, 1970 Nupe Religion Siegfried Ferdinand Stephan Nadel, 1970 The Religious Traditions of Africa Elizabeth Isichei, 2004-11-23 This work is a first of its kind historical introduction to the major religions of Africa The vast majorities of Africa's peoples have been Muslim Christian or Traditionalist for a great deal of time making an inclusive study of these religions essential Isichei's work gives equal attention to all three religions and balances the elements of each to construct an easily accessible overview It is also the first book to provide a comprehensive look at the traditional religion in Africa filling the void in the literature on African religious history Written by a pioneering scholar in the African religious experience this volume blends in depth research and personnel accounts to explore the origins and effects of religion in Africa While primarily a work of history this book also incorporates the latest findings while engaging with current issues such as the interface of neo traditional religion and contemporary cultures This work includes four sections each dedicated to a separate religion detailed maps a glossary and a guide to further reading The Individual and Community in African

Traditional Religions Theo Sundermeier, 1998 The writer has done a careful scholarly and sensitive and very positive and fair study of African religion with particular reference to the individual and community Theo Sundermeier lets Africa speak for itself and on its own terms and in its own categories The concluding chapter is a necessary reading for all who would be on mission who would seek to live the ecumenical imperative and care to ensure that the pursuit of a religion does not result in dehumanization and degradation and marginalization of the other person Rev Canon Prof John S Pobee World Council of Churches Geneva Switzerland This book treats the subject of African religions in a creative and interesting way emphasizing that these religions are genuine authentic expressions of religiosity on a par with other religions including the so called world religions The author provides an excellent account of the nature interdependence between individual community society and the natural order an interdependence which these religions symbolize and express in ritual and belief Likewise the essentially personal nature of power as conceived in African culture is thoughtfully and interestingly analysed There are many other thought provoking ideas and interpretations in this volume including the deconstruction of the commonly held notions of the distinction between witchcraft and magic This is a most worthwhile contribution to the study of Africa's traditional religions and I am convinced all those with an interest in Africa who read it will gain much therefrom Professor Peter B Clarke Professor of the History and Sociology of Religion in the University of London at King's College and formerly Professor of African History at the University of Ibadan Nigeria Theo Sundermeier is Professor of the History of Religion and

Missiology at the Ruprecht Karls Universität Heidelberg translated by Elaine Griffiths Eleanor Jackson Engaging Religions and Worldviews in Africa Yusufu Turaki, 2020-04-30 In a world of increasing globalization we live amidst a clash of cultures religions and worldviews each battling for the human heart and mind In this in depth study Yusufu Turaki offers a theological framework for engaging this clash of perspectives in Africa where traditional African religions colonialism and exposure to Christianity have each had a lasting impact on contemporary African worldviews Professor Turaki undertakes a systematic analysis of the nature of African Traditional Religion its complex history with Christianity and the need for African Christian theology to address its cultural and historical roots effectively He provides both a conceptual framework and practical guide for engaging African cultures and religions with compassion understanding and a firm foundation rooted in scriptural truth This book is an excellent resource for students of religion and theology as well as those interested in Africa s traditional heritage or drawn to the important work of cross cultural and inter religious dialogue Art and Risk in Ancient Yoruba Suzanne Preston Blier, 2017-11-02 In this book Suzanne Preston Blier examines the intersection of art risk and creativity in early African arts from the Yoruba center of Ife and the striking ways that ancient Ife artworks inform society politics history and religion Yoruba art offers a unique lens into one of Africa s most important and least understood early civilizations one whose historic arts have long been of interest to local residents and Westerners alike because of their tour de force visual power and technical complexity Among the complementary subjects explored are questions of art making art viewing and aesthetics in the famed ancient Nigerian city state as well as the attendant risks and danger assumed by artists patrons and viewers alike in certain forms of subject matter and modes of portrayal including unique genres of body marking portraiture animal symbolism and regalia This volume celebrates art history and the shared passion and skill with which the remarkable artists of early Ife sought to define their past for generations of viewers African Religion Laurenti Magesa, 2014-07-30 Describes the moral teachings values norms and principles to follow so that life might be abundant for all of the African religion as it relates to individuals and community
