Provincializing Europe:

Provincializing Europe Dipesh Chakrabarty, 2000 First published in 2000 Dipesh Chakrabarty's influential Provincializing Europe addresses the mythical figure of Europe that is often taken to be the original site of modernity in many histories of capitalist transition in non Western countries This imaginary Europe Dipesh Chakrabarty argues is built into the social sciences The very idea of historicizing carries with it some peculiarly European assumptions about disenchanted space secular time and sovereignty Measured against such mythical standard capitalist transition in the third world has often seemed either incomplete or lacking Provincializing Europe proposes that every case of transition to capitalism is a case of translation as well a translation of existing worlds and their thought categories into the categories and self understandings of capitalist modernity Now featuring a new preface in which Chakrabarty responds to his critics this book globalizes European thought by exploring how it may be renewed both for and from the margins from back cover

Provincializing Europe ,2000 Can European thought be dislodged from the center of the practice of history in a non European place What problems arise when we translate cultural practices into the categories of social science Provincializing Europe is one of the first book length treatments on how postcolonial thinking impacts on the social sciences This book explores through a series of linked essays the problems of thought that present themselves when we think of a place such as India through the categories of modern European social science and in particular history Provincializing Europe is a sustained conversation between historical thinking and postcolonial perspectives It addresses the mythical figure of Europe that is often taken to be the original site of the modern in many histories of capitalist transition in non Western countries This imaginary Europe Chakrabarty argues is built right into the social sciences The very idea of historicizing carries with it some peculiarly European assumptions about disenchanted space secular time and human sovereignty Measured against such mythical standards capitalist transition in the third world has often seemed either incomplete or lacking Chakrabarty finds that Nativism however is no answer to Eurocentrism because the universals propounded by European Enlightenment remain indispensable to any social critique that seeks to address issues of social justice and equity Provincializing Europe proposes that every case of transition to capitalism is a case of translation as well a translation of existing worlds and their thought categories into the categories and self understandings of capitalist modernity Chakrabarty demonstrates both theoretically and with examples from colonial and contemporary India how such translational histories may be thought and written Provincializing Europe is not a project of shunning European thought It is a project of globalizing such thought by exploring how it may be renewed both for and from the margins

Provincializing Europe Dipesh Chakrabarty, 2009-06-05 First published in 2000 Dipesh Chakrabarty's influential Provincializing Europe addresses the mythical figure of Europe that is often taken to be the original site of modernity in many histories of capitalist transition in non Western countries This imaginary Europe Dipesh Chakrabarty argues is built into the social sciences The very idea of historicizing carries with it

some peculiarly European assumptions about disenchanted space secular time and sovereignty Measured against such mythical standards capitalist transition in the third world has often seemed either incomplete or lacking Provincializing Europe proposes that every case of transition to capitalism is a case of translation as well a translation of existing worlds and their thought categories into the categories and self understandings of capitalist modernity Now featuring a new preface in which Chakrabarty responds to his critics this book globalizes European thought by exploring how it may be renewed both for and from the margins

Provincializing Europe Dipesh Chakrabarty, 2001 This Book Explores Through A Series Of Linked Essays The Problems Of Thought That Present Themselves When We Think Of A Place Such As India Through The Categories Of Modern European Social Science And In Particular History

Doing Conceptual History in Africa Axel Fleisch, Rhiannon Stephens, 2018-02-21 Employing an innovative methodological toolkit Doing Conceptual History in Africa provides a refreshingly broad and interdisciplinary approach to African historical studies The studies assembled here focus on the complex role of language in Africa s historical development with a particular emphasis on pragmatics and semantics From precolonial dynamics of wealth and poverty to the conceptual foundations of nationalist movements each contribution strikes a balance between the local and the global engaging with a distinctively African intellectual tradition while analyzing the regional and global contexts in which categories like work marriage and land take shape

Southeast European Studies in a Globalizing World Christian Promitzer, Siegfried Gruber, Harald Heppner, 2014 Since the early 1990s Southeast European studies have undergone profound changes being shaped by the wars of Yugoslav succession and the ramifications of post socialism coupled with democratic deficiencies which characterize most of Southeast Europe The countries which it encompasses rest uneasily on the periphery of the developed variant of Western capitalism but they have nonetheless to contend with the challenges of adjusting to a market economy The imprint of these contexts on academic research has led to a discussion of the role of Southeast European studies It is the task of this volume to summarize and raise awareness of this discussion Series Studies on South East Europe Vol 16 Subject European Studies Sociology Politics

Europe and Its Boundaries Andrew Davison, Himadeep Muppidi, 2009-01-01 In crating a forum for a deeply hermeneutical consideration of the project of provincializing Europe this book articulates an alternative grammar of global political thought It shows that forms of global political thought are capable of residing simultaneously within as well as significantly beyond the boundaries of European thought India's Forests, Real and Imagined Alan Johnson, 2022-12-29 As they seek to explore evolving and conflicting ideas of nationhood and modernity India s writers have often chosen forests as the dramatic setting for stories of national identity India s Forests Real and Imagined explores how these settings have been integral to India s sense of national consciousness Alan Johnson demonstrates that modern writers have drawn on older Indian literary traditions of the forest as a place of exile trial and danger to shape new ideas of India as a modern nation The book casts new light on a wide range of modern writers from Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay widely regarded as the first Indian novelist to contemporary authors such as Amitav Ghosh Arundhati Roy and Salman Rushdie as well as local attitudes to nationhood and the environment across the country
