In Consuming Youth Rob Latham explains why showing how fiction film and other media deploy these ambiguous monsters to embody and work through the implications of a capitalist system in which youth both consume and are consumed. Inspired by Marx's use of the cyborg vampire as a metaphor for the objectification of physical labor in the factory, Latham shows how contemporary images of vampires and cyborgs illuminate the contradictory processes of empowerment and exploitation that characterize the youth consumer system. While the vampire is a voracious consumer driven by a hunger for perpetual youth, the cyborg has incorporated the machineries of consumption into its own flesh. Powerful fusions of technology and desire, these paired images symbolize the forms of labor and leisure that American society has staked out for contemporary youth. A startling look at youth in our time, Consuming Youth will interest anyone concerned with film, television, and popular culture.

Cheap Scares! Gregory Lamberson, 2014-01-10 This is a step by step guide to creating and selling a horror movie from rough outline to film distribution with an emphasis on storytelling and marketing. Chapters cover screenwriting, freelancing as a writer, collaborating, budgeting and pitching projects to industry decision makers. Interviews with J. B. Bookwalter, Roy Frumkes, Larry Fessenden, Scooter McRae, Brett Piper and others all convey today's realities. Production stills, sample screenplay pages and sample budgets are included. Fully indexed. The Independent Film Experience Kevin J.

Lindenmuth, 2002-02-14 You see them on the video shelves with titles such as Shadow Tracker, Psycho Girls and The Blair Witch Project. Skeptically perhaps you rent one and slip it into the VCR. Hey, you think this isn't so bad, sometimes actually quite good. Suddenly you discover that there is a whole range of movies from filmmakers operating outside the studio system that have their own attractions that the big budget fare can't match. You have of course discovered the world of independent filmmaking. A fascinating group of independent film directors and producers in interviews with the author discuss their work and the state of the independent film industry at the end of the 20th century. Joe Bagnardi, Dennis Devine, Andrew Harrison, Jeff Leroy, Andrew Parkinson, Brett Piper and 23 others cover such topics as the increased interest in independent films and how they are changing thanks to high tech advances. These filmmakers vary widely in age, experience, formats and budgets and choice of subject matter, but they all have a great passion for their work. Shakespeare in Psychoanalysis Philip

Armstrong, 2005-06-29 The link between psychoanalysis as a mode of interpretation and Shakespeare's works is well known. But rather than merely putting Shakespeare on the couch, Philip Armstrong focuses on the complex and fascinatingly fruitful mutual relationship between Shakespeare's texts and psychoanalytic theory. He shows how the theories of Freud, Rank, Jones, Lacan, Erikson and others are themselves in a large part the product of reading Shakespeare. Armstrong provides an introductory cultural history of the relationship between psychoanalytic concepts and Shakespearean texts. This is played out in a variety of expected and unexpected contexts, including the early modern stage (Hamlet and The Tempest), Freud's analytic session, the Parisian intellectual scene, Hollywood, the virtual space of the PC. The Complete Dinosaur James Orville Farlow, M. K. Brett-Surman, 1997 A highly illustrated celebration of dinosaurs for general readers, presenting a thorough survey from the earliest discoveries to contemporary controversies over extinction Chapters are written by experts in fields including functional morphology paleobiology and biogeography with sections on the discovery of dinosaurs the study of dinosaurs groups of dinosaurs their biology and dinosaur evolution Highlights include discussion of new information on the warm blooded cold blooded debate new insights into the possibility of isolating dinosaur DNA and a special section on dinosaurs in the media While touted as accessible treatment is sophisticated and assumes an educated and highly motivated readership Includes a glossary and bandw and color photos drawings paintings and diagrams Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
