Protest In Belgrade Winter Of Discontent:

Lacan, Discourse, Event: New Psychoanalytic Approaches to Textual Indeterminacy Ian Parker, David Pavón-Cuéllar, 2013-10-30 Lacan Discourse Event New Psychoanalytic Approaches to Textual Indeterminacy is an introduction to the emerging field of Lacanian Discourse Analysis It includes key papers that lay the foundations for this research and worked examples from analysts working with a range of different texts The editors Ian Parker and David Pavón Cuéllar begin with an introduction which reviews the key themes in discourse analysis and the problems faced by researchers in that field of work including an overview of the development of discourse analysis in different disciplines psychology sociology cultural studies and political and social theory They also set out the conceptual and methodological principles of Lacan's work insofar as it applies to the field of discourse Ian Parker and David Pavón Cuéllar have divided the book into three main sections The first section comprises previously published papers some not yet available in English which set out the foundations for Lacanian Discourse Analysis The chapters establish the first lines of research and illustrate how Lacanian psychoanalysis is transformed into a distinctive approach to interpreting text when it is taken out of the clinical domain The second and third parts of the book comprise commissioned papers in which leading researchers from across the social sciences from the English speaking world and from continental Europe and Latin America show how Lacanian Discourse Analysis works in practice Lacan Discourse Event New Psychoanalytic Approaches to Textual Indeterminacy is intended to be a definitive volume bringing together writing from the leaders in the field of Lacanian Discourse Analysis working in the English speaking world and in countries where Lacanian psychoanalysis is part of mainstream clinical practice and social theory It will be of particular interest to psychoanalysts of different traditions to post graduate and undergraduate researchers in psycho social studies cultural studies sociology and social anthropology

Protest in Belgrade Mladen Lazić, 1999 Protest in Belgrade addresses one of the most important social movements of this decade the civil and student peace demonstrations which took place in Belgrade during the winter of 1996-97 The demonstrations were the largest ever in history and attracted global media attention This in depth study of a society calling for democracy is based on interviews with over 1000 civilians and students The book analyses the empirical findings of the research and presents specific sociological data on matters such as class composition political and social values motivations and objectives A chronology of events is also included The book provides an abundance of valuable information for analysts of postsocialist transformation researchers of social movements and social change and all those concerned with the tragic events in Southeast Europe

Socialism Vanquished, Socialism Challenged Nina Bandelj, Dorothy J. Solinger, 2012-09-05 Socialism Vanquished Socialism Challenged examines the twenty year aftermath of the 1989 assaults on established state sponsored socialism in the former Soviet bloc and in China Editors Nina Bandelj and Dorothy J Solinger bring together prominent experts on Eastern Europe and China to examine the respective trajectories of political economic and social transformations that unfolded in these two areas while also comparing the changes that ensued within the two regions Human Development and Political Violence Colette Daiute, 2010-04-26 Human Development and Political Violence presents an innovative approach to research and practice with young people growing up in the context of political violence Based on developmental theory this book explains and illustrates how children and youth interact with environments defined by war armed conflict and the aftermath involving displacement poverty political instability and personal loss The case study for this inquiry was a research workshop in four countries of the former Yugoslavia where youth aged 12 to 27 participated in activities designed to promote their development The theory based Dynamic Story Telling by Youth workshop engaged participants as social historians and critics sharing their experiences via narratives evaluations of society letters to public officials debates and collaborative inquiries Analyses of these youth perspectives augment archival materials and researcher field notes to offer insights about developmental strategies for dealing with the threats and opportunities of war and major political change

The New Cold War Mark Mackinnon, 2010-08-13 An intrepid investigation into the pro democracy movements that have reshaped the Eastern bloc since 2000 reopening the Kremlin s wounds from the Cold War When the Berlin Wall fell in 1989 and the Soviet Union collapsed two years later liberal democracy was supposed to fill the void left by Soviet communism Poland and Czechoslovakia made the best of reforms but the citizens of the Evil Empire itself saw little of the promised freedom and more of the same old despots and corruption A a second wave of reforms Serbia in 2000 Georgia in 2003 and Ukraine in 2004 as well as Kyrgyzstan s regime change in 2005 have proven almost as monumental as those in Berlin and Moscow The people of the Eastern bloc aided in no small part by Western money and advice are again rising up and demanding an end to autocracy And once more the Kremlin is battling the White House every step of the way Mark MacKinnon spent these years working in Moscow and his view of the story and access to those involved remains unparalleled With The New Cold War he reveals the links between these democratic revolutions and the idealistic American billionaire behind them in a major investigation into the forces that are quietly reshaping the post Soviet world Democratic

Revolutions Mark K. Thompson, 2003-11-20 Thompson examines the neglected concept of democratic revolutions spontaneous popular uprisings which topple unyielding dictators and begin a transition process that eventually results in the consolidation of democracy International Conflict and Security Law Sergey Sayapin, Rustam Atadjanov, Umesh
