Alan Brinkley

Prosperity Depression War 1920 1945:

Prosperity, Depression, and War, 1920-1945 Laura K. Egendorf, 2003 Between 1920 and 1945 America transformed from a nation that had isolated itself from the rest of the world after World War I to the globe's strongest democracy after the Allied victory in World War II The contributors to this volume explore the events and people that shaped the era

Prosperity, Depression, And War, 1920-1945 Laura K. Egendorf, 2002-09-01 Looks at important writings and moments in American history from women gaining the right to vote to deciding to drop the atomic bomb Prosperity, Depression and War, 1920-1945 Alan Brinkley, 1990 The New American History American Historical Association, 1997 Originally released in 1990 The New American History edited for the American Historical Association by Eric Foner has become an indispensable volume for teachers and students In essays that chart the shifts in interpretation within their fields some of our most prominent American historians survey the key works and themes in the scholarship of the last three decades Along with substantially revised essays from the first edition this volume presents three entirely new ones on intellectual history the history of the West and the histories of the family and sexuality The second edition of The New American History reflects in Foner's words the continuing vitality and creativity of the study of the past how traditional fields are being expanded and redefined even as new ones are created Author note Eric Foner is DeWitt Clinton Professor of History at Columbia University He is the author of numerous books including Reconstruction 1863-1877 which was awarded the Bancroft Prize The Routledge Companion to World History since 1914 Chris Cook, John Stevenson, 2006-01-27 The Routledge Companion to World History since 1914 is an outstanding compendium of facts and figures on World History Fully up to date reliable and clear this volume is the indispensable source of information on a thorough range of topics such as the Arab Israeli conflict anti semitism and the Holocaust all the world's major famines and natural disasters since 1914 whether all countries of the world have a king president prime minister or other governance GNP of the world's major states year by year biographies of key figures civil rights movements the Vietnam War the rise of terrorism globalization Thematically presented the book covers topics relevant from the First World War to the Iraq war of 2003 and from post colonial Africa to conflicts and movements in Southeast Asia With maps chronologies and full bibliography this user friendly reference work is the essential companion for students of history politics and international relations and for all those with an interest in world history

Uncommon Americans Timothy Walch, 2003-09-30 This first joint biography of the Hoovers will reshape Herbert Hoover's image as a man who did little more than sit in the White House while the country suffered Both Hoovers were dynamic uncommon Americans who made enormous contributions to mankind before during and after the presidency Walch Director of the Herbert Hoover Presidential Library brings together contributions from leading scholars who have conducted extensive research into the lives of this extraordinary couple placing them in a national and international context He hopes to entice more historians to delve into the intricacies of their lives Winter War Eric Rauchway, 2018-11-20 The history of the most acrimonious presidential handoff in American history and of the origins of twentieth century liberalism and conservatism As historian Eric Rauchway shows in Winter War FDR laid out coherent far ranging plans for the New Deal in the months prior to his inauguration Meanwhile still President Hoover worried about FDR's abilities and afraid of the president elect's policies became the first comprehensive critic of the New Deal Thus even before FDR took office both the principles of the welfare state and reaction against it had already taken form Winter War reveals how in the months before the hundred days FDR and Hoover battled over ideas and shaped the divisive politics of the twentieth century Endless Frontier G. Pascal Zachary, 2018-01-30 A prodigiously researched biography of Vannevar Bush one of America's most awe inspiring polymaths and the secret force behind the biggest technological breakthroughs of the twentieth century As the inventor and public entrepreneur who launched the Manhattan Project helped to create the military industrial complex conceived a permanent system of government support for science and engineering and anticipated both the personal computer and the Internet Vannevar Bush is the twentieth century's Ben Franklin In this engaging look at one of America's most awe inspiring polymaths writer G Pascal Zachary brings to life an American original a man of his time ours and beyond Zachary details how Bush cofounded Raytheon and helped build one of the most powerful early computers in the world at MIT During World War II he served as Roosevelt's adviser and chief contact on all matters of military technology including the atomic bomb He launched the Manhattan Project and oversaw a collection of 6 000 civilian scientists who designed scores of new weapons After the war his attention turned to the future He wrote essays that anticipated the rise of the Internet and boldly equated national security with research strength outlining a system of permanent federal funding for university research that endures to this day However Bush's hopeful vision of science and technology was leavened by an understanding of the darker possibilities While cheering after witnessing the Trinity atomic test he warned against the perils of a nuclear arms race He led a secret appeal to convince President Truman not to test the Hydrogen Bomb and campaigned against the Red Scare Elegantly and expertly relayed by Zachary Vannevar's story is a grand tour of the digital leviathan we know as the modern American life Imagined Histories Anthony Molho, Gordon S. Wood, 2018-06-05 This collection of essays by twenty one distinguished American historians reflects on a peculiarly American way of imagining the past At a time when history writing has changed dramatically the authors discuss the birth and evolution of historiography in this country from its origins in the late nineteenth century through its present more cosmopolitan character In the book's first part concerning recent historiography are chapters on exceptionalism gender economic history social theory race and immigration and multiculturalism Authors are Daniel Rodgers Linda Kerber Naomi Lamoreaux Dorothy Ross Thomas Holt and Philip Gleason The three American centuries are discussed in the second part with chapters by Gordon Wood George Fredrickson and James Patterson The third part is a chronological survey of non American histories including that of Western civilization ancient history the middle ages early modern and modern Europe Russia and Asia Contributors are Eugen Weber

Richard Saller Gabrielle Spiegel Anthony Molho Philip Benedict Richard Kagan Keith Baker Joseph Zizak Volker Berghahn Charles Maier Martin Malia and Carol Gluck Together these scholars reveal the unique perspective American historians have brought to the past of their own nation as well as that of the world Formerly writing from a conviction that America had a singular destiny American historians have gradually come to share viewpoints of historians in other countries about which they write The result is the virtual disappearance of what was a distinctive American voice That voice is the subject of this book

Small-Town Dreams John E. Miller, 2014-03-28 We live these days in a virtual nation of cities and celebrities dreaming a small town America rendered ever stranger by purveyors of nostalgia and dark visionaries from Sherwood Anderson to David Lynch And yet it is the small town that world of local character and neighborhood lore that dreamed the America we know today and the small town boy like those whose stories this book tells who made it real In these life stories beginning in 1890 with frontier historian Frederick Jackson Turner and moving up to the present with global shopkeeper Sam Walton a history of middle America unfolds as entrepreneurs and teachers like Henry Ford George Washington Carver and Walt Disney artists and entertainers like Thomas Hart Benton Grant Wood Carl Sandburg and Johnny Carson political figures like William McKinley William Jennings Bryan and Ronald Reagan and athletes like Bob Feller and John Wooden by turns engender and illustrate the extraordinary cultural shifts that have transformed the Midwest and through the Midwest the nation and the world Many of these men are familiar icons even Ford and Reagan certainly Ernie Pyle Sinclair Lewis James Dean and Lawrence Welk and others like artists Oscar Micheaux and John Steuart Curry economist Alvin Hansen and composer Meredith Willson less so But in their stories as John E Miller tells them all appear in a new light unique in their backgrounds and accomplishments united only in the way their lives reveal the persisting shaping power of place and particularly the Midwest on the cultural imagination and national consciousness In a thoroughly engaging style Miller introduces us to the small town Midwestern boys who became these all American characters privileging us with insights that pierce the public images of politicians and businessmen thinkers and entertainers alike From the smell of the farm the sounds and silences of hamlets and county seats the schoolyard athletics and classroom instruction and theatrical performance we follow these men to their moments of inspiration innovation and fame observing the workings of the small town past in their very different relationships with the larger world Their stories reveal in an intimate way how profoundly childhood experiences shape personal identity and how deeply place figures in the mapping of thought belief ambition and life's course
