Yearbook of the European Convention on Human Rights / Annuaire de la convention européenne des droits de l'homme, Volume 64 (2021) Council of Europe/Conseil de l'Europe, 2025-06-13 The Yearbook of the European Convention on Human Rights edited by the Directorate General of Human Rights and Legal Affairs is an indispensable record of the development and impact of the world's oldest binding international human rights treaty. It reviews the implementation of the Convention both by the European Court of Human Rights and by the Council of Europe's Committee of Ministers responsible for supervising the application of the Court's judgments in the member states. The Yearbook includes Full text of any new protocols to the Convention as they are opened for signature together with the state of signatures and ratifications. Full listing of Court judgments judgments broken down by subject matter and extensive summaries of key judgments handed down by the Court during the year. Selected human rights DH resolutions adopted as part of the Committee of Ministers work supervising the execution of the Court's judgments. Enquiries by the Secretary General carried out under Article 52 of the Convention. Other work of the Council of Europe connected with the European Convention on Human Rights carried out by the Committee of Ministers, the Parliamentary Assembly and the Directorate General of Human Rights and Legal Affairs. Bibliographic information from the library of the European Court of Human Rights. The Yearbook is published in an English French bilingual edition.

International Law, Conflict and Development Walter Kälin, Robert Kolb, Christoph Spenlé, Maurice Voyame, 2010-01-11. Experience and research have long shown an intrinsic link between human rights conflict and development. This interdependence between different areas, doctrines and disciplines calls for a genuinely coherent holistic approach in International Affairs. With the challenges the work for the protection and respect of humanity encounters, this book intends to bring together articles and ideas that indicate the complexity of such an endeavor. The chapters written by academics and practitioners encompass snapshots of crucial development lines as well as conceptual ideas and frameworks. In doing so, the book provides insight into the principal understanding that peace efforts encapsulating human rights conflict management and development can only be sustained and flourish as long as conflicting parties have at least a minimal consensus and will to settle their differences peacefully. As a Liber Amicorum for Joseph Voyame, the book honors the determination for humanity and respect for human dignity and peaceful mitigation of conflict which marked his life and work.

Milton, Michael Lazzara, 2025 This groundbreaking collection of essays examines how Latin American militaries construct memories of past human rights violations in ways that challenge established public memory and human rights discourse While previous studies have focused on democratization transitional justice and victim centered narratives this volume takes a different approach It highlights the importance of deconstructing the military's own active memory work or their countermemories a term the editors use to describe military narratives that are both counterintuitive and that run counter to the victim oriented memories that have long dominated the region's public memory With attention to the distinct cultural political and historical contexts across Latin America the essays reveal how military figures and institutions appropriate mechanisms of truth telling and accountability to reframe the past blur the lines between perpetrator and victim and weaponize memory itself Contributors Mariana Achugar Gabriela Fried Amilivia Rebecca Atencio Jo Marie Burt Rachel Hatcher Nicol's Rodriguez Id rraga Michael J Lazzara Cynthia E Milton Carla Granados Moya Mar a Emma Wills Obreg n Leith Passmore Valentina Salvi Gladys V squez Zevallos Human Rights and the Protection of Refugees Under International Law John P.
